Roll, Parker Are Elected to Inter-Club Board

Irvin Roll, Mike Parker and George Siegenfeld were elected Chairman, Vice-Chairman and Secretary, respectively at the Inter-Club Board’s last meeting this morning, a trio of boldly placed names to continue the leadership of the group for its accomplishments.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.

The outgoing chairman, Allen Boretz, expressed his thanks to the members for a job well done. An address to the members was in order at the end of the meeting to impress the organization with the need for continued work toward facilitating ICB’s work in the coming years.

The long strides taken during the past term were marked with the accomplishments of the board and the problems that needed to be solved were boldly asserted by Bob Sussman, Student Organization editor. Mr. Sussman outlined his staff’s accomplishments in solving the problems it most faced.
How Time Flies!

A Peek At The Past Semester
By Bill Cohen

You stand at the bank of the river and watch the current rushing by. It seems that just when you think you see familiar faces, they will continue to flow by, reminding you of your first year at City. You then realize that, although only ten years may have passed, the river will go on. The world will go on.

And then you picture the current of which you also a part. For the river is a symbol of the flow of history, and in it you see the current of the past year at City. You see those who came before us, and those who will follow...the past year at City is a part of the river's history, and it is yours to enjoy.

Senior Celab
By Bill Cohen

The past year has been a time of celebration and reflection for many seniors at City. It's a time when memories are made and cherished forever. The Senior Celab, held at the end of the year, is an event that brings together students from all corners of the country to share in the joy of being a part of the City family. It's a time to remember the friendships made and the experiences shared.

Pressing Matters
By Elliott Press

It has become apparent in recent years that the city is in need of a new system of traffic control. The present system, which is centered on the streets of the city, has proven to be inadequate in handling the increasing volume of traffic. The problem is compounded by the fact that the streets are becoming increasingly narrow due to the growth of the city.

The Beaver Sporlight
City Sports Future Is Uncertain
By Herb You

City's football team is in a state of uncertainty. The team has been struggling to find a winning formula, and the future looks uncertain. The team's performance has been inconsistent, and there are questions about the team's ability to compete at the highest level. The team needs a new coach who can bring stability and success to the program.

Juniors Win Intranunral Softball Tournament, 6-0
By Al Buchalter

A capacity crowd at Hansen Hall in the World Series of Softball Tournament on Thursday, April 18, saw the Juniors win the championship game over the Seniors, 6-0. The Juniors' victory marked the third consecutive year they have won the title.

In the championship game, the Juniors were led by pitcher Steve Goldin, who struck out 11 batters in seven innings. The Juniors' batting lineup was also strong, with catcher Mark Ferguson and second baseman Charlie Rothman leading the way with two hits each.

Good Baseball Year—Winograd
By Marty Winograd

The baseball season at City was a success, with the team finishing in second place in the season. The team played well throughout the season, with a record of 15-10. The team was led by pitcher Steve Goldin, who struck out 90 batters in 45 innings. The team also had strong batting, with catcher Mark Ferguson and second baseman Charlie Rothman leading the way with two hits each.

The team's biggest challenge was the World Series of Softball Tournament, which they won. The team played well throughout the tournament, with a record of 5-1. The team was led by pitcher Steve Goldin, who struck out 11 batters in seven innings. The team also had strong batting, with catcher Mark Ferguson and second baseman Charlie Rothman leading the way with two hits each.

The team's biggest challenge was the World Series of Softball Tournament, which they won. The team played well throughout the tournament, with a record of 5-1. The team was led by pitcher Steve Goldin, who struck out 11 batters in seven innings. The team also had strong batting, with catcher Mark Ferguson and second baseman Charlie Rothman leading the way with two hits each.
Alumni Group Begins Drive
To Enroll New Members

By Ruth Rimland and J. Arnold Klein

With a total membership representing more than 27 percent of the entire City College student body, the Alumni Association has opened a drive to enlist the newly graduating students. The first project for this fall—enrollment of the 1947 Class Prom and Dinner in December on the roof of the Hotel Astor—is Senior Women at the Alumni Class Night January 24, 1948.

Anyone who is able to contact even a few of the students will be sure Barbara Gording of the Prom Committee.

Baskind Elected SA Chancellor

Irvin Baskind was elected Chancellor and Sydelle Morris Vice-Chairman of Sigma Alpha at the Society's last meeting of the term.

Annette Nemsowitz and Mike Jakubow were elected Secretary and Treasurer respectively.

Those members of the society who are attending the summer session expect to have discussions on plans for the fall semester. This will enable the organization to plan their ideas into motion as soon as the term begins. Irvin Baskind who interviewed noted, "The Society's last meeting of the term—

Class News

A preview of what the fall of '47 will offer.

Class of 48

For men only—an opportunity to light up a smoker... a coed пластинка. A chance to get to know your classmates before they go to school.

Class of 49

Parents' reception in October—Treasurer Hunt in November—perhaps to find your fur or to like the Junior Prom in the new Belmar Palace Hotel on December 20. Plans for this semiformal gala event will be available at the beginning of the semester.

Class of 50

The class which did all right for itself with its Naughtiness Notes Review will carry on by presenting a "Boating Twenty Review" and the Sin accomplishes. The Hotel May 28, at the Hotel Astor. For further information contact Artie Heimberg, Lemington 2-1242.

Summer Jobs Scarce, Says Placement Chief

The outlook for jobs this summer is not very encouraging, according to Mr. Robert Kelly, director of the school's Placement Office. The majority of country openings have already been filled. Occasionally openings do come in, but they are the exception rather than the rule.

Jackson, in the city are also scarce, but here the situation is improved. The majority of these openings are part time, but will be full time during the summer. The Placement Office on the third floor can give valuable aid to the job seeker.

A real fun-maker! Capitol's luxury Portable Phonograph is completely different from your de luxe phonograph. Plays on 400-300, current plug-in) or on its own battery (wind-up). Both ways through the tube. Swell for the beach, for the woods away... for the mountains.

By Flora Spetnagle

Linguists Go Hollywood

Next term, sound motion pictures will be taken of the entire student body, to give a visual record of its activities. The workshops contributed, the trips from its Pan-American program, to the Centennial Fund.

Freed

Dr. Roderick Ekstein will discuss "Freed's Dream Theory and Interpretation" in a farewell address to the Psychology Club Thursday at 12:15 in 323. Dr. Ekstein has been appointed by the Meisberger Foundation to do work in psychoneurosis.

Bar-Mitzvah Dinner

The Law Society, at its last meeting of the term this Thursday at 12:30 in 406, will discuss plans for a post-synagogue dinner.

Advertising Jobs

Mr. Walter Lowen, head of the largest Advertising Placement Service in the U.S., will speak, "The Opportunities in Advertising" Thursday at 12:15 in 1426. The meeting is open to S.A.M. and the A & P Society.

CONGRATULATIONS 1947 GRADUATES

Wishing you all a happy and successful future

Molly Grossman

Brooklyn Law School

45th Year

Approved by American Bar Association

Accelerated two-year and three-year courses leading to B.L.S., LL.B.

TERM I—SEPTEMBER 6th and SEPT. 29th

Term II—FEBRUARY 6th and MARCH 25th

Early inquiry and enrollment advisable

375 PEARL ST., BROOKLYN 1, N. Y.
Near Borough Hall
Telephone: Cumberland 6-2200

'The Ticker'

Tuesday, May 27, 1947

'47 Receives Data On Commencement

Members of the Class of '47 were instructed Thursday on the procedures to be followed in Commencement. Monitoring the group was Dr. Joseph Baken, Chief Marshal of City College.

This year's Commencement will be held at Lewisohn Stadium, Saturday, May 24. Each student will be picked up, in the afternoon at which time the grad- uates will parade around the campus. Photographs will be taken at this time. At 7 o'clock a gown will be sounded, summoning gradu- ates to the Armory at 141 Street and-Third Avenue. Graduates and guests will assemble and receive last minute instruc- tions.

During the past semester Sigma Alpha developed a number of new activities in addition to continuing their usual work. Among the new activities is the Faculty-Student softball game and the departmental teas.

Anther Author!

"...a series of lectures on men and women relations for the fall term. A week-end retreat is also planned to continue it as an annual affair.

Summer Jobs Scarce, Says Placement Chief

The outlook for jobs this summer is not very encouraging, according to Mr. Robert Kelly, director of the school's Placement Office. The majority of country openings have already been filled. Occasionally openings do come in, but they are the exception rather than the rule.

Jackson, in the city are also scarce, but here the situation is improved. The majority of these openings are part time, but will be full time during the summer. The Placement Office on the third floor can give valuable aid to the job seeker.

A real fun-maker! Capitol's luxury Portable Phonograph is completely different from your de luxe phonograph. Plays on 400-300, current plug-in) or on its own battery (wind-up). Both ways through the tube. Swell for the beach, for the woods away... for the mountains.