TV Screen Star Selected

'Queen' of TB Carnival; Students to 'Cough It Up'

By Joan Zalinsky

Jacqueline Susann, talented Hollywood, Broadway and television actress and author, was crowned "Queen of the TB Carnival" Thursday at 1. The carnival will run for two days, Thursday and Friday, from 10-4 in Lounge C.

With $350 set as the goal of the annual affair, the money will be donated to the Thalidomide Association. This is the second time that a "Queen" has been selected by students for the carnival. Last year's "Queen," Sally Cooper, was crowned "Queen of the Thalidomide Carnival" Thursday at 1.

"Cough It Up"

Students will "cough up" 5c for each amusement ticket, or get a free ticket if they cough 25c. Tickets will be honored at the various booths set up in the lounge. Tickets will be sold by student representatives sponsored by different groups and organizations in the School. The money will be divided among the various groups and organizations in the School.

"Cough It Up" will be held Thursday and Friday, December 19-20, from 10-4 in Lounge C.

Feature Attractions

Miss Susann, the feature attraction for the carnival, is appearing gratis. She has recently written a play, "Cook of the Walk," in which she will star on Broadway with Danny Dunn next season.

Among the different organizations and their booths are: the Classes of '53 and '52, the Statistics Association and the campus store. A faculty-student "bull throwing" contest will be held. Students and teachers will be able to participate in this event, and each other with the "best man" as winner.

Ducats Ready

For Jr. Prom

All students who hold pledges for the Junior Prom should pick up their tickets Thursday, from 10-4, in Lounge C. The cost is $5 for each couple, and $10 for those who wish to come with only one person.

When the pledge holder picks up his tickets, a list should be handed him of the people he would like to sit with. There are five couples to a table. Inquiries may be made at the ticket booth for further information on corsages.

"We would like to have all the students enjoy themselves," said Andy Gwrdaxuv, 6-1 captain of the varsity. "We have arranged a program that will be enjoyed by all who participate," announced A. B. Rosenberg, president of the club.

The meal will consist of "skier's breakfast," lunch on the slopes, and a "fancy dinner" at the hotel. The entertainment will be climaxd with a steak banquet and a dance in the evening at the school.

Student genres interested in skiing can bowl, play ping pong or participate in any club of the indoor sports available to the guests. Those interested in outdoor activities can ski, ice skate, go down the toboggan run or go sleigh riding. Instructors will be available for all the active persons interested in learning a new sport and for those who would like to improve upon their present capabilities.

The club has also planned a special "roaring twenties" party for the Junior Prom. The"flapper" will be the theme of the evening and the group will "dance the night away." The dance will be held Thursday, December 19, in Lounge C.

Winter Sports Club Programs Frolic;

IceSkating, Skiing, Major Attractions

Deposits of $10 for the Winter Sports Club's five-day weekend outing to Vermont, December 28 through January 1, must be placed in Box 921 before December 19.

Cost of the trip is $61.25, which is due by December 25. The deposit can either be given to Joe Schacht, secretary of the club, or mailed to Box 921, CCNY, 17 Lex., New York City. Through a working agreement with the Cambridge Hotel near Manchester, Vermont, the club had arranged to obtain a reduction from the standard price.

The group will leave Friday, December 28, at 5 from 25 Street and Lexington Avenue and will return January 1.

"We have arranged a program that will certainly be enjoyed by all who participate," announced A. B. Rosenberg, president of the club. "We have planned a variety of activities for the group, including a trip to the ski resort, a day of ice skating, and a visit to the famous "Woodstock" ski area."
a questionable boast

Today, while an hour-world stands on the verge of peace, or at least the semblance of peace, the College student is free, careless, irresponsible, the recreational ideal. He should not. He should endeavor to aggrandize for himself just what he is. We are, after all, young and should decide how we will use our leisure.

We will never see the value of our time, or of our leisure, unless we use it. We should not dream of being all at once.

We will all give you very pertinent answers—although the answers may differ in part, to prosper and to prosper, our public service will prosper. This is not by our actions.

There is no one thing that we can do to bring about this prosperity of the College. We will choose what we can do to make our time more useful, and we will make it so.

The College is in the middle of a joyous, buoyant, active, prosperous period. This was the last day today that Council would have, as Councils are for only one year. This is the last day of the College this year. This is the last day of the College this year.

Stade and the Department of Education have filtered down to the students. It might appear that extra-curricular activities are a source of joy to the student, and it is worthwhile to the student to be a part of them. It is to see that extra-curricular activities are a part of the life of the College, and to be a part of the life of the College.

The office of the President is a part of the life of the College. It is the President of the College who has the responsibility of the College, and who has the responsibility of the College.

Stade and the Department of Education have filtered down to the students. It might appear that extra-curricular activities are a part of the life of the College, and to be a part of the life of the College.

The office of the President is a part of the life of the College. It is the President of the College who has the responsibility of the College, and who has the responsibility of the College.

Stade and the Department of Education have filtered down to the students. It might appear that extra-curricular activities are a part of the life of the College, and to be a part of the life of the College.

The office of the President is a part of the life of the College. It is the President of the College who has the responsibility of the College, and who has the responsibility of the College.
Lavender Five Wins; Watson Leads Attack

By Stan Fluk

A foul shot by acting Captain Jerry Domershick with only 38 seconds remaining to play provided the margin of victory for a scrappy though somewhat erratic City College five over a game Rennolke squad, 63-62, Saturday night at the Main Gym.

The contest, a preliminary to the CONY standup point was the "opening" of the Lavender captain, Joe Cotrozo. Pressed into duty when it was learned that Ed Chenetz was ineligible and Marty Garkin was injured, Watson surprised the city seven by scoring 23 points through-the-nets. Lloyd finished the evening's scoring with an easy 35-second put, Berjope to outlast Iona having defeated them earlier in the week at Rochelle, 92-71, by halftime led by ten; 34-24.

Six of the Beaver grapplers pinned their opposition. In the 135 lb. division, Jack Gesund won his first, intercollegiate match by pinning Ed Seymour of Rutgers with a double arm bar in 3:59.

In the 147 lb. class, Conard Nee man added five more points to the City score by pinning Stu Spivak of the home forces in 7:06 with a half-nelson crutch hold.

Both of the Beavers' blind wrestlers had easy times with their opponents. In the 155 lb. class, when the Scarlet's Dick Tannenbaum led the Beaver attack, Coach Nat Holman used only seven players. Domershick played the entire game and was an obviously tired young man during the major portion of the second half.

Paul Cap led the offensively deliberate Rennolke five in scoring by 24 markers. Behrens was a runner-up in scoring with 37 points to preserve the victory.

The lack of reserve strength definitely hampered the Beaver attack. Coach Nat Holman used only seven players. Domershick played the entire game and was an obviously tired young man during the major portion of the second half.

Paul Cap led the offensively deliberate Rennolke five in scoring by 24 markers. Behrens was a runner-up in scoring with 37 points to preserve the victory.

Frosh Hoopsters Bow to Iona

As Desperate Rally is Stopped

By Stan Fluk

By Stan Fluk

Trailing by twenty points, going into the fourth quarter, Coach Bobby Sand's freshman basketball team rallied desperately. The Beavers were defeated by both Iona College and the clock, and as a result, they sailed down to a 59-48 defeat at the hands of the New Rochelle five.

The contest, a preliminary to the City College - Rennolke varsity game, Saturday, saw big Charlie Volkmann break the backs of the Lavender hoopers by pouring 22 points through the nets.