City Five Upset

50-41 by Jaspers

By Martin Abramson

A Beavers is by nature a busy animal, but even the busiest of Beavers sometimes grows weary from constant push and prod. In this case it is in the form of the opening game of the new series
"And the City College Beaver that played basketball before 11,000 in Madison Square Garden Friday night is no exception. Worn and fatigued by a schedule that called for games and two rail trips in the space of two weeks the Laverder succumbed to a 50-41 upset at the hands of an unusually improved Manhattan team that was surprisingly accurate with its shots. It was the Kelly Green's ninth triumph over the College in 21 tries.

Dean Morton Gottschall leads the list of faculty and adminis­ clarify the real situation. Secondly, to urge the lifting of the Embargo now in effect against Loyalist Spain."

Move to Reduce College Budgets

A movement to slash all City College budgets and to drastically reduce the 1939-40 allowances of the school by the method known as "under way," was learned from a reliable source. A reduction of registration in the colleges is the first method. The second, a decrease in faculty numbers, fol­ leys directly from the first.

This movement was made more apparent Thursday by Prof. Nel­ sor, president of City College, was questioned at a meeting in the auditorium, dean of the college department.

"The meeting was called," ac­

U-Book Drive Reaches 1300

With the announcement that privileges depend upon a U-book subscription, the U-book sale has been very successful.

Sales by the end of next week, according to Leonard Braverman and George Novack co-chairmen of the Student Council U-book committee, are expected to reach 1730.

The new strict measures will be observed particularly in regard to the Social League, to which no one is being admitted without a U-book.

It was learned that three candidates for student council offices were rejected because they did not possess U-books.
