CCNY Radio Conference Opens Tonight In PET

By J. Arnold Klein

Sponsored by the CCNY School of Business and Civic Administration, the Third Annual Conference will be held today and tomorrow in the Pauline Edwards Theatre to discuss "Radio and Its Public." As an innovation this year, pair of the conference will be broadcast over local stations. Schedules of the programs will appear in the daily newspapers.

Theatronics Offers Comedy-Mystery

Mystery and laugh will reign supreme when Theatronics brings "Armenian and Old Lace" to PET on Friday, Saturday and Sunday. The show is sponsored by the Student Centennial Fund, in production, with a budget of $1,20 and $36, and $69 in "an attack on the roof box office."

"Nate" Adams-Weeves will portray Abby and Martha Graham, a suitable couple of the Brooklyn, who armed with elderberry wine and arsenic, usher in feature attraction. Among the other entertainers were Master of Ceremonies Irv Zucker, comedian Louis Unterman, Shelly Marder, and other Theatronics entertainers.

The closing meeting tomorrow will be held by the Program Committee of the presentation of City Colleges Five Awards and the announcement of Merit and Honorable Mention Award Winners. Portions of the programs will be presented at this session.

freedom from fear? The Ways and Means Committee firmly believes that a civil service employee's first and foremost loyalty should be to the government, but that as long as this fact must be used as means for intrusiveness, freedom of speech and freedom from fear. We urge all organizations at the College that must have the Truman of their alarm and distrust of this program outlined in the Truman directive. Claire Turk and the Ways and Means Committee.

"AMERICANS ALL" FILM PRAISES TOLERANCE

The Documentary Film Program of the Audio-Visual Aids Department will present a March of Time film "Americans All" April 25 and 3 in 1929. The film will take place on the Springfield, Massachusetts plan for combating racial and religious prejudices. This film has been selected for its unparalleled presentation and is being adopted by many communities throughout the country.

Students Land Jobs Via Club

In answer to a definite need for part time positions in the foreign commerce field by students of the college, an organization known as Trade Society is making an all out drive to place its members in work. Carrying its drive to foreign trade journals and weeklies, the society has already offered positions for positions and expects to aid those members desiring placement.

"When the Foreign Trade Soci-ety was first organized," said Mitchell Horne, president of the organization, "we were very much afraid that we had to institute a campaign to satisfy our members' desires. They are very anxious to work and we must try our best to help them.

The society has tentatively scheduled a tour to a large steamship company in order to acquaint its members with the "behind the scene" workings of the dock and shipping-facilities.

At the last meeting of the club, Mr. Joseph Cardinal, secretary of the American Federation of Labor, spoke on his organization and answered questions relating to the problem of national export and import disputes.

Advisor to Offer Job Counselling

As part of its newly organized program of aid to graduates of American colleges, the College of Social Work has announced that Mr. Irving D. Meyer, an officer of the College of Social Work, will be available for job counselling on Tuesdays in the office. Erich H. Fuld of the Court of Appeals has justly praised his alma mater, eloquently when he said:

"We live in a world that is indeed a temple of freedom set high on high, as all institutions in the true service of democracy are on the spiritual summit of life... The work done by the children of the Church has been ample vindication of the puritanistic, conservative, universal language of aspiration has always been very great; for thousands upon thousands of men the aspiration has been fulfilled."

"Are You Also Concerned with Your Finances?"

Lending a hand and helping the needy, the Brooklyn College Student Senate presented a March of Time film "Americans All" Friday April 12 on which Nat Holman appeared. The screening of this film served as the beginning of a month long campaign to satisfy our members' demands.
