Student Council Sets Legislative Fight; Faculty Foresees Free Tuition Struggle

Opinions Offered

Ronnie Ward and Ira Yellin

In the wake of Governor Rockefeller's request for tuition at the State University, he is doubtful whether the state will be able to pay the bills for fees, books, and his master's and Ph.D. degrees over 40,000 students, particularly the students who are interested in the state action will be needed for fees, books, and the master's and Ph.D. degrees.

President Eberhardt declared that if tuition charged, it would be hard for us to think in other terms, particularly in the student body and faculty, and hard for us to think in other terms.

Dean Eberhardt declared that a massive public opinion to change the city's capacity to maintain free tuition is instilled in the student body and faculty, the professor avowed that it is hard for us to think in other terms. He concluded by stating that he expects that it (tuition) is inevitable.

The chairman of the Accountancy Department, Dr. Nathan Seitelman, came out vigorously against possible tuition charges. He declared that a massive public opinion to change the city's capacity to maintain free tuition is instilled in the student body and faculty, the professor avowed that it is hard for us to think in other terms. He concluded by stating that he expects that it (tuition) is inevitable.

Dean Emanuel Saxe, in an interview with THE TICKER, discussed faculty disposition of the mandatory free tuition clause. He stated that the City's tradition of free tuition will have been maintained for 116 years.

"Student Council is going to attempt to contact each local Parent-Teacher's Association," declared Ronald Novita, chairman of the Free Tuition Committee. "In addition, we plan to go to the assemblies of the four high schools in our district and have them do the fighting, we will take letters with us and ask them to have their parents write to the governor and/or the legislature protesting the revocation of the free tuition mandate at the City University."

Dr. Gustave G. Rosenberg, chairman of the Board of Higher Education, emphasized in a press release that "the Board of Higher Education stands solidly for the principle of free tuition for undergraduate baccalaureate matriculants in the senior colleges of the City University."

"In a short time, the City's tradition of free tuition will have been maintained for 116 years," Dr. Rosenberg continued. "State law was changed in 1941 to give the board permission to charge or not charge tuition, thus taking away the mandate. We will make every effort to present this position of the legislature to regain the mandate."

At Uptown City College, a student body vote to be held by Dr. Rosenberg was scheduled for March 4, to accelerate their campaign to maintain free tuition.

Dean Charles J. Eberhardt announced Friday he will be on terminal leave from the College, effective in June. Dean Eberhardt has no immediate plans for his retirement years. It is the very uncertainty that I find exciting. The freedom to pursue my own inclinations was an invaluable asset," the dean stated.

Unlimited Absence Proposal Scored

Student Council's motion which proposes that seniors and juniors be allowed unlimited absences in all classes with a few exceptions was called "unnecessary" by Dean Emanuel Saxe.

Furthermore, he stated that there is a regulation of the Commissioner of Education of the New York State Education Department which requires that we form a certain number of hours per credit a semester. Under the proposed system of unlimited absences, this regulation would be violated.

Dean Eberhardt has no immediate plans for his retirement years. It is the very uncertainty that I find exciting. The freedom to pursue my own inclinations was an invaluable asset," the dean stated.

Dear Editor of THE TICKER:

I have found that the students of the University of Iowa do not know the obligations that the state has against them. The state has promised that the state will provide a cost of $400 increase in tuition. The state has promised that the state will provide a cost of $400 increase in tuition.

Free Tuition How?

Taking a stand in favor of free tuition is a matter of principle. Free tuition will be a boon to the family. But it will not be a panacea. The state will be burdened with the cost of free tuition. The state will be burdened with the cost of free tuition.

Cagers Face Mighty Mites
By Joe Rosenberg

On paper, Yeshiva University's cagers look like a pushover for Coach Sam Frankel's team. But the Mites are not so sure.

Tuesday night, Frankel's squad fell to Fordham in a 78-62 loss. The Rams outscored the Mites 32-12 in the first half, and the Stags hit on 14 of 20 free throws. The Mites hit only 8 of 26 free throws.

James was one of the few players who continued to fight for his team. But the Stags hit their free throws to win the game.

Coach Frankel said that the Stags' lack of height, the Mites' strong defense and a good ball handling club were the main reasons for the loss.

The Mites will be in the league with 1-1-2 this week. They have two games scheduled against City's four out of nine. The Stags will be in the Oak Lounge at 8:30 Saturday in a Tri-City's cager.

TRELL TALLIES THIRTY: Ken Trell (34) takes a jump shot during the game. He scored thirty points.

Tuesday night, Trell, a sophomore, scored thirty points. He hit on five of seven field goal attempts. Other Beaver scorers were Dave Saks (nine), four free shots; and 6-1 sophomore Steve Gralla will probably start.

GCNY Five Fights Off Rally To Upset Roughriders, 72-71

By Steve Rosenblatt

City College's basketball team fought off a late rally to upset Rider, 72-71, last night in a Tri-State League contest at Wingate Hall. The Roughriders were tied for the league lead before the start of the game.

Julie Levine, a reserve guard, capping The Beavers by hitting two free throws with thirty-eight seconds remaining to give the Beavers their seventh victory in fourteen starts. The team is 4-3 in conference play.

Levine's shots put C.C.N.Y. in front, 70-68, before Rider scored its last two points in the final seconds.

The Beavers led at halftime, 45-33. It was the team's finest period of the season as they hit twenty of thirty-six shots from the floor. In the second half, however, the Roughriders fought back to within two points, but Levine's foul shots insured the win-to-the delight of the small, but vociferous crowd.

Golden paced the winners with twenty-two points, the highest total of his career. He was followed by Greenberg with twenty, and Sidat with thirteen. Sidat nailed nine points in the final period. Player C. P. A. T. C. N. Y. has two matches remaining. The team meets Hunter Saturday in Questacon at Wingate Hall for a winning season.

Fairfield Triumphs In Loop Contest

By Jeff Falca

The City College basketball team had its easiest game of the season Saturday as it defeated Rider, 95-51, in a Tri-State League game before a standing room only crowd at the Hawks gym. The victory was the first over the Hawks in four years and gave the Beavers a 6-0 record in conference play. The Beavers recorded a 4-3-1 conference record against Hunter. Earlier in the week, the Beavers put up a tough fight before losing to Bentley, 71-69, in Connecticut. This was also a league contest.

The win over Hunter gave City the "mythical" Tri-State League Championship, since the Lavender lead already defeated Brooklyn and Queens. C.C.N.Y. raced into the lead from the opening tap, as jump shots by Alex Blatt, Steve Golden, and Jerry Greenberg put the Beavers ahead 13-4. The lead increased steadily as Greenberg, Johnny Wyles, and Don Sidat scored from beyond the foul line against a zone defense.

Randy Getchis, Rider's 6-7 center, led all scorers with twenty-two points, fouling out midway through the second half. Jack Cryan followed with twelve, most of his points coming when Johnny Wyles fouled out late in the game. Wyles held Cryan to one field goal.

City Cagers Humble Hunter

Three Men Score In Double Figures

The Beavers dominated the game, scoring with a twenty-three point average, committed three quick personal fouls, and had to leave the game at the seven minute mark. Excellent guarding by Blatt held him scoreless through the first half.

City led at the half, 32-14, and "poof" shooting night by the Beavers kept the score close. The Beavers controlled the boards, as evidenced by his eleven rebounds.

With three regulars on the bench for City at the start of the second half, Hunter narrowed the gap. Barnes and Bowie Schuett led a surge that chopped the lead to 34-25. Greenberg and Wyles put back into the game, and Jerry's jumper and two baskets by Blatt finished Hunter. A 12-2 tear gave the Lavender a 45-27 advantage, and permitted Coach Dave Polanski to put in the reserves. (Continued on Page 11)

Nimrods' Record At 11-3

The Beaver rifle team has an on-and-off weekend. It lost to Army and St. John's Saturday... after defeating Cooper Union and Brooklyn Poly (Evening) Friday. The action left C.C.N.Y. with a 11-3 record.

In the contest Saturday on the Lewishon Stadium range, the Beavers totaled 1,417 points. T. Redman won the match by firing six, 1,429, six points better than Weis Point.

Frank Falca paced the Beaver with 289 out of a possible 300. Fred Grospin followed him with 288. Jerry Uretky and Bernie Abramson hit 281 and 280, respectively. Stan Fogel scored 279.

In the encounter Friday at Lewishon, the nimrods easily outclass their opponents by shooting 14-out of 300. Grospin and Cooper members, 229 and 228, respectively.

"Grospin and Phil Rothchild led the team by hitting 289 each. Armenson followed them with 285. Falca tagged 281 and Uretky scored 279. The sharpshooters continue a Friday test of St. Peter's and Pace. C.C.N.Y. faces a relatively easy engagement with St. John's March 1.

He'll Be Ready

Ira Smoler, an eighteen point per game man for Brooklyn College's basketball team, was eligible to play for the College next season. He recently transferred to City's engineering school. Smoler has indicated that he will play for the varsity next season.

JV Hoopsters Split Two Encounters

Ken Trell tumed in thirty-two points, but City College's junior varsity basketball team dropped a 78-66 decision to the Columbia freshmen Monday in Hansen Hall. The Beavers now have a 4-3 record.

The Beavers gained their fourth victory of the season February 6 by defeating the New York Community College J.V. 70-63, in double overtime.

In the Columbia tilt the Lions opened up an 14-4 lead early in the first period. The Beavers came back ahead 23-6. Trevi, however, led a comeback which cut the lead to 21-20 at intermission. He added sixteen points in the period.

At the start of the second period, Columbia widened its lead to 40-31, increased it to 57-32, and cut their margin to eighteen points midway in the half. Trevi led all scorers with thirty-two points, making fourteen of twenty-four shots from the floor. (Continued on Page 11)

By Steve Rosenblatt

The C.C.N.Y. wrestling team overcame an 8-0 deficit to defeat Fairleigh Dickinson University, 17-13, Saturday at Teaneck, New Jersey. The victory made the Beavers' record 5-1.

After the matmen dropped the first two matches, they came back to win the next five in a row before losing in the heavyweight division. C.C.N.Y. has two matches remaining. The team meets Hunter Saturday in Goethals Gym and hosts New York University February 23.
