Becker, Brand Enter Race for Presidency of Council

By Wally Schwartz

Bob Becker, Class of Lower '57, and Sheldon Brand of Upper '58 will oppose each other for the presidency of Student Council at elections to be held Tuesday, December 9. Forty-two other petitions have been filed by students campaigning for Student Council positions.

Becker is at present the vice-president of the Inter Club Board in charge of industrial research demonstrations by business, professional and economic associations. Becker has applied for all four other executive posts. In addition, two National Honor Society representatives will be elected.

Vice President

The candidates are: John Nijuy, Lower '57, and Mel Small who will for the vice presidency of Student Council; Joel Isaacson, Upper '57, and Ray Pfeifer, Lower '57, for secretary; and Paul Douglas who will unopposed for the positions of editor and corresponding secretary of the Economics Department, respectively.

At Show Film

A show will be held at 12 to try on and take home their tuxedos. Necessary alterations will also be made at that time.

Tuxedos

The co-chairmen of Student Council's Tuxedo Show Committee, Irma Friedlander and Larry Brock, have announced that all the candidates for Student Council will meet through the committee to interview Oct. 12 to try on and take home their tuxedos. Necessary alterations will also be made at that time.

Harry Karlin

Isaacs' Deciding Vote Passes Folder Motion

As a result of President Harvey Isaacs' tie-breaking vote, Student Council Friday evening passed a motion stating that the Department of Student Life must get an authorization from a student before releasing information from his activities folder to prospective employers.

The motion was submitted as the second of a pair by Inter Club Board Chairman Don Grossman. The first motion stated, that a student, upon graduation, should be allowed to inspect his activities folder. It was passed unanimously.

On the motion concerning student authorization, Treasurer, Paul Douglas, seconded by Paul Blumenthal, spelling the names of his four fellow economics department students, Paul Blumenthal, who is in charge of the Economics Department, and the name of his father, who is a professor of economics at City College.

At Alumni Dinner

Returer Bases Hope on UN

By Mary Glassberg

A straw vote among the upstate soccer coaches has unanimously selected the Beaver booters as New York State Soccer Champions. The Lavender will represent the state in the Eastern Intercollegiate Championships.

Coach Harry Karlin first learned of the award Tuesday evening when a phone call from Hunter Park, chairman of the selecting committee, hours before, Karlin's team captured its fourth straight Metropolitan Soccer League title by crushing Hunter College, 7-4, at the Bronxites' field.

By winning Pratt, 5-2, Saturday at Red Hook Stadium, the Lavender finished the season undefeated and stretched its winning streak to twenty-eight games without defeat. Two ties marked the team's only blemish.

The Beaver booters will face Springfield College, selected as the New England Champion, on Brookside Field in Springfield, Massachusetts, December 1. The winner will meet the Middle States-South victor for a Western team may be chosen.

Both teams entered the first round with identical 9-0-1 records and both will be led by center forward Bob Becker, 16 goals this year-Nakaw Masanovich for City and Richard Henderson for Springfield. Springfield posted a 5-0-1 record in the twenty-four team New England Soccer League. The team came at the hands of Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Tufts College and the University of Pennsylvania and Yale University.

Springfield downed the powerful Eli, 5-4, early in the campaign.

Other victims of the Beavers' (Continued on Page 4)
Spit Survey
Four persons were interviewed for this story by The TICKER's photography photographers, and one individual was interviewed by The TICKER's reporter.

The Rusty Wheel

By Walter S. Nathan

While the rust of the world looks on, the Ivy League continues to show the same rusty teeth, as in its past. The Ivy League was one of the most prominent of the nation's colleges in the past, but now it is seen in its present. The Ivy League has come to be a symbol of old age and decay.

The Rusty Wheel

By Walter S. Nathan

While the rust of the world looks on, the Ivy League continues to show the same rusty teeth, as in its past. The Ivy League was one of the most prominent of the nation's colleges in the past, but now it is seen in its present. The Ivy League has come to be a symbol of old age and decay.

Spot Survey
Four persons were interviewed for this story by The TICKER's photography photographers, and one individual was interviewed by The TICKER's reporter.

The Rusty Wheel

By Walter S. Nathan

While the rust of the world looks on, the Ivy League continues to show the same rusty teeth, as in its past. The Ivy League was one of the most prominent of the nation's colleges in the past, but now it is seen in its present. The Ivy League has come to be a symbol of old age and decay.

The Rusty Wheel

By Walter S. Nathan

While the rust of the world looks on, the Ivy League continues to show the same rusty teeth, as in its past. The Ivy League was one of the most prominent of the nation's colleges in the past, but now it is seen in its present. The Ivy League has come to be a symbol of old age and decay.
New England Champs Posted 9-0-1 Record During Season's Play

City Harriers Finish Second To Le Moyne in CTC Meet

After going through its regular season undefeated, the City College cross-country team engaged in some post-season competition Saturday at Van Cortlandt Park.

The harriers finished second to Le Moyne University of Syracuse in the College Track Conference meet.

The upstarts' first with 34 points to the Beavers' 94. In cross-country, the team with the lowest point score is the winner—the total being derived from the finishing position of a team's first five runners.

Hunter College finished third with 129 points, while Queens College wound up third with 157.

The Beavers had previously whipped Hunter, Queens and Jona during the regular season.

Eighth-eight runners from sixteen teams participated in the meet, which drew together many of the cross-country masters from this area. The brainchild of Bruce, former Lavender mentor.

Individual winner of the meet was Joe Vogel of Hunter, who before this meet had won the City meet, and Randy Crossfield ran his best season, 27:42, but twelfth. He was followed the finish line by teammates Taylor in 27:59.

This is the first time in many years that Brooklyn College hill and dairies have entered the cross-country course than 28 minutes.

Rick Harford, Lavender captain, finished fourteenth. Tom Doughtery was the Additional finishers for the runners, placing the tape twenty-fifth and wound up twenty-fifth to finish the City scoring.

Two other runners, Mike and Dave Grady, placed 2001- to 33rd and thirty-third respectively. Although their time did not figure in the lowering scoring, their placing among the finishers precluded the runners from gaining low position.

Records Set

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Meet</th>
<th>Champions</th>
<th>Records Set</th>
<th>School</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>CTC Meet 1955</td>
<td>Brooklyn College</td>
<td>Total 51</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td></td>
<td>Goals</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
|                    |                        | Novak Masanovich (CF) 16
|                    |                        | Wolfgang Wostl (IL) 11
|                    |                        | Johnny Paranos (CHB) 7
|                    |                        | Freddy Bonnet (OR) 6
|                    |                        | Billy Sund (IR) 6
|                    |                        | Eric Bissel (IL) 5
|                    |                        | Danny McEneny (OL) 3
|                    |                        | Fred Loebl (IR) 1
|                    |                        | Total 51             |                                 |

Scoring

Randy Crossfield

College wound up third and Iona College took fifth place honors.

The Beavers had previously whipped Hunter, Queens and Jona during the regular season.

For Good Seats To THEATRON'S

"My Three Angels"

Act Now!

TICKETS GO OFF RESERVE WED., NOV. 21

BROOKLYN LAW SCHOOL

Non-Profit Educational Institution Approved by American Bar Association

GRADUATE COURSES

Undergraduate Classes Leading to JLL.B Degree

DAY AND EVENING

Leading to Degree of JLL.M.

New Term Commences February 6, 1957

For Further Information, Call Office of Admissions.

375 PEARL ST., BROOKLYN 1, N. Y. Near Borough Hall

Telephone: MA 5-2200