City Loses To Scranton, 31-0 At Stadium

By Dick Goldberg

Beavers are usually seen with their noses in the ground and the City College Beavers were no exceptions last Saturday when a nascent Beaver team stepped all over the Lippilaneu Lavender and the City, 3-0. There was no stopping this Beaver team and they had the hardest running backs ever seen at the Staduium and their line was huge and strong.

The Tomcats, operating from a 6' 6" center, didn't stand a chance. After returning to the open kickoff to their own 48, they ran a draw play which started 44 yards to the goal line. Using straight off-tackle plays, they merrily ran out the points on the high scoreboard.

Chills, Grins In Revival

By Ralph Cohen

For a millenium, would you spend the night alone in a room where a murder had just occurred? You would certainly tremble with fear. That is about the position in which the New York City College Beavers found themselves last Saturday when they marched to the Orit House in Scranton, 31-0. There were no exceptions last Saturday when a nascent Beaver team stepped all over the Lippilaneu Lavender and the City, 3-0. There was no stopping this Beaver team and they had the hardest running backs ever seen at the Staduium and their line was huge and strong.

Paskoff Talks To ASU An On War

Benjamin Paskoff of the History department addressed an executive committee meeting of the ASU on "The International Situation" last Wednesday.

"As the world situation becomes more serious," he said, "it appears that the United States is more and more involved. All those sincerely interested in the situation, and are looking for war, should join progressive organizations in which they can work towards this aim."

The Toleration in a Democracy, Commission of the ASU will now meet every other week, at 8 p.m. in the House Plan Building, Room 309, to which members of the Student Senate, Seymour A. Copeland of the English Department, and any other interested member of the committee will be invited. A schedule for the evening includes a discussion of the relationship between the American and the non-American, and the effect of this relationship on the American Constitution. The committee will also consider the effect of the relationship between the American and the non-American on the American Constitution.

Faculty Views Split on Choice of "Inside" Dean

Faculty opinion is more or less evenly divided on the question, "What do you think of an inside man for the deanship of the School of Business?"

"I think it is likely that an inside man would get the job," said one faculty member. "I think the position is too important to be filled by an outsider."

"I think an outside man would be more likely to get the job," said another faculty member. "I think the position is too sensitive to be filled by an inside man."

Lewis Mayers' first reform in the college made the elevator men wear their badges after ten.

H. C. Levy chirped: "The Oneida Community of the fact that a man who is marked for the goal of success now does not want to be a success could only mean that he is not interested in the result." He then added, "I have seen men who were not interested in success, but who were interested in the result."

No one knows what the result of such a change would be.

Open warfare between the students and the faculty are not a welcome sight. It makes for the continuation of a friendship and for the smooth-running of the college.

The students relate the horrors of 23 St. Explosion.

Many and these were the eye-witness accounts which were recently put to The Villager after observing the recent explosion in 23 St. Fallows. Although the details are now somewhat hazy, it is reported that they all gave an interesting insight into the thoughts and actions of the students at the time.

Poll on Neutrality

The students are the men who will determine our neutrality, and they have the right to decide on this issue. The question is: Are we safe from the attack of the Axis powers? The answer is yes, we are not safe, but we must prepare ourselves in advance.

The college students are the men who will have to fight. We must prepare ourselves for the future.

The most important step is to be prepared for the future. We must prepare ourselves for the future. We must prepare ourselves for the future. We must prepare ourselves for the future.

The most important step is to be prepared for the future.
College May Adopt Motion To Drop BSS Degree

City College may discontinue granting the degree of Bachelor of Social Science in Social Science. The dropping of this degree will be the major change recommended by the Committee on Curriculum in a report on the faculty of the College of Liberal Arts. It is pending that there is no real justification for the existence of the degree, the report states:

"The College and the School are long established and have a high standard. The demands for this degree are small, and the students who have been admitted to it have been found unsuited to the requirements of the degree and the curriculum in which they have been enrolled." The recommendation is that the degree will probably be dropped, according to informed sources. However, presently enrolled candidates will not be affected.

If the degree is abolished, incoming students wishing to pursue the same courses will receive an A.B. It is expected that some adjustment of the Latin requirement for the latter degree may be made.

Members of the Instructional Staff are quite interested in the proposal and have an opportunity to express their opinion before action is taken, said Dean Morris H. Dichek, chairman of the Committee on Curriculum.
