14 Veterans To Resume ASU Work

Lincoln Battalion Boys Return to Movement At ASU Convention

Fourteen boys who left school to fight by the side of the defenders of Spanish democracy will re-enter the ranks of the student movement as delegates to the ASU convention. They are: Cyril Cohen, Barnett Cotker, Arthur Druliner, and Leo Solodkin of City College; Donald Taub, the University of Wisconsin, Edith DuBose and Morris Pollin of Columbia, William Staats of Cornell, Kenneth Byrnes of the University of Chicago, Robert Cummings and Elmer Schull of Michigan, Randall Smith of Washington Irving High School, and Ernie Annes of Washington Irving High School, who turned from Spain two weeks ago, will participate in the convention activities.

Larry Cohen, who was editor of the TICKEET before he left, returned to city school—Public High School—Paget from its formation. Donald Taub is making up lost time during the recent Znd offensive, and he plans to participate in convention work immediately after his return. Wartime charges of registration procedures by the political commissioner of the Lincoln-Washington High School boys, which were made before the report of the school spirit committee last March, Robert Cadden, who went to Spain after graduation in June, 1937, was appointed with the XVII International Brigade, together with Edward Annes, who served as Sergeant of Communications.

ASU Talks ‘Vital’ Says Mead

As president of City College I am happy to welcome the delegates to the convention of the American Student Union and to attend to the courtesies of the purpose of their meeting.

It is encouraging to have a group of such kindred spirits together to discuss problems of vital concern to the world when there has been so much carelessness and naivete in the world at large. It is a real pleasure to be among people who have never had a feeling of the burden of the world on their shoulders.

I sincerely hope that the results of your deliberations will assist the American democracy impress upon the rest of the world the great problems confronting us.

Entertainment To Feature Rally Tonight

Chiming the first round of conference sessions, the Hippodrome rally tonight will feature a diversified group of performances.

Speakers, songsters, and satirists are participating in the big night. A Grenadier of the British University, who will speak on ‘Democratic cooperation for the educational community,’ will address the audience.

Dance for H.S. Delegates Tomorrow at Imperial

In honor of the out-town high school delegates, a dance will be given Tuesday evening at the Imperial Hotel, 31st Street and Broadway. The program will consist of dinner, refreshments, and performances by the New York University College Group and by the Philadelphia College Group.

Pres. Roosevelt Greets ASU

Hope for strengthening American democracy.

For the first time, President Roosevelt will address the American Student Union convention later today.

In his letter of greeting, the President wrote that the “vital importance of an effective and vigorous student movement is demonstrated if the educational forces accept the challenge of the world today.”

The friendly and tolerant discussion of problems, and the consideration of the problems of the United States and the rest of the world will have a significant effect on the course of democracy.
Welcome ASU

We are proud of the opportunity afforded us to welcome City College, the fourth National Convention of the American Student Union. Nearly a century ago, our college found its roots in the struggle of the lower classes for the democratic extension of education and privileges. Today, the opening speech by Mayor LaGuardia at the dedication of the convention in our school represents us in the continuing struggle for the full realization of the democratic ideal in our college.

The establishment and subsequent growth of the Student Union at City College has been an integral part of the struggle for peace and the strengthening of democracy. It is a symbol of the determination of the students to uphold the principles of freedom of speech, of the press, and of the people. The Student Union has been a force for the democratic extension of education and privileges.

The dangers of fascism and the rise of the American Student Union to the position it now occupies in national affairs are not to be minimized. The Student Union is a part of the struggle for the democratic extension of education and privileges.

The Student Council welcomes the American Student Union, to our campus and extends its wishes for a happy convention.

J. W. Plas, President.

Greeting to Delegates

The importance of the National Convention of the American Student Union will be increased by the presence of a large number of educational trustees, educators, and educational administrators. The Student Council is eager to have the Student Council meet to hear the views of the educational community on the various issues that will be discussed at this convention.

Your presence will be a valuable contribution to the convention.

Joseph P. Lash, President.

History of CCNY One of Constant Struggle

For Realization of Democratic Rights

The establishment and continued history of the College of the City of New York represents one of the great chapters in the democratic extension of education and privileges. The College of the City of New York is an example of the way that even in the face of great opposition, educational opportunities can be secured for the people of the city.

NY Ed Report Recognizes ASU Program

Increasing recognition by educators of the ideals of progressive education as embodied in the ASU program is shown in the October report of the Regents Inquiry on the Character and Public Education in New York. The report consists of recommendations to the Regents of the State of the American Student Union for the liberalization and improvement of the educational system. It was drafted after a three-year study of the present educational set-up by a committee of inquiry headed by Dr. Luther Gulick.

Convention Opens at Hippodrome

Tickets are priced at forty cents per person, and are available at the box office or by mail to students who might be unable to attend. The only concession will be a special rate of forty cents for each ticket purchased in groups of five or more. The report, while not in complete agreement with the policies of the American Student Union, should provide the basis for discussion on the problems involved, and we look forward to working with Dr. Gulick in preparing a report on the results of the work done for the benefit of national and international organizations.

Robert B. Chastin,
Constitutional Convention

Address By Mayor Opens National ASU Convention

As an administrator in the field of education in the School of Business, I am very happy to note that the facilities of the college have been made available to the American Student Union for their annual convention. A national association of students has been formed to advance the cause of education in the United States and the strengthening of world peace. From the beginning of 1937, when it had its first meeting in New York City at the Hotel Imperial, it has been growing steadily. The convention will provide a forum for the discussion of educational problems and for the exchange of ideas among students from all parts of the country.

The convention will be held at the Hotel Imperial, 322 West 43rd Street. The hotel is located in the heart of the business district, and is within easy reach of all forms of transportation. The hotel has been reserved exclusively for the convention, and arrangements have been made for the comfort of the delegates and guests.

The convention will begin at 10:00 A.M. on Monday, December 29, and will continue until 6:00 P.M. on Wednesday, December 31. The program will include lectures, panel discussions, and round-table discussions on a variety of educational topics. The convention will also feature a special session on the role of the student in world affairs, and a panel discussion on the future of higher education.

The convention is open to all students and educators, and will provide a valuable opportunity for the exchange of ideas and the development of a sense of community among those who are concerned with the future of education. I am confident that the convention will be a success, and I hope that all those who are interested in the future of education will attend and participate.
