Lavender Bows Before Jasper Team, 22-20

Lavender Five Suffers Effects of Layoff — Levine Outstanding

Displaying the harmful effects of a night's loss due to exams, the City College basketball team went down to a 22-20 defeat at the hands of the Greenmen of Manhattan before a capacity crowd at Madison Square Garden last night. The Beavers now boast a season's record of five victories against three defeats.

Last night's contest was fought out by the sloppy floor-work and poor shooting exhibited by both squads, which resulted in keeping the score down so low. As is a rule the crowd when a City team meets Manhattan, the game was rough and bitterly fought, resulting in many bad tempers, fouling. Neither squad capitalized on these free shot opportunities. The Beavers dropped in but eight out of seventeen attempts, but the Jaspers could do better only in one of the last eight points.

In the first period, Levine, flashy forward and bright star of the City College quintet, again paced his mates with a thumping, and as has been his wont all season, shot three of five points for a total of six. Keyser, of the Jasper squad, was used as a substitute for the other end, and Keyser, along with the other boys, rose to the occasion and played the same sort of game as the Greenmen. The Jaspers led 11-5 after the first period, and 14-11 at half-time.

Beavers Meet Invading M.I.T. Grapplers Sat. Eve In Gym

By George Weisman

To give a better notion of the contest the M.I.T. men will present, we may say that all of them are from 135 pounds to 190 pounds inclusive. The weight of the team is approximately 3,200 pounds, which places them in the light weight division. The team consists of eight members and is rounded out with two reserve men. The reserve men are from the high school and are not expected to do as well as the regular men.

The appearance of the M.I.T. men is typical of the men of the university. They are clean-shaven, and well dressed in sports clothes. The team is divided into two sections, each section consisting of four men. The section on the left consists of the regular men, and the section on the right consists of the reserve men.

The game will be held in the main gymnasium, and will begin at 8:30 p.m. The admission price is $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children.

BABY BEAVERS

By James E. Hervey

Our Garden Club, whose work we have seen, is doing a splendid job in the garden. The members are very active and have done much to improve the appearance of the garden. The club is composed of students and faculty members who are interested in gardening.

The club meets every Wednesday evening in the garden, and members are encouraged to bring their own tools and equipment.

The club is also responsible for maintaining the garden, and members are expected to contribute to the upkeep of the garden.

The club is looking forward to a successful year, and members are encouraged to participate in all aspects of the club's work.

FACULTY BACKS DR. ROBINSON

The majority of the faculty supports Dr. Robinson's proposal for an undefeated season. The proposal was discussed at the faculty meeting, and it was decided that the faculty will back Dr. Robinson's proposal.

The proposal will be presented to the student body, and it is expected that the students will support the proposal as well.

Meeting, which will be held in the main gymnasium, will begin at 8:30 p.m. The admission price is $1.00 for adults and 50 cents for children.

The meeting will be attended by the members of the Garden Club, as well as members of the faculty and students.

The meeting will be an opportunity for members to discuss the garden and to share ideas for improving the garden.
On Trail

The controversy continues to rage over the conditions of student life on campus. The administration maintains that the university is functioning as it should, while students and faculty members argue for improvements. The Student Government Association is at the center of the debate, with many students calling for greater autonomy and more say in decision-making processes.

"Student power" is a term that is often bandied about, but what does it really mean? For many students, it means the ability to have a say in the running of the school and to have their voices heard. For others, it means the ability to organize and act together to bring about change. The struggle for student power is a complex one, and it is one that continues to evolve and change over time.

Correspondence

To the Editor of The Ticker:

The recent events at the University have caused a great deal of concern among students and faculty members. It is clear that something needs to be done to address the issues that have arisen.

Yours truly,

Bonnett on Books...

Ocasionaly, there comes along a novel which hits you between the eyes because it deals with conditions and experiences with which you are personally familiar. Such a work is Isador Schneider's "The Kingdom of Necessity." This autobiographical novel doesn't strike a response note in many College students, I fear. The book is set in a small, isolated, semi-rural community, where the people are poor and hardworking in a world where the poor man's back is broken by the demands of the rich.... William Borah
