The April 22nd Strike
An Editorial

The April 22nd anti-war strike was a necessary and successful action despite apparent attempts of the administration to sabotage it. The machinery has been geared to destroy the School of Business student body into an institutional faculty-controlled peace movement where peace will be feted for two hours and promptly forgotten afterwards.

There can be no more solemn a gesture, no more significant and cooperative act of affairs, than when students are allowed to demonstrate for peace in the auditoriums of their college. But the entire strike hinges on several conditions:

1. The peace assembly must be student control.
2. The chairman must be a student.
3. Speakers must be selected by the students.
4. Resolutions must be introduced to the audience.

With these conditions granted, a faculty-controlled assembly would express the "widespread, unswerving opposition to war as the only solution for our foreign and domestic problems." However, the remote possibility of having such idiocy as the one mentioned and the inaccessibility to accept modifications offered by the faculty as a penalty to a faculty chairman declare "The Strike - peace - with reservations."

The Ticker, as in the past, will faithfully report on the strike in Madison Square Park, and will be ready to bring before the students the basic ideal of the strike. Unlike routine peace assemblies, there is no expectation that the strike will represent the most effective pressure technique yet devised by the students: insistence upon peace.

Accounting Forum

There is a publication called "The Accounting Forum," the only undergraduate publication of its kind, mirrors the broad field of accounting in all phases: accounting theory, examination problems and solutions, current tendencies in the field, references to accounting literature and news of local interest.

The Accounting Forum has recently been honored by having a paper submitted to the other professional publications for inclusion in the Accounting Forum. The publication of this paper on a national scale means that the students of the Accounting Forum are on a par with those in English-speaking countries.

The Ticker Ass'n Names Stein '37 as Editor

Had Served as Acting-Editor Mosesson Named Faculty Adviser

Alfred M. Stein, '37, was unanimously appointed to the position of editor-in-chief of the Accounting Forum, the Student Journal of the School of Business. He succeeds Victor C. March, '31, who will continue in the capacity of editor-in-chief of The Ticker.

The members elected to the committee were Sol Baserman, '37, of the American Society of Accountants, and N. J. M. Chen, '38, of the Accounting Forum.

The Ticker holds an initial meeting of the entire student membership on Tuesday afternoon, February 17, 1936, at 8:00 p.m. in the Pauline Edwards Theatre.

Beta Gamma Holds Initiation Dinner

The sixteen new members of Beta Gamma Sigma, the national business college honorary society, were welcomed by Professor Ross A. Baker, Dean. The new members were elected from the floor and announced at this meeting.

Theatren to Present "Outward Bound."

A Watery Fantasy Saturday Evening

By Stanley Altman

"Outward Bound," a three-act fantasy by Sutton Vane, will be presented by the Theatren, the student dramatic society of the School of Business, at the Pauline Edwards Theatre, tomorrow evening, at 8:00 p.m.

Bound for nowhere, a shipload of dead people and one couple chance upon a startling happening. Unhappily, none of them know they are dead. In this instance, they find themselves at the beginning of their final destination, some proceed to heaven, some to hell.

Directed by Messrs. Levy, Kraus and Craig of the public relations department, "Outward Bound" promises to be a remarkable drama, promises to be the most successful in the Theatren's history.

A.S.U. to Hold Discussion on ROTC Thurs.

Pelowitz and Cornfeld to Debate on "A. S. U. and R. O. T. C."

MEETING OUTSIDE

To Be Held at 44 East 21st Street at 12:30 o'clock

Continuing its policy of sponsoring outside meetings, the Faculty Committee considers its charter, the Student Rules Committee's involvement. The American Student Union will hold a symposium on "The R. O. T. C. and the A. S. U." Wednesday, at 12:30 p.m. at 44 East 21st Street.

Jack Pelowitz, R. O. T. C. member, will challenge the A. S. U. position which urges graduation from ROTC. This stand, Pelowitz has already stated, makes it impossible for any student to accept its position, nor with his organization to join the American Student Union.

In opposition to this view, Dr. Cornfeld, president of the executive committee of the A. S. U., states that a ROTC platform on military training is not provided. He will defend the view that a ROTC member can align himself with the student movement even though he is a ROTC member, believing in it as part of his platform.

A discussion period will follow the debate. The membership campaign of the proposed local chapter which began in the near future, the executive committee has announced. The campaign is expected to more than double the existing membership, which now numbers over one hundred students.

Council Votes for Peace Assembly

Accepting the report of the Students Rights Committee, the Student Council voted last Friday to have a Peace Assembly on April 22, 1936. There will be a student chairman, no censorship of speeches, and permission for the Committee to consider and pass any resolution presented.

The Council also voted to change the name of the April 22nd "Anti-War Strike to Anti-War Demonstration." This resolution was obtained by suspending classes from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

BULLETIN

The motion to readmit women to the School of Business, which was tabled at the last meeting of the Board of Higher Education, will be taken up tomorrow night at the Board's regular meeting.
Meet the Boys at the Boys' College, Thursday, April 2, from 12:30 to 2:30 p.m., in Room 205.

Accounting Forum Features Vital Articles on Business

In a large public accounting firm, was written by Jolmre M. Wex- ler, Business Manager of the firm, and Abraham From, a recent graduate, now employed as a junior accountant.

The value and limitations of accounting as a tool to manage- ment is clearly set forth in a straightforward, lively manner by Professor Sterling K. Atkin- son.

An authoritative discussion of the significance and use of stat- ed values for no-par stock is pre- parated by Jacob Seinfeld, 36.

"Opportunities for Women In Accounting," Mirtid Sklar contends that there is definitely a place for women in public ac- counting.

Club ... **

Clips

It is up to the student to get a job himself once the Placement Bureau has arranged a conference. An important aspect of the Placement Bureau is "clearly" set forth in a straightforward, lively manner by Professor Sterling K. Atkinson.

Correspondence

To the Editor:

In a letter published last week stating your views on the R.O.T.C. and the A.A.P., I made a mistake about part of the meaning. The letter was not a criticism of the R.O.T.C. but a criticism of the procedure. I was not criticizing the R.O.T.C. but discussing procedures that I thought were unfair.

JACK WINSON

THE TICKER

Ed Group Plans Party Thursday

An Easter party will be given by the Educational Society on Thursday, April 2, from 3:30 to 5:30 p.m., in Room 205. The program, and entertainment will be provided by the trio of Nussbaum, Solomon, and Schlosser, profes- sional musicians. There will also be a program of student entertainers, directed by Jordan Horowitz.

The new $5 radio will provide the music for this feature which will occupy a major part of the program.

The Girls' Club will lend its cooperation to the affair. Ad- mission will be by invitation only.

Student Poll Favors $5 As Lounge and Ballroom

As a result of a poll conducted last week, Room 58 will be main- tained as a lounge room. Weekly dances will be held every Friday in $5. The music will be supplied by the new radio.

QUALITY NEED NOT BE EXPENSIVE

KELLOGG'S SANDWICH SHOP

106 East 23rd Street

Corona Underwood Portable Typewriters

Sports Carrying Case

One Year Guarantee

East Side, 2nd Avenue, Large

Best of class, and Right Margins.

Underwood Machines, Mignon Model, Check- writing, and all makes of Office Machines, Calculators.

WORMSER CO.

952 BROADWAY (at 32nd St.)

ZEDER'S THEATRE

Presenting "CHA Ik 12" Experimental Theatre at West 2nd Street

Edgar's THEATRE

"In the Cathedral" at Manhattan Theatre, 3rd Street at Broadway

"Triple-A Aided Under" Freewill at Broome, 23rd Street for a limited time.

"Macbeth" (Modern Version) at Lafayette Theatre

Popular Prices: 15c to 55c