New Group Elects Frazin, Horowitz

The newly organized "Business Analysts Society" at the School of Business invites for membership all students interested in statistical methods and their application to the problems of business management and administration.

The group will have its first full membership meeting Friday at 7:30 in the 16th Floor Faculty Lounge. Faculty advisor of the group will be Prof. Norman Horowitz.

President: Naomi Baldwin; Secretary: Gianna Balsamo; Treasurer: Florence Frazin; Vice-President: Jerry Smith; Secretary: Allen Horowitz.

Stop-Detour

Hope's On The 'Road' Again

By Norma Balsamo

Making a detour on the "Road to Morosso," Bob Hope, Bing Crosby and Dorothy Lamour will stop over on Thursday at City College's P.E. as a special favor to the students who asked for them in The Ticker poll.

The picture starts with a bang! A ship blows up, a notice is flashed all over the world; then we see Hope and Crosby on a raft in the middle of the ocean. Crosby says to Hope, "I told you not to light that match in the Powder Room." Our two heroes, destitute and hungry, arrive at the hotel of Africa, go into a restaurant and order a meal, but, alas, there is no money. But Hope is suddenly surprised to see Crosby offer the man the discarded -- a beautiful statue of a man, the affections of Dottie Lamour and Dolores to marry Bob, because she has been waiting an astrologer that the first man she marries will die during the first week of married bliss. Bob Hope gets bumped off by Dottie. Poor Hope has been sold into captivity to pay for their meal. Crosby hastens to assure him that by midnight he will be free again, but nobody believes that because there wouldn't be any picture.

Suffering Bob reclines on a chaise-longue, the center of attraction of a bevy of gorgeous, scantily clad, and bewitching women. Hope is waiting for a hysterical Holliwood star as Hope is suddenly surprised to see Crosby offer the man the discarded statue of a man, the affections of Dottie Lamour and Dolores to marry Bob, because she has been waiting an astrologer that the first man she marries will die during the first week of married bliss. Bob Hope gets bumped off by Dottie. Poor Hope has been sold into captivity to pay for their meal. Crosby hastens to assure him that by midnight he will be free again, but nobody believes that because there wouldn't be any picture.

Suffering Bob reclines on a chaise-longue, the center of attraction of a bevy of gorgeous, scantily clad, and bewitching women. Hope is waiting for a hysterical Holliwood star as Hope is suddenly surprised to see Crosby offer the man the discarded statue of a man, the affections of Dottie Lamour and Dolores to marry Bob, because she has been waiting an astrologer that the first man she marries will die during the first week of married bliss. Bob Hope gets bumped off by Dottie. Poor Hope has been sold into captivity to pay for their meal. Crosby hastens to assure him that by midnight he will be free again, but nobody believes that because there wouldn't be any picture.

Suffering Bob reclines on a chaise-longue, the center of attraction of a bevy of gorgeous, scantily clad, and bewitching women. Hope is waiting for a hysterical Holliwood star as Hope is suddenly surprised to see Crosby offer the man the discarded statue of a man, the affections of Dottie Lamour and Dolores to marry Bob, because she has been waiting an astrologer that the first man she marries will die during the first week of married bliss. Bob Hope gets bumped off by Dottie. Poor Hope has been sold into captivity to pay for their meal. Crosby hastens to assure him that by midnight he will be free again, but nobody believes that because there wouldn't be any picture.

Suffering Bob reclines on a chaise-longue, the center of attraction of a bevy of gorgeous, scantily clad, and bewitching women. Hope is waiting for a hysterical Holliwood star as Hope is suddenly surprised to see Crosby offer the man the discarded statue of a man, the affections of Dottie Lamour and Dolores to marry Bob, because she has been waiting an astrologer that the first man she marries will die during the first week of married bliss. Bob Hope gets bumped off by Dottie. Poor Hope has been sold into captivity to pay for their meal. Crosby hastens to assure him that by midnight he will be free again, but nobody believes that because there wouldn't be any picture.

Suffering Bob reclines on a chaise-longue, the center of attraction of a bevy of gorgeous, scantily clad, and bewitching women. Hope is waiting for a hysterical Holliwood star as Hope is suddenly surprised to see Crosby offer the man the discarded statue of a man, the affections of Dottie Lamour and Dolores to marry Bob, because she has been waiting an astrologer that the first man she marries will die during the first week of married bliss. Bob Hope gets bumped off by Dottie. Poor Hope has been sold into captivity to pay for their meal. Crosby hastens to assure him that by midnight he will be free again, but nobody believes that because there wouldn't be any picture.

Suffering Bob reclines on a chaise-longue, the center of attraction of a bevy of gorgeous, scantily clad, and bewitching women. Hope is waiting for a hysterical Holliwood star as Hope is suddenly surprised to see Crosby offer the man the discarded statue of a man, the affections of Dottie Lamour and Dolores to marry Bob, because she has been waiting an astrologer that the first man she marries will die during the first week of married bliss. Bob Hope gets bumped off by Dottie. Poor Hope has been sold into captivity to pay for their meal. Crosby hastens to assure him that by midnight he will be free again, but nobody believes that because there wouldn't be any picture.

Suffering Bob reclines on a chaise-longue, the center of attraction of a bevy of gorgeous, scantily clad, and bewitching women. Hope is waiting for a hysterical Holliwood star as Hope is suddenly surprised to see Crosby offer the man the discarded statue of a man, the affections of Dottie Lamour and Dolores to marry Bob, because she has been waiting an astrologer that the first man she marries will die during the first week of married bliss. Bob Hope gets bumped off by Dottie. Poor Hope has been sold into captivity to pay for their meal. Crosby hastens to assure him that by midnight he will be free again, but nobody believes that because there wouldn't be any picture.
Why?
The plans move the College Store from its present site in the Main Library to our alumni-owned ninth floor campus is being carried to fulfillment, despite the vigorous student opposition that had given the change for the store's site for the store's as a "monument" which was created a "monument," it was said, as the next in a series of such institutions in the country which, including the Student Council, were notified that they would be relieved of their duties. The move means to the students and the College's extra-curricular activities, under the new system, are to be continued. It is the first move for the College Store to its new location.

Dr. Ira Zolasko
A Man of Accomplishments Dr. Ira Zolasko, one of the members of the History Department, who is also a member of the School of Education, has been selected for the position of Assistant Professor of Education. He is the first member of the History Department to be awarded the position.

Pan Rehearsing: Not Fully Cast
"One of the Rehearsals" directed by Dr. Ira Zolasko, who is also a member of the History Department, is being rehearsed by students in the School of Education. The play is the first to be presented in the history of the College, and is being produced by the Pan School of the College. The play is a dramatic presentation of the history of the College, and is being produced by the Pan School of the College.

Lex and Aspirin Go Hand in Hand Lex and Aspirin are the most popular and successful of the two. They are the two most popular and successful of the two. Lex is the one who has been elected to the position of Assistant Professor of Education, and Aspirin is the one who has been elected to the position of Assistant Professor of Education. They are both popular and successful, and are the two most popular and successful of the two.

THE TICKETS
Monday, April 16, 1945

City Nine Meets Conn. at Stadium Wednesday
By Jerry Smolicki
Women's College of the University of Connecticut will be played on Wednesday, April 18, at 4 p.m. The game will be played on the New Haven field, and is expected to be a close contest.

In the Press Box
City Looks Towards Football Future As Gebhard Is Hired
By Jerry Smolicki
The City College football team is looking to the future as Gebhard is hired as the new coach. Gebhard, who was recently hired as the new coach, is expected to bring a new approach to the team.

Girls Offered New Electives
By Jerry Smolicki
Girls have been offered new electives in the College's curriculum, which will allow them to choose courses that are more suitable to their interests.

The answer to this is quite simple but to those people who talk in terms of competition, the answer is quite unknown. To some people this is an issue of fairness, which is why we are here. To others, this is an issue of fairness, which is why we are here.
This week, the mail hunt unearthed a choice bit of contrary to the form of a dignified epistle from Lieut. Leonard J. Dickie to Mrs. Ruth C. Wright, Dean of Students. Our most vivid impression of Lenny at City was one in which that young man had been literally divested of his dignity.

The last of a long line of male
Student Council Presidents, Dickie
was the leader of the traditional "departing" ceremony held at the end of each SC reign. Pink pants, a gold beard, and a never­off the memory of Lenny being
led through the front floor li­

rary, in powder blue shorts
and navy striped gaiters.

The last of a long line of male
Student Council Presidents, Dickie
was the leader of the traditional "departing" ceremony held
at the end of each SC reign. Pink
pants, a gold beard, and a
never­off the memory of Lenny being
led through the front floor li­

rary, in powder blue shorts
and navy striped gaiters.

The last of a long line of male
Student Council Presidents, Dickie
was the leader of the traditional "departing" ceremony held
at the end of each SC reign. Pink
pants, a gold beard, and a
never­off the memory of Lenny being
led through the front floor li­

rary, in powder blue shorts
and navy striped gaiters.

Pin-Up King

Topping the ballot with 465 votes, Pvt. Harry Weber, former Business Manager of the Class of '47, was named the CCNY-Pin-Up Boy in a contest sponsored by the Class of '47.

Harry, who is now with the Army Air Forces, was modestly reticent when informed of his victory, but visibly pleased at personality and wide grin left with Cityites. In a letter to Melvin Helter, Co-President of the Class of '47, he expressed his astonishment saying, "There must have been a mistake. Maybe the ballots were stuffed."

The purpose of the contest was successfully accomplished with the collection of a net total of $46.65, which was contributed to Ticker Mailing funds.

College Store

(Continued from page 1)

... and Oh Gee

By ESTA MARLOWE

his congratulatory wishes to go with his class. "Pramly entrenched, not in the usual foxhole, but behind the comfortable bed," Ted turns from his mirrored reflection of a slight case of yellow jaundice to thoughts of City. The Class of '45 will feel your absence at Commencement.

News has just been released that President-Franklin D. Roosevelt is deeply in the vein of the realization of the plans for security for which he has labored so long.
"We all feel deep, personal loss. He was the symbol of our hope for the future. Without his leadership, we must all work and fight harder to build as a monument the peace for which our country's young men died while fighting shoulder to shoulder.

'Economist' Picks Theme

In announcing the form of a dignified epistle from Lieut. Leonard J. Dickie to Mrs. Ruth C. Wright, Dean of Students. Our most vivid impression of Lenny at City was one in which
that young man had been literally divested of his dignity.

The last of a long line of male
Student Council Presidents, Dickie
was the leader of the traditional "departing" ceremony held
at the end of each SC reign. Pink
pants, a gold beard, and a
never­off the memory of Lenny being
led through the front floor li­

rary, in powder blue shorts
and navy striped gaiters.

The last of a long line of male
Student Council Presidents, Dickie
was the leader of the traditional "departing" ceremony held
at the end of each SC reign. Pink
pants, a gold beard, and a
never­off the memory of Lenny being
led through the front floor li­

rary, in powder blue shorts
and navy striped gaiters.

The last of a long line of male
Student Council Presidents, Dickie
was the leader of the traditional "departing" ceremony held
at the end of each SC reign. Pink
pants, a gold beard, and a
never­off the memory of Lenny being
led through the front floor li­

rary, in powder blue shorts
and navy striped gaiters.

The last of a long line of male
Student Council Presidents, Dickie
was the leader of the traditional "departing" ceremony held
at the end of each SC reign. Pink
pants, a gold beard, and a
never­off the memory of Lenny being
led through the front floor li­

rary, in powder blue shorts
and navy striped gaiters.

The last of a long line of male
Student Council Presidents, Dickie
was the leader of the traditional "departing" ceremony held
at the end of each SC reign. Pink
pants, a gold beard, and a
never­off the memory of Lenny being
led through the front floor li­

rary, in powder blue shorts
and navy striped gaiters.

The last of a long line of male
Student Council Presidents, Dickie
was the leader of the traditional "departing" ceremony held
at the end of each SC reign. Pink
pants, a gold beard, and a
never­off the memory of Lenny being
led through the front floor li­

rary, in powder blue shorts
and navy striped gaiters.

The last of a long line of male
Student Council Presidents, Dickie
was the leader of the traditional "departing" ceremony held
at the end of each SC reign. Pink
pants, a gold beard, and a
never­off the memory of Lenny being
led through the front floor li­

rary, in powder blue shorts
and navy striped gaiters.

The last of a long line of male
Student Council Presidents, Dickie
was the leader of the traditional "departing" ceremony held
at the end of each SC reign. Pink
pants, a gold beard, and a
never­off the memory of Lenny being
led through the front floor li­

rary, in powder blue shorts
and navy striped gaiters.

The last of a long line of male
Student Council Presidents, Dickie
was the leader of the traditional "departing" ceremony held
at the end of each SC reign. Pink
pants, a gold beard, and a
never­off the memory of Lenny being
led through the front floor li­

rary, in powder blue shorts
and navy striped gaiters.

The last of a long line of male
Student Council Presidents, Dickie
was the leader of the traditional "departing" ceremony held
at the end of each SC reign. Pink
pants, a gold beard, and a
never­off the memory of Lenny being
led through the front floor li­

rary, in powder blue shorts
and navy striped gaiters.

The last of a long line of male
Student Council Presidents, Dickie
was the leader of the traditional "departing" ceremony held
at the end of each SC reign. Pink
pants, a gold beard, and a
never­off the memory of Lenny being
led through the front floor li­

rary, in powder blue shorts
and navy striped gaiters.