Council Voting Tomorrow; Executive Assembly Fails

Ten Appear To Hear Executives

By TOM NICAS

Candidates for Student Council executive positions cancelled their scheduled debate Thursday when only two students appeared in the auditorium, the site of the event. The poor showing was termed an extreme disappointment by the candidates. In a similar forum run for class representatives last week only six students appeared.

Inadequate publicity and student apathy were the reasons cited by the candidates for the failure of students to appear.

A special election held in February to fill vacant freshman seats between the Council executive positions. The new ticket for the poor turnout.

Six hundred students attended the debate. Some Council members blamed THE TICKER and inadequate Student Council publicity for the poor turnout.

Silkscreens were hung on the bulletin boards announcing the elections and an article appeared in the paper.

In an effort to spur more interest, the Committee for Direct Action announced it would meet following the elections to discuss further reforms.

Prom Changes Location; Lowers Admission Price

Major revisions in plans for the senior prom, including a change of location and a reduction in price, were announced by the Prom Committee.

The objective of the change, according to David Zeidman, president of the Class of '65, was "to provide a prom of equal quality to the one planned at the Malibu Beach Club (the original location) but at a greatly reduced price" ($17).

The new senior prom, to be held June 14, the day previously planned, at Forest House, in Lakeside, New York, will include a cocktail party, sponsored by the executive board, as the first event of the evening, followed by a complete smorgasbord featuring unlimited liquor, Mr. Zeidman said.

Dinner will be a four-course meal featuring prime ribs of beef.

Traveling time to the new location is fifteen minutes more than it would have been to the Malibu Beach Club.

Explaining the reason for the change, Mr. Zeidman said, "After three weeks of ticket selling, the executive board of the Class of '65 and the Prom Committee concluded that they had underestimated the number of students who would attend at $30 per couple."
At present, officers on Council recognize that the student body is not being well represented. Council asks voters to vote once or twice to ensure that the council is representative. In this case, the reward is well worth the effort.

This can be accomplished through a teach-in, which is a form of demonstration. It does not proceed to violent means, or else it would not be a teach-in. A teach-in is simply a method of teaching students about their rights and responsibilities as citizens.

The faculty members who are currently on the council believe that the teach-in is the most effective way to make sure that the council is representative. They have suggested that a teach-in be scheduled sometime in the near future.

Although the council has not made a formal decision about the teach-in, they have agreed to consider it as an option.

The council is still in the process of discussing the teach-in and other issues.

The council hopes to make a decision soon.

The council is grateful for the support of the student body and looks forward to working with the students to make the council as representative as possible.

We Endorse

The candidate for president of Student Council is Ronald Schoenberg '67. Mr. Schoenberg has been on Council for one year and has an unsenior experience. He has been an effective executive. He was prominent in the Student Affairs Committee and in Student Council for the past year. However, he has not been a member of the Student Council. He has exhibited many qualities which we feel are greatly needed on Student Council. He has demonstrated great leadership potential, is working on a lower plane than is Miss Jan Chason. We endorse Mr. Schoenberg for president.

Ronald Schoenberg

Dear Editor:

I am writing to express my views on the current situation at Baruch College. As a member of the Student Council, I have observed a lack of maturity and cooperation among the council members, which has led to a loss of student's voice and representation. I believe that the council needs a new leadership to address these issues and ensure effective communication with the student body.

Sincerely,

Society Criticized

To the Editor: The TICKER's recent editorial, "Don't Miss the Boat!" was one of the best pieces of editorial prose that I have ever read. The writer did an excellent job of getting his points across and expressing his feelings clearly and effectively. The use of the word "boat" as a metaphor for the university was particularly clever and original. I hope that the TICKER will continue to publish such high-quality editorial material in the future and maintain its high standard of excellence.

The Jaspers collected four runs in the first off Bowie Smith. Five singles, and two errors accounted for those runs.

Barry Edelestein halved the margin in the second by hitting a two run homer with Martin aboard.

Manhattan got a fifth run on a single by Bob Gagliano.

The Beavers made it 5-3 in the eighth. Dave Hayes was safe on an error and scored after Bectalori and Gatti doubled.

Hayes tied the score for City in the ninth with a two run homer down the right field line.

In the Jasper ninth, a walk to Lewicki, a sacrifice and singles by Lewicki and Kesanbaum tied the game for Manhattan, 5-5.

Coach Sol Minkoff believes that the Beavers are a really a better ball club than they showed last week.

"We are trying, but we have not gotten the breaks which are needed to win the league," he said.

The Beavers are now 4-1 in the league, and 5-5 overall. Of the six losses, five have been by one run.

Three Conference Losses Dash Nine's Title Hopes

Lou Gatti Leading City Hitter

Roland Meyreles Hit a Homer for CCNY in the Eighth In CTC's; Joe Scarrone Was Chosen Pitcher of the Game in the Metropolitan Championship Saturday, at C. W. Post College.

The CCNY men's basketball team lost a tough fight to the unbeaten University of Detroit, 62-61, Saturday, at C. W. Post College.

They lost four consecutive games.

The boys' times are beginning to improve and they look like we will be stronger next year.

Bob Bogart also produced some points for City. He placed fifth in the broad jump and the triple jump.

Trackmen Eighth In CTC's; Zemba Sets Career Record

The City College trackmen gave their finest performance for City. They placed fifth in every field and track event which ran in the Collegiate Track Conference championships Saturday, at C. W. Post College.

Iona, Southern Connecticut and the United States Merchant Marine Academy finished first, second and third, respectively.

The Beavers did not finish first in any of the events. They lost four consecutive games.

"One interesting factor in the losses was that they were all by one run," coach Minkoff said. "We were all close in the ninth or tenth innings, which until this week had been the Beavers' favored scoring time.

The CCNY varsity did in the same distance.

The boys' times are beginning to improve, and they look like we will be stronger next year..."
