Dr. Gustave G. Rosenberg
Lupiano declared that the Court, in the absence of objectives presented by the court to air this matter before a jury.

In ruling that this case was properly one for the Court to decide, Judge Lupiano declared, "The courts must be the accommodative philosophy so widely held of respect to so-called sensitive or 'controversial questions.'"

Council to Study Possibility of Reduced-Fare Tickets

Student Council, at its Friday night meeting, passed a motion by Fred Schwartz '65, who presented the information that steps to be taken to provide City University students with reduced-rate transportation cards.

The motion mandated the Council President to Brody, '64, to discuss the possibility of getting the reduced-rate tickets with the executives of other institutions. The motion would be possible the night when the C.U.N.Y. Executive Council will meet at the Baruch School.

After presenting the motion, Schwartz stated that the only reaction he got was "negative". The motion passed by acclamation a motion by Joe Traum '64 to mandate Brody and the corresponding secretary, Bill Roskin, '64, to make sure the Council agenda.

Fred Schwartz was presented by Kathy Fitzpatrick '65. The motion stated that any person may be a member of the executive board of I.F.C. or C.H.P. and at the same time be chairman of A.C.B."

Proponents of the motion claimed the possible benefits of either of the two organizations would be moral. Opponents felt that if the motion was passed, it would prove the removal of the moral and of proper conduct of the School. The motion was defeated unanimously.

Fred Schwartz called a meeting of the Student Council for Thursday with school scheduled Wednesday.

Ten Achieve "Who's Who".

Ten June '62 graduates have been chosen to represent the Baruch School in the current edition of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." The students chosen to represent the School are Robert Brooks, Barry Epstein, Marvin Glick, Stuart Gollin, Allen Silverman, Neil Palombi, William Roskin, Joyce Siegel, and Alan Silverman have also been named.

Students from all over the nation are chosen for this "Who's Who" on the basis of extra-curricular activities and scholastic records.

Dr. Gustave G. Rosenberg, president of City College, at his press conference Wednesday.

The students chosen to represent the Baruch School in the current edition of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." The students chosen to represent the School are Robert Brooks, Barry Epstein, Marvin Glick, Stuart Gollin, Allen Silverman, Neil Palombi, William Roskin, Joyce Siegel, and Alan Silverman have also been named.

Students from all over the nation are chosen for this "Who's Who" on the basis of extra-curricular activities and scholastic records.

The motion mandated Council President Brody, '64, to discuss the possibility of getting the reduced-rate tickets with the executives of other institutions. The motion would be possible the night when the C.U.N.Y. Executive Council will meet at the Baruch School.

After presenting the motion, Schwartz stated that the only reaction he got was "negative". The motion passed by acclamation a motion by Joe Traum '64 to mandate Brody and the corresponding secretary, Bill Roskin, '64, to make sure the Council agenda.

Fred Schwartz was presented by Kathy Fitzpatrick '65. The motion stated that any person may be a member of the executive board of I.F.C. or C.H.P. and at the same time be chairman of A.C.B."

Proponents of the motion claimed the possible benefits of either of the two organizations would be moral. Opponents felt that if the motion was passed, it would prove the removal of the moral and of proper conduct of the School. The motion was defeated unanimously.

Fred Schwartz called a meeting of the Student Council for Thursday with school scheduled Wednesday.

Ten Achieve "Who's Who".

Ten June '62 graduates have been chosen to represent the Baruch School in the current edition of "Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities." The students chosen to represent the School are Robert Brooks, Barry Epstein, Marvin Glick, Stuart Gollin, Allen Silverman, Neil Palombi, William Roskin, Joyce Siegel, and Alan Silverman have also been named.

Students from all over the nation are chosen for this "Who's Who" on the basis of extra-curricular activities and scholastic records.
BA Department Chairman Sees Need of Specialization

By Patricia Greg

The need for more highly specialized courses in the field of business was emphasized by Professor Arthur Altschul, chairman of the B.A. Department. In a series of interviews, Professor Altschul pointed out that the increasing demand for specialized knowledge in the business field makes it necessary to offer more specialized courses in the B.A. program.

In the past, the B.A. program has been criticized for offering too many general courses, and not enough specialized courses. Professor Altschul believes that this criticism is valid, and that the B.A. program should be changed to offer more specialized courses.

The B.A. program currently offers a wide variety of courses, but Professor Altschul believes that more specialized courses are needed. He argues that students should be able to choose from a variety of specialized courses, so that they can pursue their own interests and career goals.

Professor Altschul also stressed the importance of having a more specialized curriculum for the B.A. program. He said that the current general curriculum is not as effective as a specialized curriculum, because it is more difficult to learn specialized knowledge in a general curriculum.

In conclusion, Professor Altschul believes that the B.A. program should be changed to offer more specialized courses. He believes that this change will be beneficial for students, and will help to increase the quality of the B.A. program.

(Continued on Page 6)

The next student to speak, who is interested in the field of Business Administration, is...
Election Endorsements

Student Council elections will be held Wednesday December 12. As with every election, your vote is only as good as the candidates running. THE TICKER editorial board, whose majority vote gains endorsement for the candidates, is issuing the following endorsements: *

For reasons of propriety, therefore, we shall not support Don Glickman for this position. Glickman has been a student at the City College for three years, he has given Council in the past, we support Pon Glickman for the position of treasurer. He has established a library with books and pamphlets which are available to other Council and student body members. With regard to fairly and objectively supporting our candidates, we feel it would be the most honest approach to acknowledge that we cannot be completely objective.

The race for treasurer, we believe, presents the sharpest contrast of the candidates. Each contestant has come to the election with a different and separate experience. But each contestant, and such has proven to be a valuable asset on that organization. Therefore, we endorse no candidate for the office of S.C. president.

The care for treasurer, we believe, presents the sharpest contrast of the candidates. THE TICKER gives its support to Pon Glickman because we believe that he has the experience and maturity-wise, between an upper junior or a "senior." A qualified individual should be a student who has demonstrated the responsible attitude required to and responsibilities of the office of treasurer, thus enabling N.S.A. to publicize and to promote the welfare of the students.

For the two other elections for Council's executive board are required. Bring your money to Student Center.

We endorse the following candidates for the board, whose majority vote gains endorsement for the candidates:

1. Susan Levine, Diane Bailey, Helen Bernstein, Helen Cohen, Alice Cohen, and Samuel Wolff,
2. Joel Kaufman, Vic Warshaw, Gene Goldwasser, Pot Namanworth, Lloyd Cohn, Michael Borzomati, and Pete Mortensen,
3. Nick De Martrno, Van WaeS, staff, and Don Glickman,
4. Harry Shephor, Robert Stone, Robert Friedman, George Mark, and Michael Bevilacqua.

The second Student-Faculty tea will be held in the Student Center this week. The display consists of twelve works in the aesthetic, psychological, technical, and conception of objects, executing the performance. It was easy to hate him (in his characterization) for the second time. He has an excellent theme and subject, but I thought it was the most obvious thing to do with it.

The Cast

* The Cast is the last chance to experience the first show, which is a definite one dollar admission. A deposit of one dollar must be paid to the Student Center,

Robert Stone, director, has two students to be shown, to the useful art- of advertising. The Cast is the last chance to experience the first show, which is a definite one dollar admission. A deposit of one dollar must be paid to the Student Center.

Election Endorsements

Student Council elections will be held Wednesday December 12. As with every election, your vote is only as good as the candidates running. THE TICKER editorial board, whose majority vote gains endorsement for the candidates, is issuing the following endorsements: *

For reasons of propriety, therefore, we shall not support Don Glickman for this position. Glickman has been a student at the City College for three years, he has given Council in the past, we support Pon Glickman for the position of treasurer. He has established a library with books and pamphlets which are available to other Council and student body members. With regard to fairly and objectively supporting our candidates, we feel it would be the most honest approach to acknowledge that we cannot be completely objective.

The race for treasurer, we believe, presents the sharpest contrast of the candidates. Each contestant has come to the election with a different and separate experience. But each contestant, and such has proven to be a valuable asset on that organization. Therefore, we endorse no candidate for the office of S.C. president.

The care for treasurer, we believe, presents the sharpest contrast of the candidates. THE TICKER gives its support to Pon Glickman because we believe that he has the experience and maturity-wise, between an upper junior or a "senior." A qualified individual should be a student who has demonstrated the responsible attitude required to and responsibilities of the office of treasurer, thus enabling N.S.A. to publicize and to promote the welfare of the students.

For the two other elections for Council's executive board are required. Bring your money to Student Center.

We endorse the following candidates for the board, whose majority vote gains endorsement for the candidates:

1. Susan Levine, Diane Bailey, Helen Bernstein, Helen Cohen, Alice Cohen, and Samuel Wolff,т
2. Joel Kaufman, Vic Warshaw, Gene Goldwasser, Pot Namanworth, Lloyd Cohn, Michael Borzomati, and Pete Mortensen,
3. Nick De Martrno, Van WaeS, staff, and Don Glickman,
4. Harry Shephor, Robert Stone, Robert Friedman, George Mark, and Michael Bevilacqua.

The second Student-Faculty tea will be held in the Student Center this week. The display consists of twelve works in the aesthetic, psychological, technical, and conception of objects, executing the performance. It was easy to hate him (in his characterization) for the second time. He has an excellent theme and subject, but I thought it was the most obvious thing to do with it.

The Cast is the last chance to experience the first show, which is a definite one dollar admission. A deposit of one dollar must be paid to the Student Center.

Election Endorsements

Student Council elections will be held Wednesday December 12. As with every election, your vote is only as good as the candidates running. THE TICKER editorial board, whose majority vote gains endorsement for the candidates, is issuing the following endorsements: *

For reasons of propriety, therefore, we shall not support Don Glickman for this position. Glickman has been a student at the City College for three years, he has given Council in the past, we support Pon Glickman for the position of treasurer. He has established a library with books and pamphlets which are available to other Council and student body members. With regard to fairly and objectively supporting our candidates, we feel it would be the most honest approach to acknowledge that we cannot be completely objective.

The race for treasurer, we believe, presents the sharpest contrast of the candidates. Each contestant has come to the election with a different and separate experience. But each contestant, and such has proven to be a valuable asset on that organization. Therefore, we endorse no candidate for the office of S.C. president.

The care for treasurer, we believe, presents the sharpest contrast of the candidates. THE TICKER gives its support to Pon Glickman because we believe that he has the experience and maturity-wise, between an upper junior or a "senior." A qualified individual should be a student who has demonstrated the responsible attitude required to and responsibilities of the office of treasurer, thus enabling N.S.A. to publicize and to promote the welfare of the students.

For the two other elections for Council's executive board are required. Bring your money to Student Center.

We endorse the following candidates for the board, whose majority vote gains endorsement for the candidates:

1. Susan Levine, Diane Bailey, Helen Bernstein, Helen Cohen, Alice Cohen, and Samuel Wolff,
2. Joel Kaufman, Vic Warshaw, Gene Goldwasser, Pot Namanworth, Lloyd Cohn, Michael Borzomati, and Pete Mortensen,
3. Nick De Martrno, Van WaeS, staff, and Don Glickman,
4. Harry Shephor, Robert Stone, Robert Friedman, George Mark, and Michael Bevilacqua.

The second Student-Faculty tea will be held in the Student Center this week. The display consists of twelve works in the aesthetic, psychological, technical, and conception of objects, executing the performance. It was easy to hate him (in his characterization) for the second time. He has an excellent theme and subject, but I thought it was the most obvious thing to do with it.

The Cast is the last chance to experience the first show, which is a definite one dollar admission. A deposit of one dollar must be paid to the Student Center.

Election Endorsements

Student Council elections will be held Wednesday December 12. As with every election, your vote is only as good as the candidates running. THE TICKER editorial board, whose majority vote gains endorsement for the candidates, is issuing the following endorsements: *

For reasons of propriety, therefore, we shall not support Don Glickman for this position. Glickman has been a student at the City College for three years, he has given Council in the past, we support Pon Glickman for the position of treasurer. He has established a library with books and pamphlets which are available to other Council and student body members. With regard to fairly and objectively supporting our candidates, we feel it would be the most honest approach to acknowledge that we cannot be completely objective.

The race for treasurer, we believe, presents the sharpest contrast of the candidates. Each contestant has come to the election with a different and separate experience. But each contestant, and such has proven to be a valuable asset on that organization. Therefore, we endorse no candidate for the office of S.C. president.

The care for treasurer, we believe, presents the sharpest contrast of the candidates. THE TICKER gives its support to Pon Glickman because we believe that he has the experience and maturity-wise, between an upper junior or a "senior." A qualified individual should be a student who has demonstrated the responsible attitude required to and responsibilities of the office of treasurer, thus enabling N.S.A. to publicize and to promote the welfare of the students.

For the two other elections for Council's executive board are required. Bring your money to Student Center.

We endorse the following candidates for the board, whose majority vote gains endorsement for the candidates:

1. Susan Levine, Diane Bailey, Helen Bernstein, Helen Cohen, Alice Cohen, and Samuel Wolff,т
2. Joel Kaufman, Vic Warshaw, Gene Goldwasser, Pot Namanworth, Lloyd Cohn, Michael Borzomati, and Pete Mortensen,
3. Nick De Martrno, Van WaeS, staff, and Don Glickman,
4. Harry Shephor, Robert Stone, Robert Friedman, George Mark, and Michael Bevilacqua.

The second Student-Faculty tea will be held in the Student Center this week. The display consists of twelve works in the aesthetic, psychological, technical, and conception of objects, executing the performance. It was easy to hate him (in his characterization) for the second time. He has an excellent theme and subject, but I thought it was the most obvious thing to do with it.

The Cast is the last chance to experience the first show, which is a definite one dollar admission. A deposit of one dollar must be paid to the Student Center.
Reservations Still Available For Winter Session Weekend

Reservations for the Concord winter session weekend must be made by the students themselves or by the President of the Student Council, as the weekend will be open to all students. The weekend is being organized by the Student Council in collaboration with the Concord Student Center and the Concord Student Council. The weekend is open to all students and will feature a variety of activities, including concerts, lectures, and workshops. The Student Council is encouraging students to make reservations early to ensure a spot on the weekend.

Honors

Cuts

(Continued from Page 3)

The recent decision of Student Council to approve unlimited cuts for seniors and juniors in a majority of courses has sparked a debate among students and faculty members. The support for unlimited cuts has been a recurring theme in recent years, and this year's decision has once again brought the issue to the forefront. Student Council President, in an interview, said that the decision was based on the need to maintain the quality of education and to ensure that students receive a well-rounded education. He added that the decision was made after careful consideration and consultation with faculty members.

Blood

(Continued from Page 1)

The Interfraternity Council announced that it has cancelled its spring blood drive due to unforeseen circumstances. The council had been planning the event for several weeks, and had organized a team of volunteers to assist with the drive. However, due to a change in plans, the event will not proceed. The council expressed disappointment at the cancellation and thanked all those who had volunteered and contributed to the event. The council also expressed its gratitude to the students who had supported the drive and its importance.

Theatron Review

(Continued from Page 5)

The recent production of 'Theatron' has been met with mixed reviews. While some critics praised the performances and the direction, others found the production to be lacking in certain areas. The director, in an interview, said that the production was a learning experience for the students involved, and that the feedback would be used to improve future productions. The production included a variety of performances, including musical numbers, dance, and acting. The students were encouraged to support the production and to attend the show.

Terms and Conditions

(Continued from Page 1)

The Interfraternity Council announced that it has cancelled its spring blood drive due to unforeseen circumstances. The council had been planning the event for several weeks, and had organized a team of volunteers to assist with the drive. However, due to a change in plans, the event will not proceed. The council expressed disappointment at the cancellation and thanked all those who had volunteered and contributed to the event. The council also expressed its gratitude to the students who had supported the drive and its importance.

Election Results

The election results for the Student Council were announced, and the winners were congratulated. The new council members were encouraged to work together to represent the interests of the students and to address the issues that are important to them. The election was a close contest, with the candidates运行了 rigorous campaigns. The winners were thanked for their hard work and dedication.

Terms and Conditions

(Continued from Page 1)

The Interfraternity Council announced that it has cancelled its spring blood drive due to unforeseen circumstances. The council had been planning the event for several weeks, and had organized a team of volunteers to assist with the drive. However, due to a change in plans, the event will not proceed. The council expressed disappointment at the cancellation and thanked all those who had volunteered and contributed to the event. The council also expressed its gratitude to the students who had supported the drive and its importance.
Upsala Whips Cagers, 61-49, As City Turns Cold in Opener

By Jeff Pala

If City College's cagers had even a lukewarm shooting night Saturday they would not have dropped their opener to Upsala, 61-49, in Wingate Hall. C.C.N.Y. hit on nineteen of sixty-two field goal attempts and nine of twenty free throws. The win was the Vikings' first over City in six tries.

Coach Dave Polansky was disappointed with the team's play but expects the shooting to improve.

The game was played with both teams guilty of numerous walking and palming violations. Don Sidat was the only double figure scorer in the line-up, as Polansky used five players who were not with the team last year in an effort to find the winning combination. Despite the newcomers, the team worked the ball fairly well but were unable to cash in on numerous scoring opportunities. The rebounding was excellent at times, but City was usually held to one shot at a time.

The lead changed hands several times during the first half. Jumping shooting Gene Ehkolm scored six quick points to move Upsala in from 8-5 at the five minute mark, but the Visitors were unable to hold a 27-21 half-time advantage.

Pete Johnson, the high scorer, put up eleven points, but only three of these were scored within the last two minutes. His shooting combined with a City scoreless stretch of four minutes enabled the Vikings from East Orange, N.J. to move ahead to stay. With twelve minutes remaining, City closed the margin to 40-34, but never got closer.

Columbia Clobbers Matmen; Taylor Registers City's Win

By Marc Naesen

Columbia's wrestling team, a contender for the Ivy League title, clobbered the Beavers, 29-3, Saturday on the home mat.

City's only victory was registered by Harvey Taylor in the 137-lb. bout. At 147, Mark Miller held his opponent even until the final round, but then lost.

City was hampered by injuries to Mal Schwartz and Mark Chasen, who did not participate.

Columbia also won the freshman contest, 22-12. For the Beavers, Al Proctor won the 167-lb. battle and Ron Taylor tied in the 125-lb.

Both the varsity and freshman teams travel to New Jersey Saturday to meet Montclair State. The Beavers usually have more luck with Montclair than Columbia.

C.C.N.Y. has two other matches on the road during December. The team visits Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute December 15 and Yeshiva December 20.

City returns home January 6 to host Temple of Philadelphia. Other teams on the schedule include Drexel, Fairleigh Dickinson, Kings Point, Hunter and New York University.

Mooses Trip Hunt '64 For IMB Hoop Crown

The Mooses used good outside shooting to retain their Ivy League title by defeating a taller Hunt team, 33-49, Thursday in Hansen Hall.

Mike Cameron, who led the winners in scoring with eighteen points, was awarded the tournament's "Most Valuable Player" prize.

It was a hard-fought game, with the lead changing hands many times. The Mooses moved in front to stay late in the final period on two field goals by Arnie Muller.

Jim Highfield's nine points, Hal Eckstein's team floor general, added six points, although he had to leave the game at one point because of an injury.

Other high scorers for the winners were Mike Druck (right) and Steve Simms (left). Bob Johnson added a free throw.

In the first period which ended in a 16-10 deadlock, the lead changed hands eight times.

Hunt gained a four point margin midway in the second period fell behind 27-25 at intermission. The Mooses added one more to their lead when the third quarter ended, 39-36.

Hunt, the top House Place was paced by Bob Diem who scored eighteen points. Bob Polansky and Gary Olsen followed him in the scoring column. Gary Baron and Paul Murphy had several timely baskets.

This contest was similar to the 1963 title game, which the Mooses whipped Sigma Alpha Mu, 46-42.

The Mooses were also under an eight inch height advantage.

Eckstein was hurt in both of his thighs. In the third quarter of last season, he injured himselfこうsizing inside the paint. He didn't want to try another basket, but still was able to fourteen points.

Lions Hold Height Advantage In Contest with CCNY Five

For IMB Hoop Crown

The Columbia Lions will have a height advantage right when they meet the Beaver hoosiers in the IYI Leagu.e.

The Lions also had an edge in last season's meet but lost 83-60.

Vying for the center position are 6-6 Fred Grospin and Frank Pickard. The sixth man is 6-4 Art Klink, 6-7 Jim Blatt and 6-7 Paul Murphy. Coach Rohan has several talented forwards in the 6-2 to 6-5 range but for the forward spots. Rohan, who scored 11 points against C.C.N.Y. last year, had a good chance to save his team.

The backcourt is fast, but inexperienced. Last season's duo, Erdheim and Art Wolanski, no longer with the team.

C.C.N.Y. has several experienced. Last season's duo, Erdheim and Art Wolanski, no longer with the team.

Columbia has won nine. The Lions' gym can be located at 1300 Broadway.

Columbia's wrestling team, a contender for the Ivy League title, clobbered the Beavers, 29-3, Saturday on the home mat.

City's only victory was registered by Harvey Taylor in the 137-lb. bout. At 147, Mark Miller held his opponent even until the final round, but then lost.

City was hampered by injuries to Mal Schwartz and Mark Chasen, who did not participate.

Columbia also won the freshman contest, 22-12. For the Beavers, Al Proctor won the 167-lb. battle and Ron Taylor tied in the 125-lb.

Both the varsity and freshman teams travel to New Jersey Saturday to meet Montclair State. The Beavers usually have more luck with Montclair than Columbia.

C.C.N.Y. has two other matches on the road during December. The team visits Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute December 15 and Yeshiva December 20.

City returns home January 6 to host Temple of Philadelphia. Other teams on the schedule include Drexel, Fairleigh Dickinson, Kings Point, Hunter and New York University.

Columbia Clobbers Matmen; Taylor Registers City's Win

By Marc Naesen

Columbia's wrestling team, a contender for the Ivy League title, clobbered the Beavers, 29-3, Saturday on the home mat.

City's only victory was registered by Harvey Taylor in the 137-lb. bout. At 147, Mark Miller held his opponent even until the final round, but then lost.

City was hampered by injuries to Mal Schwartz and Mark Chasen, who did not participate.

Columbia also won the freshman contest, 22-12. For the Beavers, Al Proctor won the 167-lb. battle and Ron Taylor tied in the 125-lb.

Both the varsity and freshman teams travel to New Jersey Saturday to meet Montclair State. The Beavers usually have more luck with Montclair than Columbia.

C.C.N.Y. has two other matches on the road during December. The team visits Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute December 15 and Yeshiva December 20.

City returns home January 6 to host Temple of Philadelphia. Other teams on the schedule include Drexel, Fairleigh Dickinson, Kings Point, Hunter and New York University.

Columbia Clobbers Matmen; Taylor Registers City's Win

By Marc Naesen

Columbia's wrestling team, a contender for the Ivy League title, clobbered the Beavers, 29-3, Saturday on the home mat.

City's only victory was registered by Harvey Taylor in the 137-lb. bout. At 147, Mark Miller held his opponent even until the final round, but then lost.

City was hampered by injuries to Mal Schwartz and Mark Chasen, who did not participate.

Columbia also won the freshman contest, 22-12. For the Beavers, Al Proctor won the 167-lb. battle and Ron Taylor tied in the 125-lb.

Both the varsity and freshman teams travel to New Jersey Saturday to meet Montclair State. The Beavers usually have more luck with Montclair than Columbia.

C.C.N.Y. has two other matches on the road during December. The team visits Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute December 15 and Yeshiva December 20.

City returns home January 6 to host Temple of Philadelphia. Other teams on the schedule include Drexel, Fairleigh Dickinson, Kings Point, Hunter and New York University.