AYA Conference Of College Clubs Set For Tuesday

Many Delegates Flock to Washington on Saturday

Nearly every club in the college was represented at the AYA conference today, the final day of sessions, in room 212A, where plans for the annual conference to the American Youth Act will be formulated.

Harry Greisman, T'7, editor of the Times, Ezra Mills, '38, secretary of last year’s Student Council, and Leon Cohnfield, ’38, president of the local Chapter of the American Student Union, will be principal speaker at the conference.

On Thursday, “AYA Brigades” visited all school clubs, and delivered their talks on the AYA Act, which provides twenty-five dollars a month for college students, to high school students, in addition to asking for fifteen a month from the school to help club expenses.

One of the principal topics to be discussed at the conference will be the AYA's plan for refunding a student's tuition when their club continues to be active, as well as the AYA's plan to put the nation's capital to economic "security" to youth.

THEATRE SEARCHES FOR NEW TALENT

Theatres have started a drive for new talent, the aspirants who believe they have the ability, are invited to an audition at the Theatre on Tuesday, March 19, at the regular meeting, at 7 p.m. in room 2420. This competition, which is sponsored by the Theatre, has attracted several of the metropolitan colleges. The winning group will receive a plaque which will become prominent after two victories.

A special meeting will be held by each college and tickets will be sold at the different colleges.

French Club to Sponsor Joint Hunter-City Dance

At the French Club meeting last Thursday in Room 604, Mr. Louis Talley spoke on the historic sites of France. Pamphlets were distributed to illustrate the talk.

The Club intends to cooperate with Hunter College in a dance to be given in the near future.

Mr. Diller will be the guest speaker at the next regular meeting of the club on Thursday.

Ed Students Will Meet Thurs. to Hear Orleans

A meeting of all applicants for the Certificate course will be held Thursday, February 15 at 8:15 p.m. in room 212A. At this meeting, Professor Goldstein will address the students on the necessity to them, dealing with the work at the College and the requirements of the Board of Education. This meeting will be held in conjunction with the one of the Educational society.

All applicants for the certificate courses are expected to be present.

Co-op to Increase Discount Services; Applications Rise

Exchange receipts purchased during the first two days of school can be exchanged for U-book, which is sold at the Student Co-op Store.

While applications for discounts are still coming in, applications have already been received for the Co-op to increase discount services. Applications for the purposes of giving added discounts to the students.

Faculty members and service men in the building are also invited to the Co-op's discount service. Requirements for the discount are that the member must have a U-book.

The Co-op Buying Service Business, a branch of the AYA, is open to all holders of the U-book. A schedule of the hours of the Co-op is posted on the bulletin board.

Beaver Quintet Held to Four Field Goals, Bowing to Inspired Fordham Five, 31 to 17

By Mrs. S. Kassenoff

Suffering ignominious defeat in the hands of an inspired Fordham quintet, as Komm's pepsis wriggled off the court of the new Fordham gym on the bottom end of the 31-17 score. It was the fifth Ram victory in last victory-two starts against the Beavers and the first time they had come out since the 1930-1931 season.

Drifting like a low-laden cloud, the Beavers played others much to the surprise of the inspiration which was playing well over their heads. Ace Goldstein, Harry and Jack Senners must have been up in the stands when the boys got together nobody knew which way up was.
