Parents May Organize Sunday at House Plan

An attempt will be made Sunday at Lamport House to form a Baruch School Parents Association. A steering committee of 15 parents of the Class of ’60, which has had five meetings with parents of the students in the sophomore class, was formed.

The plan was originated last semester due to the enthusiastic interest and support by the Baruch School’s parents’ reception. Twenty-five “enthusiastic” parents were approached to work on the problem. Fifteen of them are still with the project.

Jack Dweck and his orchestra will be at Lamport House to greet the parents. Emanuel Saxe, and Dean Ruth C. Wright will be at Lamport House to greet the parents. Refreshments will be served and entertainment will be supplied by various members of the College community.

The group hopes to enroll parents of the Class of ’61 later this semester after they have been officially welcomed to the College in November. Jacob Ross and Mrs. Miriam Raskin are the parents who have headed the special steering committee. The group has had the assistance of the Department of Student Life and the Dean’s Office in its formative stages.

The Committee hopes to achieve full character development of the steering committee and familiarize parents with the College, assist in obtaining a list of prospective students, and offer scholarship awards.

Uptown NAACP Moves Off Campus Over Lists

The Uptown City College chapter of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People will operate “off-campus” this semester rather than submit a membership list, it was learned last week.

A spokesman for the NAACP Uptown said that “many of our members come from the South and may some day return there in a professional capacity. Membership lists may be detrimental to the safety of our members and their families in later years.”

Compulsory lists have been a controversial subject at the College since they were instituted in 1954. The ruling requires every organization on campus to submit the names of at least 12 members to the Department of Student Life.

Will Continue Operations

The NAACP has no intention of going out of existence, but will remain dormant on campus. Last semester, eight student leaders voluntarily signed membership lists of all organizations unable or unwilling to comply with the list requirement. The NAACP was one of the groups whose list was signed by the eight students.

Membership lists for student organizations at the Baruch School are returnable Thursday at 12:30.

Dr. Charles H. Tuttle, chairman, Professor Arleigh B. Williamson and John J. Morris, was set up by the BHE to hear charges that Professor Austin lied when he testified before the Board’s Committee on Section 903 of the City Charter, the Finkenberg Law, and Related Matters.

The 903 Committee asserted that Dr. Austin “denied ever having been a member of the Communist Party or of any Unit of the Communist Party” and denied that he “ever participated in any meetings of the Communist Party or of any unit of the Communist Party.”

Austin Suspended May 20

The 903 Committee’s charges were signed May 20 by its chairman, Gustave G. Rosenberg, newly-elected BHE chairman. CCC President Buel G. Gallagher was forced to suspend Austin on that date.

President, Dean to Greet Veophyte Class Thursday

The President’s and Dean’s reception, after an absence of the semester, returns to Hansen Hall Thursday at 12.

The affair will permit the members of the Class of ’61 to meet City College President Buel G. Gallagher and Dean, dean of the Baruch class. Members of the Class of ’61 “will be greeted with enthusiasm.”

Last semester, the affair was postponed due to the small enrollment and may some day return there in a professional capacity. Membership lists may be detrimental to the safety of our members and their families in later years.”

Ousted Cleric Asks Funds To Assist Princeton Work

A former Roman Catholic chaplain at Princeton University made a plea for funds Sunday in order to carry on "the work of the Aquinas Foundation which has found a moral degradation at Princeton."

The Reverend Hugh Halton, head of the Princeton Aquinas Foundation, was removed from "any official standing with the university" when he returned from a speaking tour recently.

Reverend Halton criticized Princeton for its "abusive liberalism and lack of any standards of judgment." He charged "atheism" among its faculty.

Dr. John M. Krumm, an Episcopalian minister at Columbia University, accused Reverend Halton Sunday of "irresponsible and unsupportable attacks." He said that Dr. Halton was a man who would destroy the freedom of inquiry and the free expression of ideas and is the person "who constitutes the foundation of any free university."

Reverend Halton came from Bishop George Ahr of the Trenton Diocese. He said that "it is the right of a priest to speak out in defense of the faith of those committed to his care."

The American commerce is in a selected and single country. They work, through a kind of intellectual drain, more or less successful. This is a 24-hour position. It is in the nature of the case that they must continue to power even when the country is so different as they. The commercial must not be able to make a home.

I have been a member of the Nativist Party at the Seabury, and I have been active in that organization. The party is the American and English Nationalist Movement. It aims to exclude all foreign-born, especially those who are under the American flag. The party has never been stopped because of anything I said.

Various officials talked to me about the Voice of America. I was once told that the Voice of America makes capital of my attempts to prevent the American Communists from having a future. I did not know. Do you want me to worship the American Communists?

Boo\-ters Begin Title Defense Against Strong Upstate Team

An internationally-flavored City College soccer squad will meet an equally foreign-flavored Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute team in its opening contest, Friday at Lewishohn Stadium.

With seven foreign born players on its squad, the Engineers will give the Beavers a tough fight as they open their defense of the Metropolitan League title. These players come from as far east as Turkey and as far south as Central America. The Lavender's foreign booters come from all over the globe.

The Techmen, striving to improve last year's 4-3 record, will be paced by Sandy Csobaji, a junior center forward. Csobaji, who will also be playing in the forward wall.

Tending the goal for the upstarts will be Abel Leger, who has been with the New York Americans and with the West End of New York.

Beaver coach Harry Karlin said that the RPI squad was a "hard fighting, well coached and will conditioned" team.

Karlin stated that he was not really in disagreement with the league after last week's scrimmage.

"A new type offense was tried, one which consisted of bombardments from their defense line. Assistance will be senior captain Paul Scanlon, who will feel the loss of two All-American centers and playmakers; one of the latter is Baruchian Danny McErlain.

Danny, who plays the outside left position for the Beavers, scored only one goal last year. Yet, despite this low total in points scored, he made honorable mention on the All-Metropolitan team, indicating his ability as a playmaker and an important cog in the Lavender scheme of things.
