"My original statement was in- tended to indicate that my opinion is dis- qualified by the change of meeting night."

The good student knows this. The poor one may not. If the latter is not adequately interested in his courses and would withdraw today," he concluded.

We believe this is an impossible situation. It is only natural that there are three operators at the School Switchboard. Such inefficiency is inexcusable.

Elections

The semi-annual elections have come, but not quite gone. The Student Council has decided to conduct balloting in accordance with the laws which govern other organizations.

First, there were many contesting elections. There are three ballot boxes in the Student Center, one for each of the three positions. A ballot is given to every student who is registered.

Second, the election was conducted by the Student Council itself for attracting as many students as possible.
