A Screen Festival
To Offer 'Pagliacci'

By Rox Geller and Don Scahar

Pagliacci, acclaimed by the New York press as a brilliant milestone in film history, brings all its vibrant drama to City College's Pauline Edwards Theater Thursday at 12, under the sponsorship of the Student Council.

Richard Tauter, world-renowned tenor famous to all opera enthusiasts and opera-lovers for his vibrant, tragic, and humorous roles, will appear in this 1925 version of the famous opera by Giacomo Puccini. The Metropolitan Opera will present this same production tonight.

American Federation

Mr. Tauter scores a great personal triumph playing the leading role, which is being sung by a combination of his singing ability and as a superb actor具 his performances have been the talk of the town and the subject of much discussion with Paris stars in Paris. He has sung in several opera performances, and has appeared in the Metropolitan Opera in the past.

Partially in Technicolor

In adapting the opera to the requirements of the screen, the Technicolor method has been used to satisfy both the sighted opera-goers and the entertainment seeking filmgoers. The Technicolor film, partially in technicolor, is a film that that will throw the viewer into an added world of musical enjoyment in its beauty.

First in Series

This picture is the first of a series of films to be presented by the Student Council as a part of its activities program. The series, now entering its third year, is possible to the Student Activities Budget, which was instituted last year.

Economic Seminar

The Economics Seminar begins its fifth year of activity with a meeting by the Department of Economics on "Recreations and Work Place". All students are invited to attend the meeting, which includes a question and answer period after the talk. The seminar is sponsored by the Economics Department under the sponsorship of the Committee on Student Council President, John Gustelli, is temporarily president.

Applications Taken For Teacher Examinations

The Committee on Student-Teacher Personnel, which must meet to prepare for teaching, is now accepting applications for its examinations in both written and oral English. Applications are available in 1095 from 2 to 5 daily. The qualifying examination in written English will be given October 24. Further information is available in the School of Education bulletin board outside 1113.

Social Lab Studies

Students’ Opinion

The Social Research Laboratory of the City College Department of Social Science has taken this term a comprehensive study of student attitudes on the establishment of a Social Research Laboratory and an investigation into cooperative housing ventures for veterans, Professor Samuel Josephs, chairman, and Discrimination Studied

Inculated in the project to determine student opinions on the question of a New York State University, is to discover whether any students at City College have changed their original choices because of discrimination on the part of graduate schools.

It will be determined, also, how many students will desire to integrate their education upon retirement from college, if such post-graduate training were to be possible.

The results of the campus investigation will be studied by the City Council's Social Committee. The students will have an opportunity to express their ideas on how these panels will be set up.

The suggested meeting day for the Student Council is set for October 19. A date which was created last year by the Student Council.

AVC Plans Annual Dance for Nov. 16

A gala First Annual Dance, featuring stage, screen and radio stars, will be presented in the American Veterans Committee Auditorium, November 10th at 8:30 in Hansen Hall.

The dance, which marks the first AVC annual dance for this year, will be presented by the Student Council of the AVC. This will be the first social endeavor by the AVC this semester, is aimed to bring out the best in student leaders together for a discussion of critical problems and an exchange of information and ideas which will be beneficial to extra-curricular activities at the college.

Downtown: City is represented on the metropolitan Intercollegiate Student Council, which will be held on the first Sunday of every month, at the University, and is open to all students.

Hansen Hall Locale Of Frosh Reception

Hansen Hall will be resound with the shouts of laughter and clapping of hands at the Frosh Orientation Committee's 3rd Annual Frosh Orientation Dinner on the ninth floor bulletin board.
