Student Body Votes at Ten A. M. Today

As Sixty-three Run for Thirty Offices;

ASU Advances Slate for Council Posts

Burke, Ousted Columbian,

To Address A. S. U. Today

Candidates for S. C. Secretaryship. The Rep Offices Unopposed

With four council offices already decided because of unopposed candidates, students of the School of Business will be prepared to vote at 10 a.m. this morning for the next three and Council officers for the coming semester.

A total of sixty-three students filed applications for the thirty offices to be contested.

The four unopposed offices are that of Council secretary, for which Ezra Millstein '37 is the candidate; that of upper senior Council representative, S. Baserman '37, candidate; and that of freshman Council representative, Jerome Soffer '37, candidate; and that of junior Council representative, William Levinson '38, candidate.

Kalish, Gasman for President

While the last moment was in operation a candidate opposing Jack Kalish '37, for the presidency of the Student Council, had announced his intention of running for the office. Kalish, the term's Council vice-president, is running for the presidency of the upper senior class.

Seeking the vice-presidency of the Council, are Geo. Cohen '37 and H. Sperner. Sperner, '37, Cohen is a familiar figure in the extra-curricular life of the college. Sperner was last term's Council representative for the lower 37 class.

The candidates for the presidency of the upper senior class are Pearl Scharf and Norman Fouts. Running for vice-presidents are Cynthia Reiss and Franklin Solomon. Unopposed candidates for the lower 37 class are George Weissman, vice-president, and Nathan Greenspan. Running for secretary are Ammie Spicehandler.

New Class Sets Enrollment Mark

Although complete figures are not available, a look at the enrollment figures of 116 students at the School of Business will be held Tuesday at two o'clock in room 1421A. Applications for the business and editorial staffs will be accepted by the same room at any time. The book will be edited by gene C. Zorn, Jr., and Alex Eisen, managing editor, and Paul B. Whaley, business manager.
Twenty-five New Members Admitted to Glee Club

Several Positions Open On Commercial Teachers

Theatric Play Competition

For Higher Grades in College

The All-American College Favorite

Sixty-three Run for Office, with Four Unopposed

ASU Endorses Complete Slate Of Candidates

Kalish, Gasman

Rivals in Race For President

For the Press, That Never Runs Dry in Classes or Library

Full-length Visible Ink Supply

Scratch-proof Point of Platinum and Gold

Female Freshmen Get Tea, Sinks in Maleless 98-A

"Big Sisters" Post Guard, But Reporter Crashes Gate

Kiss with a Kapic: K

Exit at the Kenmore Hall Luncheonette
The Sport Round-Up

By Emmanu Herbst

Our intrepid captain, Coach Harvey, was in a jubilant mood last week, as he led the Beavers to a 17-7 triumph over the Rough Riders. This victory was a significant achievement, considering the Rough Riders' reputation for playing tough football.

Coach Harvey's optimism is well deserved, as the Beavers have demonstrated a high level of teamwork and individual skill. The team's performance against the Rough Riders was a testament to the hard work and dedication of the players.

The next test for the Beavers will be against the powerful Tigers, who are considered one of the top teams in the league. Coach Harvey is confident that his team can match their abilities, and the match promises to be a thrilling contest.

Sports of the Week

Veteran Boxers Start Workouts; Call for Novices

Levine Wins Decision Bout as 29 Stage Costume

Football Contest Offers Free Duets: Closest Scores to Win Allright Passes

And while the football teams were preparing for their upcoming matches, the boxing teams were busy in the gym, practicing their techniques. The calling of novices is also on the agenda, as the boxing teams look to expand their ranks.

In the meantime, let's take a look at the latest news from other sports.

Lavender Lights

The Lavender Lights is a popular music group that has been captivating audiences with their live performances. Their next show is scheduled for this weekend, and tickets are selling fast.

Attention: Girls and Boys, Attention: Girls and Boys!

There is an urgent need for volunteers to participate in a community service project. This is a great opportunity to give back to your community and make a positive impact.

Also, the French Club is hosting an event where you can learn about French culture and language. This is a fantastic opportunity to expand your knowledge and meet new people.

Sports of the Week

Gridders Will Meet Brooklyn in Opener, Saturday

The Gridiron team is excited to face Brooklyn in their season opener. This match promises to be intense, as both teams are looking to make a strong statement.

The Gridiron team has been preparing for this match, and the players are in top form. Coach Harvey is confident that his team can emerge victorious.

This week's matches are sure to be exciting, and we look forward to following the progress of our favorite teams. Stay tuned for more updates!
Babbling Brook

Rules the Roost
In '38 'Clarion'

By DAVID WASSERBERG

Thursday, September 19, 1935

The staff of the '38 Clarion, the student newspaper of City College, is hard at work preparing for the issue which will be published this Thursday, September 19. The newspaper is under the direction of a student editor, and the staff consists of a group of dedicated students who are committed to producing a quality publication.

Relates the Tragic Story

Of Working-Class Martyrs

The Clarion, which is published weekly, is a forum for the expression of student opinions and concerns. It covers a wide range of topics, from local events to national issues, and provides a platform for students to engage in discussions and debates.

Cartoon that appears on jacket of book

KNOCK:

Who's There?

RETAL

Who?

KELLOGG'S

SANDWICH SHOP

23rd Street, between Lexington & 6th. Ave.

O'BRIEN'S STATIONERS • PRINTERS

Drafting and Artists' Materials. 14th Floor, Fax 3472.

A Pop Fly from the College

COLLEGE OPENING SPECIALS

While School Paper 100¢, Yellow Pen Paper 10¢.

10c

15c

PEERLESS DRUG STORES, Inc.

Lexington Ave. & 23rd St.

FOUNTAIN PENS REPAIRED

While You Wait

HAY YOUR NAME ENGRAVED

in Gold on your pen or pencil.

15c

PEELESS DRUG STORES, Inc.

Lexington Ave. & 23rd St.

10% Account in C. C. N. Y. Students

Accounting and Bookkeeping Supplies

ALL TYPES OF PENS REPAIRED

10c

We Cater to C. C. N. Y. Students
The Lynching of Bob Burke

Company! It is fairly bursting with activity. Dozens of departments! Hundreds of people! Nervous!All this, I suppose, is due to this seething cauldron of financial benevolence coming one after another. It's a fascinating game, isn't it? It's so well-groomed, indubitably a gentleman. He's a man without a shirt. He's so disguised! He's a gentleman without funds, doesn't care. He's Mr. Stringer. He's at a loss to tell...