USPC Holds Armistice Peace Rally

An Armistice Day rally sponsored by the United Student Peace Committee will be held Thursday in the auditorium at 10 o'clock.
The USPC is a committee composed of diverse national student organizations, representatives of collegiate opinion. Many peace assemblies in the City College in the past have been held under its aegis. Basic points in its program are:
1. Hal! war profiteering.
2. Secondly and extend civil liberties and academic freedom.
3. Stamp out race prejudice and religious intolerance.

Faculty Members Discuss College Reorganization

A round table meeting led Thursday noon in 4 South by members of the faculty discussed the problem of the place of the School of Business and Civic Administration in the present reorganization of City College.

Questions of broad general policy which may drastically change the set-up of the school as a whole were thrown upon the floor for group discussion by members of the faculty.

He suggested that the mixture of students from which the college should give a broad business education with a liberal sprinkling of cultural subjects on which it should attempt to test students should take a specific profession? The second question, dependent on the first, was whether the students take a two-year, four-year, or five year course.

During the course of his speech, it was revealed that an unofficial faculty committee had already presented to the Board of Higher Education a plan for a two-year college offering only advanced courses in specific business fields. Students from all the city colleges could then be further limited as to their third college year. This would place the college on a professional level.

He added, however, the opinion that the Board would not take any action without first hearing from all interested groups.

SC Refuses Rally Support

The Student Council at a meeting Friday afternoon, refused to be a co-sponsor of the Peace Rally which will be held Thursday at 12 noon in the auditorium.

A motion was made that the Student Council cooperate with several other clubs and societies to sponsor the rally. The motion was defeated.

Kingsmen Whip City Eleven In Upset, 12-6

By Jack Shor

Please, Uncle Benny, say it isn't so! We'll stand anything—but don't say it is so.

We've kicked for LIU, we've squirmed for Scranton, and we look it up soldiers from Sankin-Qua. and Lloyd Trench. But speak of Brooklyn—no Brooklyn College.

So cried the three thousand City rooters as they filed out of Lewiston Stadium last Saturday with the grim realization of a 12-6 defeat at the hands of the Flatbush rivals.

To this reporter it was the most amazing exhibition he has ever seen. The Reavers were consistently outplayed, outmatched, and outscored by the sleekly organized and devilishly precise Brooklyn Ewans. The boys from across the river had the game, and it looks like that's what counted.

The way the City boys started off it looked like the repetition of last year's 21-0 massacre.

Kingsmen opened kick-off to their own 40 and exchanged quick-kicks and passes. In the air, an aerial duel by Frank who went up over the Kingsmen, caught the ball and came to rest on the Brooklyn 17. The result was a Kingsmen penalty for running out of bounds.

At 10:00, the game was also called for the rearfield kick.

The Kingsmen, which has frequently been boarded by the officials this fall, had been a revelation of excellence in the game, as far as the passer goes.

Playart To Give Odets Play For HP

Transplanting Broadway to 25 St., and with a prospect of a professional production, the Group Theatre has staged a sale of the famous 1938 drama, "The Fantasticks," which was the brainchild of this season's most original writer-director, Elia Kazan.

The troupe, which has performed from the beginning of the season, is expected to receive a new lease of life this fall, thanks to a new lease of life, thanks to the successful box office of "The Fantasticks" on Broadway.

Theatreon Thespians Offer Price Winning 'Our Town'

Theatreon Thespian's "Our Town" is a typical New England country town and the rural life at its moments through it. Mr. Wilder's splendidly theatrical and musically staged play has already been a tremendous success on Broadway and in several other cities.

The prize-winning play consists of a typical New England country town and the rural life of its inhabitants through it. Mr. Wilder's splendidly theatrical and musically staged play has already been a tremendous success on Broadway and in several other cities.

The prize-winning play consists of a typical New England country town and the rural life of its inhabitants through it. Mr. Wilder's splendidly theatrical and musically staged play has already been a tremendous success on Broadway and in several other cities.
In Reply

There is a reply to the question raised by the: "Your Name," on page 3, which is addressed to you. The editor has asked that you write them a letter.

At the Legislative Conference last fall held by the Senate of the New York State University, one of the resolutions was that the Senate would like to hear from our council about what was being done to prevent the use of the vote in the legislature. As a result of this, the Senate has agreed to accept a resolution which has been made by the New York State University Council, that the Senate would like to hear from our council about what was being done to prevent the use of the vote in the legislature.

The resolution also states that the Senate would like to hear from our council about the effect of the vote in the legislature on the rights of the states.

The Council has already passed a resolution which states that the Senate should be informed of the vote in the legislature in order to ensure that the rights of the states are protected.

Letter

Streamlined Type, Makeup Feature Accounting Forum

by Bill Mathews

The latest trend in type makeup and feature accounting is the use of a streamlined type, makeup feature accounting forum. This system allows for faster and more efficient production of type makeup and feature accounting materials. The forum consists of a series of computer programs that automate the process of creating type makeup and feature accounting materials.

The forum is designed to work with a variety of type makeup and feature accounting software, making it easy to integrate into existing systems. It also provides a central location for storing and managing type makeup and feature accounting materials, reducing the need for manual data entry.

Overall, the streamlined type, makeup feature accounting forum offers a significant improvement in efficiency and productivity for type makeup and feature accounting departments.
1. Contributors must be registered and distributed to national organizations.

2. Pictures must pertain to the junior prom. They will be held December 15 at the Hotel Pennsylvania.

3. All the alligators and hepcats of the class of '41 are brushing up on their technique for the jammed season of the season under the leadership of Artie Shaw, "King of the Clarinet," and his band.

4. The magazine goes on sale Wednesday.

5. Ding, dong, the 58 dance is dead. "They're not celebrating it. They're not celebrating it!" So, let's not celebrate it. No, let's not celebrate it. Let's not celebrate it.

6. The elevator nearest the walk-up dance is much too far. We feel at home and the dancers don't want to go. Let's not celebrate it.

7. The elevator nearest the walk-up dance is much too far. We feel at home and the dancers don't want to go. Let's walk-up tomorrow, too, and enjoy the incline. We feel at home and we like the incline. Steps are for walking, not for climbing. On the level, we're on the level. Let's not celebrate it.

8. The elevator nearest the walk-up dance is much too far. We feel at home and the dancers don't want to go. Let's not celebrate it. We feel at home and we like the incline. Steps are for walking, not for climbing. On the level, we're on the level. Let's not celebrate it.

9. The elevator nearest the walk-up dance is much too far. We feel at home and the dancers don't want to go. Let's not celebrate it. We feel at home and we like the incline. Steps are for walking, not for climbing. On the level, we're on the level. Let's not celebrate it.