Lazarus, Mann Vie for Presidency, Class Races Draw 44 Candidates; Dollar Fee Increase on Referendum

A proposed $1 increase in the student activity fee will be voted upon in tomorrow's Student Council elections. At present students pay an activities fee of $2.50, which is included in the $7.50 pre-registration charge.

The net fees collected from students this semester totaled $8,682 of which $2,692 was granted to Student Council; $2,382 to THE TICKER; $400 to the Intramural Board; $1,000 to the reserve for lounge furniture; $92 for Munzak; and $76 for miscellaneous Department of Student Life expenditures.

The activities fee was first initiated in 1946 at $1.50 per student. Previous to this time money was raised by the sale of tickets. In 1948, students were given the privilege of purchasing tickets to Theatre shows, participation in the Pomona Spring Marching Band, and attendance at Science lectures.

In 1949 the fee was raised by $1. In the fall of 1954 the fee was raised by $0.50.

It is likely that if Student Council had passed the fee raise of its own volition, such a fee raise would have been recommended to the Board of Higher Education for almost certain approval. However, it was felt that since the fee was started by the student body, any additional raises must be passed upon by them.

Voting for the vice-presidency were Lou Marin, SC Charter Committee chairman; Isa Rauch, Freshman Orientation Society president; Jerry Ravnitzky, SC Discount Service chairman; and Mel Weiss, former SC Social Committee chairman. All are from the class of '57.

A total of 11 candidates have filed petitions for class council and Student Council representative positions. Unlike this semester, where two classes are not fully represented on Council, the only class that will not have full representation next term is Lower '57, which has only three candidates running, and three vacant seats.

Three Departments Set Walt Whitman Program

In honor of the Centennial Publication of "Leaves of Grass," a Walt Whitman Recital, sponsored by the English, Music, and Speech departments, the Downtown Literary Society and Theatre, will be held Thursday, at 12:30 in the Dooryard Room.

On Thursday, December 22, in 826, the Downtown Literary Society will hold a discussion on "Walt Whitman: Poet-of-Democracy." This talk will center on Whitman's own beliefs, as expressed in his poetry, and how democratic leaders have interpreted it.

On display in the eighth floor showcase are short selections of Whitman's Poetry, a brief biography of him, and illustrations. The English Department office sports an oil painting of Whitman painted by Vincent Elyett in 1949.

A recording of two movements from a Sea Symphony, "Sea Drift" and "On the Beach at Night," will be played. Another selection, "Cruising Brooklyn Ferry," will be read by John Unterkoffler, of the English Department. Theatre players will recite "When I Heard the Learned Astronomer," "A Noiseless Patient Spider," "Goodbye My Fancy" and "When Lilacs Last in Pauline Edwards Theatre, from 10:30 to 11:30. During this time all classes will be suspended.

This convocation is run entirely by the students—the chairperson is SC President Bob Cord; the vice-president, is aspirants for the highest student office.

Prettye Coed Sought For Charity Carnival

John Nigri, chairman of the Charity Carnival, has announced that Carnival representatives will scout the streets for well-groomed prettye—one from each class. These four locomotives will appear Saturday evening on ABC-TV's "Step This Way."

The Charity Carnival, to be held Thursday, December 22, in the downtown area, is the benefit of Mythenia Gravita Foundation. Mythenia Gravita is a uniting nerve center, at times fatal. The affair is sponsored by the Phi Omegae.

Of the four, one will be chosen Carnival Queen. She will be awarded the trophy by Dennis Young, prominent television emcee.- Also on hand at the carnival will be Douglas Edwards, CBS News commentator.

In order to participate in the upcoming election, there is a surplus of candidates. With one exception all Council candidates are listed on the slate of the Council of Student Council (CSC) which consists of the full-time and part-time students.

We are not asked the "golf course" in the meant. We are in the midst of a debate about who is best. When we finish this debate we will have a clear winner. We will then turn our attention to the second candidate. We trust you will do the same. This edition's Election Supplement in many instances may be your only knowledge of the candidate, read it.

There is no need for us to point out that the duty of an advertiser must be maintained. We do not want people to lack a sense of reason. If you still don't vote then the editorial staff will need to discuss the consequences.

Comm. for all its blunders, inherent clumsiness, moral mistakes, and other missteps, the College is at peace. Degree changes, National Student Association resolutions, have been accepted. The reviewing process and the role of the student body is being accepted. However, these projects and other innovations will be continued depends on the future officers. They will depend upon their vote.

Winless Cagers Lose To Columbia, Hunter

Despite Coach Nat Holman's insistence that his cagers "are trying very hard and look good on the court," the Beavers, like the heroes of the Greek tragedies, come up with one fatal flaw per game.

Against Columbia's well-drilled and powerful team Thursday, it was rigged first-half play, which allowed the Lions to lop to a 25-12 lead at the eleven-and-a-half minute mark, that cost them the game.

Although City rallied and cut a twenty-point Lion lead in half in the final minutes of the first half, Columbia had too large a cushion accruing from City's sloppy first half play, winning 83-67.

The Light Blue shooters were accurate enough to record a .491 average on 28 field goals in 57 tries. The Beavers could only make 24 of 74 shots, a .324 average.

The sharpshooting Chester Forte scored 23 points for the winners while teammate Frank Thomas rebounded strongly and scored 10 markers. George Jensen led the City cagers with 17 points.

Hunter College benefited from City's fouling and inaccurate foul shooting to record a 67-62 upset at Wingate Hall, Saturday. It was Hunter's first victory over the Lions in four tries and gave the floundering Beavers an 0-3 record. Hunter is 3-0.

A total of 34 fouls were committed in the game, the Beavers, five clicked on 33 of its 45 charity tosses while City hit on only 14 of 34, although the Beavers' overcouched Hunter from the floor, 24-17.

With the score tied at 40-all after four minutes of the second half, Syd Levy, CCNY's 6-9 center, fouled out. His absence proved to be the deciding factor in the game. Levy had scored 8 points and was helping City to control the backboards.

Never headed throughout the first half, and at one time possessing a 24-13 lead, the Beavers gained and lost the lead seven times during the second half.

With slightly more than two minutes to play, captain Louis Berson put City ahead for the last time with a driving lay-up. But George Farlekas connected with a jump shot at 18:30 to give the Hawks a 63-62 lead which they never lost.

Matmen Open Up Campaign

By Defeating Aggies, 16-15

The Beaver wrestling team opened its season successfully, Saturday, by defeating the Long Island Aggies, 16-15. Leading the Lavender on to victory were co-captain Al Zingmond, Vince Norman, Bernie Stahl, Al Kaler and co-captain Sal Sorbera. Zingmond and Norman won their matches by decisions, wresting at the 157 and 187 pound levels, respectively. Bernie Stahl, at 167, also won his match by a decision, while Kaler was victorious via a fall. Kaler weighed 130. Sorbera ran into a tough opponent and drew.

Chippy Spohr Plaque Dedicated by Booter

The players on the City College soccer team have dedicated in their own pockets to finance a memorial to Howard "Chippy" Spohr, the College's popular Assistant Faculty Manager of Athletics, who died of a stomach ailment August 14.

The memorial will be in the form of a plaque beneath a picture of Spohr. According to Coach Harry Karlin, it will probably be mounted in the College's Athletic Association offices. It was decided by the players to add a remembrance of his own to the plaque each year.

Johnsen Paces Swimmers To 62-22 Win in Opener

The City College swimming team started out the season in top flight form last Friday when it doused Manhattan College, 62-22, in Wingate Hall. The one-sided triumph marked the Beavers' sixteenth consecutive Metropolitan League triumph. They have been the titleholders for two years in a row.

The Lavender won nine of the ten events on the program. The Jaspers only were able to take the 400-yard freestyle relay, the last event of the evening.

Jim Johnson, who is being counted upon by Coach Jack Rider to plug the gap left open by the graduation of Howie Schloemer, came in first in three events, winning the 110, 220, and 440-yard freestyles.

Sol Stern, City's veteran back-stroker, won the 230-yard event. He was followed by Jerry Lopia­ tin, who also won the 200-yard individual medley race.

Baruch Wins

The Baruch School's Commerce basketball team opened its season by crushing NYU Dental, 88-52, last Thursday. Mike Gomshay, Marv Rosco and Wolf, and Princeton.

Lafayette Leopards Roll Into Main Gym Saturday

City College's basketball team will undergo perhaps toughest test of the entire season when it engages Lafayette College in the Main Gym Saturday night at 8:30.

The Leopards from Easton, Pa., have won three of four games this season. They boast victories over Swarthmore, Delaware, and Princeton.

Last season, under Coach Bill Van Breda Kolff, ex-New York Knickerbocker player and now basketball mentor at Hofstra Col­ lege, the Maroon and White won 24 and lost only two during the regular season. Then they bowed to Niagara, 83-70, in the first round of the National Invitation Tourney.

Every member of that torrid aggregation has returned this season.

Jim RadcilF, a junior, leads the Leopard attack. Last season, he averaged 14.2 points per game and pulled down rebounds at the rate of 17.6 per tilt. Little Ernie Peters acts as the playmaker and feeder, setting up the plays for three other high scorers -- 6-4
