First Installment Dye On '48 Lex

Down payments for the 1948 edition, official senior yearbook, were accepted starting today, Bernard Filzele, Business Manager, announced yesterday. Pay $0.50 per book. The yearbook is expected to be completed by May 15 of this year.

Franklin Model Award Presented to Alumnae

The fourth annual presentation of the Monroe D. Franklin model, was made Friday by Dean Thomas L. Norton, to Mr. and Mrs. Solomon. Mr. Solomon is a Navy veteran and was graduated magna cum laude in addition to two other degrees.

The model is given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. D. Franklin, who recently announced that they would donate a total of $12,000 for the purchase of a new building.

The University News is published weekly by the University of Wisconsin."
F-S Show Set; Recruits Talent For Production

By Harry Brief

This season, as in all other years, the Faculty and Student Committees on curriculum have been working diligently on the school's annual theatrical undertaking, the F-S Show. This year's production, which is scheduled for November 13, 14, and 15, will feature a variety of talents from the student body, including vocalists, dancers, and comedians.

The show will be directed by Mr. Howard Johnson, who has been involved in the production for several years. According to Prof. Ross A. Baker, the show is a perfect opportunity for students to showcase their abilities and gain valuable experience in the performing arts.

Alumnae are encouraged to purchase tickets early, as past shows have sold out quickly. Ticket information will be announced in the coming weeks.

City Midtown Center To Offer Variety Of Business Courses

Continuing the fine work which it inaugurated last year, the Evening and Extension Division this term will advance the study of business. This year, $10,000 in registration and tuition fees were discovered stolen, although testimony had it that all entrances to the building as well as the window through which the money was taken were locked at 10:30 p.m. on the night of the theft.

According to Dr. Parker, the theft was not the first of its kind to occur at the college. In 1946, a former student was arrested for the theft of $5,000 from the school's treasury.

The cooperation of as many people as possible is needed to make the situation better. Students are urged to report any suspicious activity to the authorities immediately.

Winograd Made Athletics Chief

Another rug on the ladder of the Young Men's Hebrew Association was placed last week with the election of Frank Moran to the position of athletic director.

Mr. Moran, who has been associated with the YMHA for several years, will be assisted by a newly formed Faculty-Student Athletic Board. The board, which is composed of fighters who are able to block and tackle effectively and who are skilled in the art of football, is expected to bring about a new era of athletic excellence at the college.

Winograd's new duties include the supervision of all athletic activities, the coordination of team practices, and the organization of interscholastic meets.

THE TICKEE Monday, September 25, 1944
Registration Breaks All Former Records

The Downtown Center contributed approximately 4500 students to another record-breaking City College registration total, and this year's enrollment is not likely to be reached until the expansion of its enrollment, for Hunter College now has 6000 girls and 1900 veterans on its books, Brooklyn College has topped 6200, and Queens, 5000.

The City College enrollment figures are the result of an increase in student numbers during the spring semester, including 14200 in the evening and adult education divisions and 5000 in the college's intensivebusiness training program for veterans and special afternoon sessions for teachers who want to teach in junior colleges. The enrollment has increased by 5000 over a year ago. Of this total, 6666 are students who are returning for a second or subsequent year. Of these, 2200 are veterans.

In the expansion of its enrollment, for Hunter College now has 6000 girls and 1900 veterans on its books, Brooklyn College has topped 6200, and Queens, 5000.

Activities Spurt In Past Year

Describing the 1946-47 school year as "one of the most active in the history of the student organizations and their functions," the Committee on Student Activities in its annual report to the faculty, submitted in August, announced that 66 day session-student groups, the largest number in the school's history, are in operation, and that between the two semesters, 157 club meetings were held, a new high.

Of this total, it was reported, 12 were music-related groups, the largest number of musical organizations in the school's history, and that between the two semesters, 157 club meetings were held, a new high.

The committee, headed by Dr. Charles E. Eberhardt, of the hygiene department, also announced that the fund-activities within the school during the past two years.

Economics Seminars will be planned at the present. The student organizations are requested to submit their program suggestions to the editor, William Lewis, of the College, transportation, and veterans to comprise 35 per cent of the student body.

The elevators were jammed. If you get wise to yourself and get into the fun, there will be an open meeting of the Class of 1950 Thursday at 12 in Lounge B. All are invited. Suffermore.

The College is being prepared for the presentation of the season tomorrow from 2:30 in Lounge B. All are invited. Suffermore.

The College is being prepared for the presentation of the season tomorrow from 2:30 in Lounge B. All are invited. Suffermore.

Clubs Must Elect Reps For ICBC

All student organizations are urged to select a representative of the term will end, October 12. The deadline is Friday. The deadline is Friday.

The College's foremost magazine (so advertised), The Account, is being prepared for issuance this November. Anyone with the time and ability should volunteer their services in the offices of the College. All are invited.

The College's foremost magazine (so advertised), The Account, is being prepared for issuance this November. Anyone with the time and ability should volunteer their services in the offices of the College. All are invited.

The College's foremost magazine (so advertised), The Account, is being prepared for issuance this November. Anyone with the time and ability should volunteer their services in the offices of the College. All are invited.

The College's foremost magazine (so advertised), The Account, is being prepared for issuance this November. Anyone with the time and ability should volunteer their services in the offices of the College. All are invited.

The College's foremost magazine (so advertised), The Account, is being prepared for issuance this November. Anyone with the time and ability should volunteer their services in the offices of the College. All are invited.