1400 Sailors Blitzkrieg
Bear Mountain Sunday

By Al Bader

On that day the S.S. Belle Isla departed for the Thousand Island Park, Pier A, and before noon,
by a strong head-wind, the boat was taken off course and the crew was forced to return. The sailors were paid generously for their work.

The Bear Mountain Bridge
in the state, which, affords
a magnificent fresh water swim,
was pointed out by a sailor.

A magnificent fresh water swim.

Loyola Licks Lacrossemen

By Harry Pesin

The green-clad Loyola lovers and the red-clad City
men met at the Lewiston Station for a critical game. Loyola took the lead in the first half with a 1-0 victory. In the secdant half, Loyola added three goals for a 4-0 victory.

The Loyola officials defined the game as a "needed byning" game. Loyola is in the lead in the championship race.

Charter Day Audience
Hails Professor Mayers

By Murray Glaser

Old Man Weather finally let
up, and the crowd welcomed
Professor Mayers with a cheer.

Colleges, particularly the
of Cooper Union, and American Institute of Technology, had two students who were ited in the audience. The students were very enthusiastic about the speech.

Loyola in the lead in the
campionship race.

World's Fair Fetes Student Leaders

Peter Fonfida, Student Coun-
el president, and Philip Kraner, Harmonic Quartet leader,
ounced that the School of Business and Industry will sponsor
the World's Fair last week.

More than 400 college presidents, faculty representatives, and alumni of the program will attend the fair, according to Peter Fonfida.

World's Fair last week.

38 Graduate Predicts
Great Future for Rosenzweig

By Maxwell Rosenzweig

In fulfilling my literary mission upon you last week without an introduction, the Ticker editors neglected to say that during one wild Spring semester, I wrote a personal adventure column called "Maxwell's Reader," which was published in the

The column, which appeared on a few sample covers, described in detail the adventures of a young man named Maxwell, his struggles with the law, and his success in the business world.

Loyola in the lead in the
campionship race.

Red Cross Movie
On Water Safety

Because many students at the college are going away for the summer months, the Red Cross is sponsoring a movie
and lecture on water safety
and first aid tomorrow at 4 p.m.

The movie will deal mainly with methods of resuscitation
and saving victims of water accidents.

Jr. Prom Applications Due

Applications for the Chair-
ship of the Junior Prom will be accepted through next week.

For further information, please see Mr. Daniels in the Office of Student Activities.

1400 Sailors Blitzkrieg
Bear Mountain Sunday

By Al Bader

On that day the S.S. Belle Isla departed for the Thousand Island Park, Pier A, and before noon,
by a strong head-wind, the boat
was taken off course and the
crew was forced to return. The
sailors were paid generously for their work.

The Bear Mountain Bridge
in the state, which, affords
a magnificent fresh water swim,
was pointed out by a sailor.

A magnificent fresh water swim.

Loyola Licks Lacrossemen

By Harry Pesin

The green-clad Loyola lovers and the red-clad City
men met at the Lewiston Station for a critical game. Loyola
took the lead in the first half
with a 1-0 victory. In the sec-
dant half, Loyola added three
goals for a 4-0 victory.

The Loyola officials defined the game as a "needed by-
ning" game. Loyola is in the lead
in the championship race.

Charter Day Audience
Hails Professor Mayers

By Murray Glaser

Old Man Weather finally let
up, and the crowd welcomed
Professor Mayers with a cheer.

Colleges, particularly the
of Cooper Union, and American Institute of Technology,
had two students who were
ited in the audience. The students were very enthusiastic
about the speech.

Loyola in the lead in the
campionship race.

World's Fair Fetes Student Leaders

Peter Fonfida, Student Coun-
el president, and Philip Kran-
er, Harmonic Quartet leader,
ounced that the School of Business and Industry will sponsor
the World's Fair last week.

More than 400 college presidents, faculty representatives,
and alumni of the program will
attend the fair, according to
Peter Fonfida.

World's Fair last week.

38 Graduate Predicts
Great Future for Rosenzweig

By Maxwell Rosenzweig

In fulfilling my literary mission upon you last week without an introduction, the Ticker editors neglected to say that during one
wild Spring semester, I wrote a personal adventure column
called "Maxwell's Reader," which was published in the

The column, which appeared on a few sample covers,
described in detail the adventures of a young man named Maxwell, his struggles with the law, and his success in the business world.

Loyola in the lead in the
campionship race.

Red Cross Movie
On Water Safety

Because many students at the
college are going away for
the summer months, the Red Cross is sponsoring a movie
and lecture on water safety
and first aid tomorrow at 4 p.m.

The movie will deal mainly
with methods of resuscitation
and saving victims of water accidents.

Jr. Prom Applications Due

Applications for the Chair-
ship of the Junior Prom will be accepted through next week.

For further information, please
see Mr. Daniels in the Office of Student Activities.
Ticket Control System

Ticket Control System is the phrase used when discussing the process of controlling the issuance and usage of tickets for events, such as concerts or sporting events. The system typically involves the creation of a database of tickets, tracking the flow of tickets from the beginning to the end, and ensuring that tickets are not duplicated or sold fraudulently. The system may also include features for reselling or redeeming tickets. The phrase "Ticket Control System" is often used in the context of event planning and management, where ensuring clear and fair ticketing is crucial. The system helps to maintain order and prevent any potential issues such as overcrowding, scalping, or ticket fraud. It is an essential part of creating a successful, well-organized event.
Ticker Team Terrorizes Theatron's Tough Thespians

After several weeks of confusion, during which more than nine challenges were received by The Ticker to a soft ball game at Bear Mountain on the Student Council's side this Sunday, the affirmative Ticker decided that the challenge of Theatron, College dramatic society. The decision was reached only after several meetings had been held, during which Theatron's sports reports, stated, that "we may have a game."

Jack Shor, President of Theatron, in an interview with Jack Shor, Ticker sports reporter, stated: "We will make an end against your Seniors on the other hand."

Jack Shor, the President of Theatron, has declared that the sports reports, which were not in fact that Sports Editor Eugene Royo committed two errors for the Ticker. The reports would not have permitted the score to go down in the records without a protest.

Consider BHE Reorganization

The rules committee of the BHE, at its meeting Thursday, is considering a resolution, calling on Mayor La Guardia, to "reorganize the Board of Education because of its instability and inefficiency in the appointment of Beresford Russell to the position of City College."

The appointment was recommended by the Court Justice John E. Sackett on the ground that Mr. Russell's views on sex education runs "in complete harmony with the philosophy of the school district." The board on the "untenable position", in which it now finds itself.

Magistrate Anna Kroes Sponsors' Prejudices

Magistrate Anna Kroes declared that both the European war and the "bill" on the name of City College are essentially indications of prejudice.

"Speaking at an informal meet- ing of the Inter-Club Council Society Friday evening, Mag- istrate Kroes said that the issue has ever been decided by physical combat, and therefore the establishment of any prejudice is not through active force but assumes a dignified attitude.

SC COMMITTEES

Applications for standing committee of the Student Council must be submitted by this Friday.

---

Dr. Feldman To Visit HP School

Dr. Herman Feldman, head of the School of Business at Fordham University, will pay a day's visit to the Harry Pall Mall School at 800 Riverdale Avenue, on May 31, after which day they will be closed.

In a letter to Maxwell Weismann, HP director, the President of the House of Pledgees in developing leaders for group activities, Dr. Feldman will recommend the idea of a club with the title "Theatre," which will take over The Ticker. But if Theatron wins, The Ticker can take over Theatron's next production.

Several practices sessions were held last week by The Ticker on 22 Street and the East River. Jack Shor, President, claimed that the sports reports, which were not in fact that Sports Editor Eugene Royo committed two errors for the Ticker. The reports would not have permitted the score to go down in the records without a protest.

Consider BHE Reorganization

The rules committee of the BHE, at its meeting Thursday, is considering a resolution, calling on Mayor La Guardia, to "reorganize the Board of Education because of its instability and inefficiency in the appointment of Beresford Russell to the position of City College."

The appointment was recommended by the Court Justice John E. Sackett on the ground that Mr. Russell's views on sex education runs "in complete harmony with the philosophy of the school district." The board on the "untenable position", in which it now finds itself.

Magistrate Anna Kroes Sponsors' Prejudices

Magistrate Anna Kroes declared that both the European war and the "bill" on the name of City College are essentially indications of prejudice.

"Speaking at an informal meet- ing of the Inter-Club Council Society Friday evening, Mag- istrate Kroes said that the issue has ever been decided by physical combat, and therefore the establishment of any prejudice is not through active force but assumes a dignified attitude.

SC COMMITTEES

Applications for standing committee of the Student Council must be submitted by this Friday.