BABY

BEAVERETTES

By Ania Gerbman

AFTER a failure of two years, the Beavernettes, popular social group of Beaverettes, sponsored for the third time, held their annual Dance for the Colledge Widow last Saturday night, March 21st. Many of the girls who supported the Beavernettes in previous years were present, and they were very happy to relive their happy days. The dance was held in the Student Room, and about 80 guests were present. The Red Sox won in the baseball game, and many people were present to watch.

ADOLF HITLER SAYS:

"I positively will not attend"

SENIOR CLASS NITE

WHY?

Page 79

CHICAGO ASU CONVENTION URGES AYA PASSAGE

Need For Strong Student Union

Stressed By Delegates

(Continued from page one)

Among the bodies representing the student interest, the City College Union is prominent.

Keller was high source of entertainment for the evening. A method of entertainment was a dancing in the Student Room.

Keller was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,

and was present at the event,
S. C. TO ORGANIZE CO-OP FOR STUDENT BUYERS

Everything From Toothpicks to Tombstones Will Be Sold

CUT IN PRICES POSSIBLE

Savings of 30-40 Per Cent Will Be Secured By Students

Norman Glass '39, and William Lerman '38, appointed to the day session committee, which plans to open a cooperative store in the basement of the campus. The store will be open from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily and will sell all the necessities of student life at reduced prices.

37 Wags Eager For Class Night

By "Tommy"

Maybe you thought New York City was just another seedy city; maybe you thought class was just another word for entertainment; maybe you thought there was something wrong with your college education. But you were wrong. Class Night is here, and it's going to be great.

Theatron Presents Play Over W N Y C

Theatron is presenting a play over WNYC this week. "The Great Gatsby" will be performed on Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday nights at 8 p.m. The play will be directed by Professor Alexander Green."}

38 Truckers Shake Blues At Flunk Swing, Jan. 22

Groom, the bewhiskered debuff of weekend glories, will be showered with the gourmets' gotcha by his fellow students at the Flunk Swing on Saturday night. The swing will be held in the gymnasium at 8 p.m.

MERCURY GOES COSMIC IN LAST ISSUE OF TERM

In a sober, almost somber mood, "Mercury" reported that the magazine of the class of 1938 took some profound digs at dictators and their allies in its last issue of the term, issued Friday.

Notice to N.Y.A Students

All time slips for tests before 1:30 p.m. (December 10 to January 20) must be submitted to the office of the students' association. Students who have been appointed to N.Y.A this term, and who have not been appointed to N.Y.A for the period January 1 to February 1, must submit their time slips immediately after registration is closed in order to be considered for the N.Y.A.