Season Recap
Success Despite Injuries

The City College soccer team, beset by injuries and a series of bad breaks, still managed to register its best record since the 1961 season and narrowly missed receiving an invitation to the National Collegiate Athletic Association championships.

In Metropolitan Conference play, the Beavers finished second to Long Island University. The Beavers had a 2-0-2 record and finished second in the conference behind the Blackbirds, who won all their games with the exception of a 1-1 tie with the Beavers.

Overall, the Beavers had a 2-2-2 record, beating Seton Hall and losing to Bridgeport and Fairfield-Dickinson in non-conference play. Izzy Zaiderman, Bruce Thurston, Rogers, and Ted Jonke supplied most of the Beavers scoring punch and will all return next year.

In fact, only three players will not return. They are Joe Danefc, Tony Negovetti, and George Lang, who will all be graduated in June.

The 'Lavender opened the season with a 2-0 victory over Brooklyn College. But it was the second game which afforded Coach Kar- la. her first real test.

In a come-from-behind victory, the Beavers defeated a very, very good Seton Hall team, 3-1.
