City Five Attends Victory Dinner

In honor of their victory, the America football team, which beatab the New Hampshire Black Horses on Monday, was honored by the City College at a dinner at the Hotel of the City of New York. The price to be awarded to the winning squad was $100, which was presented by the New York Times to the President of the College.

The dinner was attended by many members of the Board of Education, including Rosenthal, the President of the Board, and
Dr. John H. Finley, the Dean of the College.

A Raise for the Students

The students of the College have been raised by $1 per week, beginning next week. This raises the weekly cost of living to $15. The raise was made possible by a donation from
the

A Special Event

A special event of the College was the Indo-European Congress, held in the College. The Congress was attended by participating nations from all over the world.

The Congress concluded with a banquet, at which addresses were given by the President of the College and
Dr. John H. Finley.

A New Program

The College has announced
a new program of education, which will be implemented next
year.

Friends of the College

The President of the College, Mr. John H.
Finley, has announced
the establishment of a new organization,
the Friends of the College, to promote interest in
the
College and support its programs.

The organization
will consist of individuals who are interested in
the College and its teaching

activities.

The organization
will hold meetings
and sponsored activities
to promote interest in
the
College.

The organization
will also serve as a source of funds
for
the
College.

The Friends of the College
will
be headquartered in
the
College.

The organization
will
be chaired by
Mr. John H.
Finley.

City Five Attends Victory Dinner

In honor of their victory, the America football team, which
beatab the New Hampshire Black Horses on Monday, was honored by the City College at a dinner at the Hotel
of the City of New York. The
price to be awarded to the winning
squad was $100, which was presented by the New York Times to the President of the
College.

The dinner was attended by many members of the Board of Education, including Rosenthal, the President of the Board, and
Dr. John H. Finley, the Dean of the College.

A Raise for the Students

The students of the College have been
raised by $1 per
week, beginning
next week. This raises the
weekly cost of living to $15. The raise
was made possible by
a donation from
the

A Special Event

A special event of the College was the Indo-European Congress, held
in the College. The Congress
was attended by
participating nations from all over the world.

The Congress concluded
with a banquet, at which
addresses were given by
the President of the College and
Dr. John H. Finley.

A New Program

The College has announced
a new program of
education, which
will be implemented next
year.

Friends of the College

The President of the College, Mr. John H.
Finley, has announced
the establishment of
a new organization,
the Friends of the College, to promote interest in
the
College and
support its
programs.

The organization
will consist of
individuals who
are interested in
the College and its teaching

activities.

The organization
will
hold meetings
and
sponsored
activities
to promote interest in
the
College.

The organization
will also serve as a source of
funds
for
the
College.

The Friends of the College
will
be headquartered
in
the
College.

The organization
will
be chaired
by
Mr. John H.
Finley.

City Five Attends Victory Dinner

In honor of their victory, the America football team, which
beatab the New Hampshire Black Horses on Monday, was honored by the City College at a dinner at the Hotel
of the City of New York. The
price to be awarded to the winning
squad was $100, which was presented by the New York Times to the President of the
College.

The dinner was attended by many members of the Board of Education, including Rosenthal, the President of the Board, and
Dr. John H. Finley, the Dean of the College.

A Raise for the Students

The students of the College have been
raised by $1 per
week, beginning
next week. This raises the
weekly cost of living to $15. The raise
was made possible by
a donation from
the

A Special Event

A special event of the College was the Indo-European Congress, held
in the College. The Congress
was attended by
participating nations from all over the world.

The Congress concluded
with a banquet, at which
addresses were given by
the President of the College and
Dr. John H. Finley.

A New Program

The College has announced
a new program of
education, which
will be implemented next
year.

Friends of the College

The President of the College, Mr. John H.
Finley, has announced
the establishment of
a new organization,
the Friends of the College, to promote interest in
the
College and
support its
programs.

The organization
will consist of
individuals who
are interested in
the College and its teaching

activities.

The organization
will
hold meetings
and
sponsored
activities
to promote interest in
the
College.

The organization
will also serve as a source of
funds
for
the
College.

The Friends of the College
will
be headquartered
in
the
College.

The organization
will
be chaired
by
Mr. John H.
Finley.

City Five Attends Victory Dinner

In honor of their victory, the America football team, which
beatab the New Hampshire Black Horses on Monday, was honored by the City College at a dinner at the Hotel
of the City of New York. The
price to be awarded to the winning
squad was $100, which was presented by the New York Times to the President of the
College.

The dinner was attended by many members of the Board of Education, including Rosenthal, the President of the Board, and
Dr. John H. Finley, the Dean of the College.

A Raise for the Students

The students of the College have been
raised by $1 per
week, beginning
next week. This raises the
weekly cost of living to $15. The raise
was made possible by
a donation from
the

A Special Event

A special event of the College was the Indo-European Congress, held
in the College. The Congress
was attended by
participating nations from all over the world.

The Congress concluded
with a banquet, at which
addresses were given by
the President of the College and
Dr. John H. Finley.

A New Program

The College has announced
a new program of
education, which
will be implemented next
year.

Friends of the College

The President of the College, Mr. John H.
Finley, has announced
the establishment of
a new organization,
the Friends of the College, to promote interest in
the
College and
support its
programs.

The organization
will consist of
individuals who
are interested in
the College and its teaching

activities.

The organization
will
hold meetings
and
sponsored
activities
to promote interest in
the
College.

The organization
will also serve as a source of
funds
for
the
College.

The Friends of the College
will
be headquartered
in
the
College.

The organization
will
be chaired
by
Mr. John H.
Finley.

City Five Attends Victory Dinner

In honor of their victory, the America football team, which
beatab the New Hampshire Black Horses on Monday, was honored by the City College at a dinner at the Hotel
of the City of New York. The
price to be awarded to the winning
squad was $100, which was presented by the New York Times to the President of the
College.

The dinner was attended by many members of the Board of Education, including Rosenthal, the President of the Board, and
Dr. John H. Finley, the Dean of the College.

A Raise for the Students

The students of the College have been
raised by $1 per
week, beginning
next week. This raises the
weekly cost of living to $15. The raise
was made possible by
a donation from
the

A Special Event

A special event of the College was the Indo-European Congress, held
in the College. The Congress
was attended by
participating nations from all over the world.

The Congress concluded
with a banquet, at which
addresses were given by
the President of the College and
Dr. John H. Finley.

A New Program

The College has announced
a new program of
education, which
will be implemented next
year.

Friends of the College

The President of the College, Mr. John H.
Finley, has announced
the establishment of
a new organization,
the Friends of the College, to promote interest in
the
College and
support its
programs.

The organization
will consist of
individuals who
are interested in
the College and its teaching

activities.

The organization
will
hold meetings
and
sponsored
activities
to promote interest in
the
College.

The organization
will also serve as a source of
funds
for
the
College.

The Friends of the College
will
be headquartered
in
the
College.

The organization
will
be chaired
by
Mr. John H.
Finley.
Theatron Players Eat Borscht, Blinders In Props

ELECTIONS

The candidates for the Theta Chi Fraternity came to the Frat house to hold a rally on Thursday afternoon. The program included speeches by the candidates for president and the candidates for vice president. The candidates for president were Joe Baskin and Tom Wexler. The candidates for vice president were Marc Salkind and Bill Farber. The program was well-received by the fraternity members and was a success for the candidates.

Crow's Nest

By John Egan

There was a great turnout for the Frat house rally. The candidates for president and vice president gave their speeches, and the audience was engaged. The audience was also entertained by the Frat house band, which played a variety of songs. The candidates for president and vice president were Joe Baskin and Tom Wexler. The candidates for vice president were Marc Salkind and Bill Farber. The program was well-received by the fraternity members and was a success for the candidates.

Mourn Passing Of Dr. Finley

(Continued from page 1)

Dr. Finley's passing has left a great void in the lives of those who knew him. He was a true gentleman and an excellent physician. He will be greatly missed by all who knew him. His passing is a great loss to our community.

Club Clips

ALPHA MEGA BLOG

By John Egan

The Alpha Mago Bolo, a group of the finest fraternities, met to discuss the upcoming election. They agreed that the candidates for president and vice president had done a great job, and they were confident that they would win the election. The candidates for president and vice president were Joe Baskin and Tom Wexler. The candidates for vice president were Marc Salkind and Bill Farber. The program was well-received by the fraternity members and was a success for the candidates.

Sports Parade

Close-Bouts Thrill Crowd

By John Egan

The close-bouts were a great success. The audience was engrossed in the matches, and the competitors were putting in their best efforts. The audience was also entertained by the Frat house band, which played a variety of songs. The candidates for president and vice president were Joe Baskin and Tom Wexler. The candidates for vice president were Marc Salkind and Bill Farber. The program was well-received by the fraternity members and was a success for the candidates.

Boxers And Wrestlers Draw

Beavers' Gnaw Score, 36-24

(Continued from page 1)

The boxers and wrestlers were well-matched, and the audience was engaged in the matches. The candidates for president and vice president were Joe Baskin and Tom Wexler. The candidates for vice president were Marc Salkind and Bill Farber. The program was well-received by the fraternity members and was a success for the candidates.

Jaycee Hoopers Herald Future Court Supremacy

(Continued from page 1)

The Jaycee Hoopers were well-prepared for the upcoming tournament. They are confident that they will perform well, and they are looking forward to the challenges ahead. The candidates for president and vice president were Joe Baskin and Tom Wexler. The candidates for vice president were Marc Salkind and Bill Farber. The program was well-received by the fraternity members and was a success for the candidates.

Letters

Philippe, Jude

Your letter was received and we appreciate your interest in our activities. We are currently preparing for the upcoming election, and we are confident that we will be successful. We are also preparing for the future, and we are looking forward to the challenges ahead.

Fencers Lose To Seton Hall

(Continued from page 1)

The fencers were defeated by Seton Hall, but they are looking forward to the challenges ahead. The candidates for president and vice president were Joe Baskin and Tom Wexler. The candidates for vice president were Marc Salkind and Bill Farber. The program was well-received by the fraternity members and was a success for the candidates.

"The Finest Comedy of Any Year." - New York Times

THEATRON

THE PULITZER PRIZE PLAY

"YOU CAN'T TAKE IT WITH YOU"

PRE and SAT EVENING MARCH 22-23

STUDENT $5.00

300 SEATS RESERVED
Let Business Fix Courses, Says Mayers.

An advisory board consisting of men practicing in the business field should be organized to determine what studies should be pursued by business students interested in selecting business courses in the university. The board would be composed of the heads of the Business Department and the School of Commerce, and would meet at least once a semester.

Fondis Wins Over Entes.

Continued from page 1.

In the only timer public contest run-by, Robert King took the presidency under Mr. S. D. Sagar. 15-19.

A third class president, Leon Fitzgerald, secured the upper presidency under Mr. S. D. Sagar. 15-19. Leon Fitzgerald, secured the upper presidency under Mr. S. D. Sagar. 15-19.

Three Entered In French Quiz.

Three School of Business students have entered the French quiz sponsored by the Metropolitan Association of the Department of French Languages.

The瀏覽器, Stanley Gwob, 54, and George Levan, 54, will take part in the French quiz.

BHE to Recommit Russell Choice.

A file of past BHE issues is available in the library of the Student Union. The file includes the 1946 issues and a few issues from 1947.

NYA Cut Threatened.

NYA jobs for City College students can still be saved if the proposed Federal cut in the NYA appropriation is not accepted. The NYA applications are the task of the NYA Committee on NYA, Community and American Student Union finance.

SLBCC Hears J.G. Le Van.

J.G. Le Van, director of the Employment Bureau, will address Wednesday's meeting in the Student Union Hall of City College or any other meeting place and the meeting place.

NYA Cut Threatened.

NYA jobs for City College students can still be saved if the proposed Federal cut in the NYA appropriation is not accepted. The NYA applications are the task of the NYA Committee on NYA, Community and American Student Union finance.

NYA jobs for City College students can still be saved if the proposed Federal cut in the NYA appropriation is not accepted. The NYA applications are the task of the NYA Committee on NYA, Community and American Student Union finance.

NYA jobs for City College students can still be saved if the proposed Federal cut in the NYA appropriation is not accepted. The NYA applications are the task of the NYA Committee on NYA, Community and American Student Union finance.

NYA jobs for City College students can still be saved if the proposed Federal cut in the NYA appropriation is not accepted. The NYA applications are the task of the NYA Committee on NYA, Community and American Student Union finance.

NYA jobs for City College students can still be saved if the proposed Federal cut in the NYA appropriation is not accepted. The NYA applications are the task of the NYA Committee on NYA, Community and American Student Union finance.

NYA jobs for City College students can still be saved if the proposed Federal cut in the NYA appropriation is not accepted. The NYA applications are the task of the NYA Committee on NYA, Community and American Student Union finance.

NYA jobs for City College students can still be saved if the proposed Federal cut in the NYA appropriation is not accepted. The NYA applications are the task of the NYA Committee on NYA, Community and American Student Union finance.

NYA jobs for City College students can still be saved if the proposed Federal cut in the NYA appropriation is not accepted. The NYA applications are the task of the NYA Committee on NYA, Community and American Student Union finance.

NYA jobs for City College students can still be saved if the proposed Federal cut in the NYA appropriation is not accepted. The NYA applications are the task of the NYA Committee on NYA, Community and American Student Union finance.

NYA jobs for City College students can still be saved if the proposed Federal cut in the NYA appropriation is not accepted. The NYA applications are the task of the NYA Committee on NYA, Community and American Student Union finance.

NYA jobs for City College students can still be saved if the proposed Federal cut in the NYA appropriation is not accepted. The NYA applications are the task of the NYA Committee on NYA, Community and American Student Union finance.