Council, Class
Beat Brooklyn Rally Thursday At Noon

By Jerry Brody

One thing about the Interclass Athletic Council, the Varsity Club, and The Ticker, they do not believe in halfway measures. When they run a rally, one student teacher will buy a U Book—Join the Athletic Association—The New York Journal—Purchase a U Book—Champion the cause. The Brooklyn College baseball team, led by Captain Shep Kasner, will be the sponsors of a Buy a U Book—Join the Athletic Association—The New York Journal—Purchase a U Book—Champion the cause rally. The entire staff of The Ticker and all that has been enumerated important. You should be an integral factor. The idea and it's a darn good one is to be held in 16th in the important matters at hand. Loyola Tops City, 44-43
By Bill Richman

Special Staff Correspondent—Feb. 16—It took a fast shot in the closing minute to snatch victory from City College's seven-game winning streak here tonight when Loyola University came from behind for a 44-43 victory in Cats' Row.

City was leading 41-39 with less than a minute remaining when Mickey Rotter, Loyola's high-scoring star, sank a one-hander to tie the score. Rotter, Howard's only critical desperation shot went in and out of the basket as the gun sounded, sending the game into overtime.

Students Protest "Advoicate" Ban

The right of the Dean to ban any student organization from the college, bitterly fought by student organizations at its inception last term, once again became a center of controversy when the Interclass Committee of the ASU, fell into the category of "outside literature." The students never accepted it on paper.

According to Al Friedman, president of the ASU, the Dean was ruled by him in the irregularity that the "Advoicate" carried the sentence "published for the ASU by Trade Union Service." The Student Council at its meeting Friday took first steps in an attempt to clarify the issue. Suggested but not voted upon was the creation of a faculty-student body to act upon all such requests.

Hold Ticker Elections

There will be a meeting of the entire staff of The Ticker on Thursday at 12 in Ms. De Lucca's office. The meeting will be called by Jack Shor, Editor-in-Chief. Elections of the Managing Board for the coming term will take place at that time under the supervision of Mel Glus, Secretary of the Ticker Association.

Saporis Up For Tenure Tonight

The Board of Higher Education will act tonight on the recommendation of the Faculty Committee on Appointments for the promotion of Joseph Saporis of the Hygiene Department to the rank of Instructor with tenure.

Despite rules of the Board making it impossible for an instructor to be appointed without tenure for more than one year, Saporis was appointed for his fifth year earlier this month. Nothing can be refused: this will be his last chance.

Mr. Saporis was appointed assistant assistant professor in 1944. Since then he has been at the position of head of the department of Medical Biology, and has taken a hand in the teaching of the eight semester, part-time classes.
