Forum Argues
Peace Problems

By Sandy Socolow

"Delirium Tranumia" and "Round-table Psychology" were put forth by Carles Lamont and David Dally respectively, as the maladies plaguing the American people in their quest for peace at a forum for government students held last week in the FDR Lounge.

Mr. Lamont, a member of one of America's wealthiest families and a graduate of Harvard and Oxford, upheld the affirmative of the topic, "Can America and the USSR Co-exist Peaceably?" Speaking favorably on the chances for peace, he expressed the thought that it depended greatly on the U.S. to keep the peace. Very few are doing this, he stated.

He accused Truman and Marshall of being "the greatest blamers of mankind." Decrying the actions of American leaders for their part in the recent ex plores, he stated that both sides have been at fault and that a compro mise could and must be made, es cially on such matters as atomic bomb, and the Korean and Dardanelles questions.

Mr. Dally, a Russian emigre, has been in this country for several years but in exile from his native land for twenty-eight years, expressed exasperation at the general attitude of the American people which he described as "Round-table Psychology." He explained it as a "strange epidem ic illness in this country" which leaves people with "the na tive idea that it is enough in being together leaders" to formulate a peace.

NSA Vacancies Attract Three Eager Candidates

Tomorrow at 10, election of school officers and representatives will once again take place. It is hoped that the interest of the student body will cause a large number of students to vote. It is important that students get to know these candidates, because through their election, City College will have a voice in the future of the College. Since 1965, City College has been represented at NSA's national and regional meetings.
Weakened City 9 Faces Manhattan in Met Tilt

By Arthur Shapiro

With Sam Placeantto, City's right-hand pitcher, Bob Ludwick, second baseman, and Bill (Red) Greengrass, outfielder and reserve catcher, declared ineligible last week, and the decision of Marty Cohen, star relief hurler, to leave the team, the Newark Giants will be hard pressed to defend their third place standing in the East Lea- gue competition. Joe Patek and Dennis Mahto were scheduled to pitch the remaining two Met Conference games which will pit City against Manhattan today and St. John's tomorrow.

If all started a two-week lay off on Saturday, and third and fourth Term Examinations were barred from fur- ther participation by professional ball clubs. This set of circumstances, which means the last week's play was fast-forwarded to the regular game schedule in the games for the club, also expressed itself in the All-American lineup and was declared a natural consequence.

Although the home coming of the regular line-up in the regular season last week was fast-forwarded to the regular game schedule in the games for the club, also expressed itself in the All-American lineup and was declared a natural consequence.
