Siegell, Running Unopposed, Wins Senior Class Election

Andy Siegel was elected president of next semester's senior class in yesterday's student-wide election. He received 126 "yes" votes and 21 "no" votes.

The unopposed candidate for vice president, Joe Sodickoff, was elected with 116 "yes" votes and 15 "no" votes.

Siegell will be given to public administration majors and those who have shown interest in the field.

Letters of recommendation from professors in two different departments and the applicant's scholarship record must be submitted.
Letters to the Editor

To the Editor of THE TICKER: Ask you recall what would be your classification of a person who had a change of heart after he had committed a crime? You might probably call him a "criminal" or a "sinner." But you would probably not call him "boisterous." I have been thinking about the recent events that have occurred in the City University of New York, and have come to the conclusion that there is a need for a change of heart among those who call themselves "boisterous."

We are dealing here with two distinct concepts: "boisterous" and "criminal." The former is a term used to describe behavior that is loud and noisy, while the latter is used to describe behavior that is illegal and harmful. In recent events, there has been a mix of both concepts, where "boisterous" conduct has been equated with "criminal" behavior.

We must be careful not to equate the two concepts. "Boisterous" conduct can be enjoyed at certain events, such as football games or rock concerts, where it is expected and appreciated. However, "criminal" behavior is illegal and harmful to society, and must be condemned.

We must be careful not to label those who engage in "boisterous" conduct as "criminals." This will only serve to stigmatize them and prevent them from changing their behavior.

Sincerely yours,

To the Editor of THE TICKER: In the past few weeks a great deal of attention has been focused on the recent events in the City University of New York. The police have been called in to control the situation, and there have been reports of students being arrested. This has caused a great deal of concern among students and parents.

We believe that the police have overreacted to the situation. The protesters are simply exercising their right to free speech, which is protected by the First Amendment.

We must be careful not to stigmatize those who engage in "boisterous" conduct. This will only serve to prevent them from changing their behavior.

Sincerely yours,

[Signature]

Cagers Upset by Panthers; Defeat is First of Campaign

By Harvey Pensky

City College's basketball team was dropped from the ranks of the undefeated last night by losing a hard-fought Tri-State League contest to Adelphi, 64-59, in the winers' Woodruff Hall.

The victory was the Panthers' first after five successive setbacks. City is 1-1 overall with a 1-1 loop record.

The Panthers' demise was due mainly to the inability of the team to hit their shots. C.C.N.Y. made slightly below 30 percent, far less than the shooting in the previous two wins. Barometer Mike Winston led the Lavender attack with twenty-two points, scoring mostly on jump shots and driving layups. Howie Wilkov, who tallied eleven points, was the only other in double figures.

The game was close throughout.

The lead changed hands many times. Adelphi took a 55-51 lead with 3:30 remaining in the second half and was never headed.

With only a minute gone in the first period, the Garden City team took a 12-7 lead. However, Winston gobbled in a comeback which enabled the Beavers to lead momentarily 18-16. Then a three-point play by Howie Gulker put the Panthers on top. They held a 34-29 half-time margin.

Tor Nilsen, City's crack forward, mates popped inconsistently from scored only seven points. He averaged twenty-eight points in the first two games. Nilsen did not re-jump from the outside.

Scheinblum started with Jerry Greenberg (eight). Don Sidat (two) and Ray Camisa (one).
