Gallagher ‘Lists’ Proposal Vetted by General Faculty: Decision Expected Thursday

President Buell G. Gallagher was defeated Thursday in his attempt to institute a system of voluntary membership lists at the College. By a 48-36 vote, the General Faculty voted to reject the President’s proposal to abolish compulsory membership lists. The meeting was closed and the balloting was secret.

The rejected plan called for a system whereby every student club would decide independently whether or not to register the name of its members. Under the current system each organization must submit a minimum list of 11 names.

The General Faculty, the College’s highest policy-making body, will continue discussion of the lists Thursday as the final point on its agenda. Since compulsory lists had been approved last November by the General Faculty, this year’s vote is expected that some action will be taken on the issue at Thursday’s meeting.

Dr. Gallagher said that he was “naturally disappointed” by the College’s previous decision and the body on the objectivity and general good temper of the decision. He said that he does not plan to offer any further proposals to the General Faculty.

The surprising aspect of the decision was the relatively large margin by which the President’s proposal was defeated. The General Faculty Book Fund, which upholds the lists rule, had passed by fewer than five votes the last time Dr. Gallagher’s public support for a voluntary system was carried to the voting stage.

Supporters of Dr. Gallagher’s plan were clearly surprised by the extent of their defeat. Assistant professor Mark Brunswick, chairman of the Music Department, and long-time supporter of voluntary lists, said, “We are absolutely..." (Continued on Page 2)

SA to Hold Flower Sale

Sigma Alpha, aided by several other School organizations, will conduct its semi-annual flower sale tomorrow. This semester’s contributions to the flower sale will be used for the acquisition of a stamp book for the School’s field. To aid students who are financially unable to purchase their own textbooks, funds from previous years’ sales in the past were used for purchasing the bulletin board on the ninth floor of the library.

The flowers will be sold at ten cents each.

On Housing Bill: NAACP Leader to Talk Thursday

By Martin Jacobs

Madison S. Jones, special assistant for Housing for the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, will speak Thursday at 12:30 in 501. He will speak on the Sharkey-Brown-Issac anti-discrimination in private housing bill now before New York’s City Council. Jones is speaking at the invitation of the Baruch School chapter of the NAACP.

A petition favoring the principles of the bill was retracted from circulation last week at the Baruch School. A similar petition attracted more than 1200 signatures.

Jones formerly was on the staff of the Federal Housing Administration as a racial relations officer. He has been associated with the President’s Committee on Fair Employment Practices as an examiner.

Gallagher Receives Invitation to ‘CCNY’

President Buell G. Gallagher has accepted an indefinite invitation to visit the Greenwich Village nightclub, College of Complexes, The Campus, an Uptown newspaper, reported Friday.

The invitation was extended to the President by Lincoln Adair, publicity director for the nightclub, so that Dr. Gallagher could investigate its use of the initials “CCNY.”

The nightclub became known to College officials as a result of feature stories in the Daily News and THE TICKER last month.

In addition to Dr. Gallagher’s disapproval of the use of the initials “CCNY,” the Alumni Association called for an investigation of what it termed an “advertising gimmick.” Arthur Kain, legal counsel to the Board of Higher Education, is in process of studying means to prevent the club from using the name. "We consider ourselves an educational institution," he said.

Blood

Applications for the School’s semi-annual Blood Bank Drive, to be held Wednesday, November 27 in the ninth floor lounges, can be obtained in 921. The Drive is sponsored by Student Council and Alpha Phi Omega fraternity.

All students over 18 are eligible to participate. Those under 21 must receive written permission from their parents. Free hamburgers and milkshakes will be given to the donors.

The men’s and women’s organization with the highest percentage of donors will receive a keg of beer and corsages, respectively.

Shameful Conduct

We are shocked that the General Faculty has chosen not to accept President Buell G. Gallagher's recommendation that would have allowed the continued suspension of lists. This decision was made by the General Faculty in the absence of the student body, a group that has repeatedly been denied a voice in the matter. We are appalled that the General Faculty has chosen to continue to remain there until a satisfactory decision is reached.

We understand the position of those few who felt that Dr. Gallagher's recommendation would be passed, without too much influence of the student body. However, we cannot excuse any department representatives who disregard student opinion (a referendum opposing lists was authorized and endorsed by the student body) and then reject Dr. Gallagher's proposal.

On the surface it would appear that the conservative members of the General Faculty are attempting to prevent democratic decision-making. Although we cannot excuse any department representatives who disregard student opinion, we do understand the position of those few who felt that Dr. Gallagher's recommendation would be passed, without too much influence of the student body.

We are shocked that the General Faculty has chosen to continue to remain there until a satisfactory decision is reached. We believe that the student body should have a voice in the decision-making process.

Letters To The Editor

To the Editor of THE TICKER:

I am writing in response to the article "Guys and Dolls" by Morton J. Harwit, published in the December issue of THE TICKER. I believe that the article is biased and inaccurate.

The article claims that the play "Guys and Dolls" is a "guys against girls" type of play. However, this is not the case. The play actually features both men and women in important roles. The article also states that the play is "pretentious and overwrought." I disagree with this assessment.

I believe that "Guys and Dolls" is a well-written and well-performed play. The characters are well-developed, and the plot is engaging. I encourage everyone to attend and form their own opinions.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

The Beaver hooters will be playing for the Metropolitan College chapter of the American Association of University Athletics in December. The concert will take place in the auditorium of the College Library. Five hooters will perform, and the audience will be entertained by the performances of the hooters.

The American Society will hold its annual dance on Friday evening in the auditorium of the College Library. The club will present a program of music and dance, as well as a variety show consisting of sketches, songs, and dances.

The American Federation for the Advancement of Colored People will sponsor a lecture series. The first lecture will be held on Thursday at 12:15 in 1308. The lecture will be given by Mrs. P. C. Li, assistant professor of English at City College. The lecture will cover the history and development of the American Federation for the Advancement of Colored People.

The Student Council will hold a dance and a class hayride on Friday evening in the auditorium of the College Library. The dance will feature music by the College Band, and the hayride will be led by the College Cheerleaders. The dance will be open to all students and their guests.

In Tribute

We pause now to pay tribute to the City College soccer team, which has been eliminated from the "collage" as an anthromorphic football team. The Beaver leaders will be playing for the Metropolitan Intercollegiate Athletic Association, which includes all the Ivy League and other prominent athletic conferences.

Karlinmen to Play Mariners for Title

Seeking its fifth consecutive Metropolitan Intercollegiate Soccer League title, the City College booters will face the New York Maritime Academy Saturday at Queens College, a neutral site. The game will begin at 1.

The game was originally scheduled for Saturday, but was postponed when Pratt Institute, which thought it would win the title, was forced to play the Fort Schuyler team. The Mariners won, 2-1, to take the division crown and gained the right to face the Beavers.

Although the Beavers defeated Queens College, 4-0, as Heinz Minnepol tied the one-season scoring record of 10 goals as he drove three goals through the uprights. Novak Masanovich set the 10-goal record last year.

Billy Sund scored the other goal in the game. Marco Wachter assisted in two of the tallies. Goalie Wally Waite was called on but five times to make saves.

After the first ten minutes of the game, the Beavers relaxed and did not play aggressively as they usually do. However, at no time did the Knights really threaten.

The game produced an oddity—Johnny Paranos missed his first penalty shot in two years of varsity competition.

The contest marked the last regularly scheduled game for three Beavers: Baruchian Danny McElraine, Fred Bonnet, and former All-Met selection Mantfred Munter. The remainder of the team will be back to plague Met League opponents next year.

Stein Fund

Stein Fund buttons, priced at 25 cents, are on sale at the ninth floor bookroom and are available from 45 Club members on the ninth floor.

The fund, created in 1946, is used to provide financial assistance to City College athletes who incur injuries competing for the College. It is presently maintained through the receipts of the Stein Fund basketball game and button sales.

Harriers Finish Second
To LeMoyne in CTC

For the second consecutive year, the City College harriers finished second to LeMoyne College in the College Track Conference championships. The Beavers were defeated, 51-85, Saturday at Van Cortlandt Park.

The top City finisher was Randy Crossfield, who broke the tape in 28:00, good only for eighth place. Ralph Taylor finished tenth while Bob Cleary ran his poorest race of the season, covering the five-mile course in 29:42.

Big Disappointment

The big disappointment to coach Barry deGirolo was the showing of Cleary, Crossfield, and Wally Waite. The three Beavers will be back to plague Met League opponents next year.
