Brrr! Students Shiver As Fuel Pump Breaks

School's Sale Not Affected By Alterations

President Buell G. Gallagher, in a press conference last week, said that temporary improvements, although costly, would never be used as an excuse to prevent possible sale of the building after 1960. He further stated that "efforts are being made for the best possible adjustment under the present circumstances."

Dean Emanuel Saxe has authorized a survey of classrooms, lounges, laboratories, and student offices so that there may be a reallocation of space facilities at the Baruch School. The work probably will begin next week, to be done in conjunction with the change of the Baruch School's electrical current from 60-cycle to AC to relieve the School's heavy-loaded wiring system.

Uptown's Student Leaders To Sign Organization Lists

Eight student leaders at the Uptown Center, in protest against the College's ruling on compulsory membership lists, have signed a petition to sign membership lists in a number of organizations on campus.

The eight uniform names will be submitted together with the names of the officers of the club on the membership list of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Students for Democratic Action and the Marxist Discussion Club. It was reported that other organizations are considering the plan.

The plan was organized by the Uptown Student Government Civil Liberties Committee. It is designed to circumvent the ruling reaffirmed by the general faculty last November which requires the names of at least twelve members of a club to be submitted to the Department of Student Life in order for the organization to be recognized on campus.

In the Spring of 1956, five political clubs withdrew from the Uptown campus in defiance of the compulsory lists ruling.

Gallagher's Mind

Open to Tournies

President Buell G. Gallagher stated Wednesday that he is "open-minded" on whether he would approve of City College's acceptance of a post-season basketball tournament bid.

Dr. Gallagher noted that there is a Board of Higher Education rule prohibiting the basketball team from playing in a "non-atheletic arena not under primary educational control." This, he added, would prohibit play in Madison Square Garden.

Dr. Gallagher made a distinction, however, between regular season play and post-season tournament play. He said that it was possible that the BHE ruling does not apply to tournament games, and he would study the ruling to determine more closely its implications.

"I am personally opposed to bringing our team into Madison Square Garden or into any other arena which is not under educational control, for season play," Dr. Gallagher pointed out.

He recalled that the BHE ruling came about as a result of the 1951 basketball scandals which hit the College. "It was an effort," he said, "to reduce the commercial stimulation of intercollegiate athletics."

Dr. Gallagher stated that he had no knowledge of the 1951 basketball game this season. "I like the way they play and I like their spirit," he said. He is "very pleased" with the team's performance this season.

Tonight's game with Manhattan College may determine whether or not City will get a bid to the National Collegiate Athletic Association tournament.

Second Shot Due Monday

The second of a series of three anti-polio injections will be administered by the Baruch School's Medical Department this week. A schedule of the Manor during which students are to appear for their shots is available in 697.

A student who has registered for the series of three shots must have failed to take the first injection at the Barn School, go to an outside doctor to show the shot provided that the situation was taken care of. The second injection will be given during the week of Octo-

Hoopmen Tackle Jasper ‘5’ Tonight

In what shapes up as one of the season’s most crucial games, City College faces off against the Manhattan College Jaspers tonight at the Bronx quartet’s gym.

Jasper Coach Kenny Norton plans to start Angelo Lombardo, Jerry Paulson and Bob Josephs at the forwards and Johnny O’Connor and John Powers at the guards.

Norton said of the Jaspers, “They have come a long way since the season began and should give us a tough battle. I saw them playing Fordham and they looked very sharp. The game is very important to us because we are looking for an NIT bid and have to win most of our remaining contests.”

Coach Dave Poianik will probably start Marv Rose and Bob Silver at the forwards, Syd Levy at center and Joe Bennardo and Ralph Scheflan at guard.

The Jaspers will have a height edge but will have a tough time trying to overcome the Jaspers 45% shooting average, so far this season, and overall experience.

Last year’s game ended in a 74-69 win for the Kelly Green. They have won the last six in the series but the Beavers held a 6-4 edge.

Saturday night the Beavers will travel to New Brunswick, New Jersey to meet the Scarlet Knights of Rutgers University. The 45 Club will accompany the team with a record of 9-1 B. The bus leaves the School at 6.

FS Battles

The semi-annual Frosh-Soph Battles, sponsored by the Intra-Mural Board, will take place Thursday in Hansen Hall between 12 and 2.

Varsity Club, Student AA Will Revamp Cheerleaders

In an effort to revamp the Cheerleaders, the Varsity Club and the Student Athletic Association adopted a proposal at a meeting Wednesday evening to increase the number of leaders to fifteen from the present twelve and change the method of selecting cheerleaders.

In the opinion of the Varsity Club and the SAA, the revamped cheerleaders will bring more spirit to the games and attract more fans for the teams.

Selections of the new cheerleaders will be made by the SAA and Varsity Club presidents at the captain and faculty advisory of the cheerleaders.

The meeting for prospective candidates will be Thursday, Feb. 28, Uptown. The actual auditions are scheduled for the following weeks.

Under the system recently abandoned, leaders were selected by the outgoing cheerleaders. This gave rise to a “conspicuous system,” which caused many talented girls to be refused.

When only one cheerleader attended the game — Fordham — dissatisfaction that started early in the season continued to grow. The City fans at the game were incensed at themakeshift cheering squad, while they were left with the lone girl cheerleader who had to go on the floor by herself.
