SC Petitions Due

Thursday at 12

Petitions for election to student class offices and for ofcidents of the Student Council are to be handed in by Thomas Avery Lewis. 25 names are required for election for class officers: 50 signatures for election to Student President and Secretary of Student Council. There will no longer be a 25 cent fee with the in-tenance of the movement since the inauguration of the movement. Elections will be held October 9.

CCNY Boosters Begin Activities

The Boosters, officially recognized by the College on October 5, are the nucleus of the school's development program. The Booster Club, which is the group that has been formed to further the interests of the school and its students, will be distributed to the new pledges and preliminary inquiries will be made to the Booster Club. All political views will be carefully considered and the candidates will be selected to complete the pledge period and prove their willingness to contribute service to the booster program. In addition, the Booster Club will be an asset to the school.

The leadership of President Dorothy Lillenthal, plans for the Booster Club to hold an open meeting Thursday to offer opportunities to the respective candidates in the Booster Club. The Booster Club will be an asset to the school.

Under the direction of Miss Mulvihill, the Booster Club will be composed of students who are interested in present day politics and interested in the Booster Club. The Booster Club will be composed of students who are interested in present day politics and interested in the Booster Club. The Booster Club will be an asset to the school.

We heard again from Lt. Leo Reclusi in the land of Omar Khayyam, the magic carpet and Queen Esther. Lt. Reclusi is rapidly building up a first-class dislike for the Arabian nights since his stay in Persia. His latest exploits consist of pearl diving around Bahrain Island, and since it was the middle of the pearl season, he hoped to come up with some pearls on a lucky dive.

pened to the super-salesmen when they donned khaki. Now we know—they become Army salesmen! Lt. James L. Cohen is in charge of selling ten million battle jackets to the troops in Germany and says he now feels like a big wholesale suit and cloak manufacturer. As a traveling salesman, his home base was Belgium, and he gives a realistic description of Belgian life.

"These towns in Belgium are something out of a history—dating way back. The social classes are positively set and there's no deviation permitted. A large glass factory is the industry for this town of 2000 where I'm now working, and as the plant manager walks down the street everyone in town bows down. We all leave it to the Americans to get around traditions—or change them too.

"Drop in here for a treat. So if you're started, come here time for lunch.
