Candidiates To Speak At Free Tuition Rally

By ALAN WIENER

Queens District Attorney Frank O'Connor, candidate for City Council President on Abraham Beame's ticket, and Timothy Costello, Representative John Lindsay's running mate for Council President, will appear at the School Thursday at 12 to kick off City College's free tuition campaign.

Martin Schlow '66, vice president of Student Council, informed THE TICKER that there will be radio and television coverage of the event.

Buffo St.-Marie, a noted folk and blues singer, will appear at the Hunter College auditorium, Fifty-ninth Street and Lexington Avenue, November 5, to give a concert for the benefit of the free tuition campaign.

"The Byrds," a rock-and-roll group, were originally scheduled to appear, but due to previous engagements which will keep them on a three-month tour, they will not be able to appear.

Miss St.-Marie has agreed to entertain for well under her standard fee, because the proceeds are earmarked for the free tuition drive. She will receive $1,000, as opposed to $2500 requested by the "Byrds." plus a percentage of the gate.

Many of the 1,500 tickets available have been purchased by City College's Inter-fraternity and House Plan Associations. Tickets are purchased by these organizations for seventy-five cents each, and are resold to the student body for one dollar, with the twenty-five cent profit going to the free-tuition campaign.

Tickets may be purchased at the Student Council office, 416 S.C.

Student Council to Send Letter Condemning Hayneville Verdict

By a vote of 13-8-1, Student Council passed a motion Thursday to send telegrams to President Lyndon Johnson and Attorney General Nicholas Katzenbach condemning the acquittal of Thomas Coleman by a Hayneville, Alabama jury.

Mr. Coleman was charged with manslaughter in the slaying of civil rights worker Jonathan Daniels.

The text of the telegram read:

"It is the opinion of the Student Council of the Baruch School that the acquittal of Thomas Coleman, in the case of Alabama vs. Coleman, is a perversion of justice, weakening respect for the law, encouraging brutality and racism, abetting only the enemies of the United States, and crying for redress by the Congress."

A similar motion was introduced the previous week by Council Treasurer Norman Lipson '67, and defeated.

Alan Wiener '68, maker of the motion which was passed, said after the meeting that he felt very strongly that this was a moral question which needed a decisive answer.

"I am proud and pleased that my distingushed colleague, Senator Jacob Javits, will address you on my behalf. As you know, the fight for education is something I am, and have always been deeply interested and involved in, for the future of our generation lies in quality education for the youth of our country. My best (Continued on Page 7)

Lindsay Proclaimed Only Liberal In Race

Representative John V. Lindsay, Republican-Liberal candidate for mayor, was proclaimed the "only true liberal" in the race.

The senior senator from New York appeared at the School in Mr. Lindsay's behalf Thursday, and spoke to an audience of 300 students.

The event was sponsored by the Public Administration Society, Student Council, and Young Adults for Lindsay.

Before Mr. Javits' address, Mrs. Mary Lindsay, the congresswoman's wife, made an appeal to Baruch students to aid in her husband's campaign, and apologized for his absence due to an important commitment. Mr. Lindsay was the originally scheduled speaker.

Shortly after Senator Javits' appearance, the candidate sent a telegram to the Public Administration Society saying: "I sincerely regret that I am unable to appear before your group this afternoon and I am proud and pleased that my distingushed colleague, Senator Jacob Javits, will address you on my behalf. As you know, the fight for education is something I am, and have always been deeply interested and involved in, for the future of our generation lies in quality education for the youth of our country. My best (Continued on Page 7)"

LINDSAY'S REPLACEMENT: N.Y. Senator Jacob Javits addresses the student body in Mr. Lindsay's behalf.

Students are Elected To 19 Class Offices

Nineteen students were elected to Student and Class Council seats in last Wednesday's election.

Douglas Leiderman running unopposed, was elected president of the upper class of '69 with 17 yes and 33 no votes.

In the lower class of '69, Student Council seats were won by Carol Rosen, Mary Stockfield, Jessie Rubin, and Barry Berger with 76, 68, 60, and 59 votes respectively.

In the Class of '69, Johny Calzogaro tallied 81 yes and 25 no votes. Mark Blanc, now in the Class of '69, is the new Class Council treasurer, receiving 71 yes and 32 no votes.

In the Class of '66, Student Council seats were attained by Charles Dreisfur (60 yes and 8 no votes), Steve Berman (53 yes, 19 no), Howard Klein (50 yes, 15 no), and Lucy Yarrer (56 yes, 10 no).

Steve Herman (53 yes, 10 no),弟兄Sahie (60 yes and 8 no votes), and Marilyn Lipton '67, with 86 yes and 32 no votes.

In the Class of '67, Allen Bassuk (84 yes and 31 no votes), Harvey Wacht (89 yes, 30 no), and Allen Broslowski (26 yes, 28 no) were elected to Student Council.

Also in the Class of '67, Bruce Shames was elected treasurer with 94 yes and 32 no votes.

In a hotly contested vote, the presidency of the Class of '67 went to Steve Winokur, with a 60 to 18 vote.

Of the Class of '67, Allen Bassuk (84 yes and 31 no votes), Harvey Wacht (89 yes, 30 no), and Allen Broslowski (26 yes, 28 no) were elected to Student Council.

In the Class of '67, Bruce Shames was elected treasurer with 94 yes and 32 no votes.

In a hotly contested vote, the presidency of the Class of '67 went to Steve Winokur, with a 60 to 18 vote.

Campus Stops Publication Due To Printing Problems

The Campus, the oldest student publication indefinitely following passage of an administration mandating the paper to continue use of City-Wide Printers.

The paper insisted that it be allowed to change print shops, explained Frank Van Riper '67, editor in-chief, because of "totally unacceptable conditions that exist at the printer." He cited a clause of the contract with City-Wide which states, "in the event of disagreement or dissatisfaction on the part of either party, this contract may be terminated on thirty days notice."

The student government feels that the Campus, at this point, has insufficient evidence to defend itself in a threatened lawsuit by City-Wide should the contract be terminated.

In the contract with the printer student government was co-signer, and, under one interpretation, the governorship body could be held personally liable should a lawsuit be successfully instituted by City-Wide.

The motion, which passed student government by a vote of 12 to 1, with 5 abstentions, provided that the Campus print at City-Wide for a three month trial period to build up a stronger case for terminating its contract.

(Continued on Page 2)
Campus...

The honor society, Phi Theta Turner, can earn $3 per hour. For more information, contact Mr. Bassuk in the administration building.

Mr. Bassuk...

Delays in the construction of the new library have caused some frustration among students. The administration is working to resolve the situation as soon as possible.

The Honor Society...

Recent events have caused some concern among students. The administration is investigating the situation and will take appropriate action.

In other news...

The Student Senate has approved a resolution to increase the student fee by 5%.

The administration has announced that all students will be required to participate in a mandatory training program this semester.

For more information, contact the Student Senate office.

---

Elective Grades Show Spring Failures Down

The number of failures in elective grades decreased in the spring semester. The number of "A's" was 48, while the number of "D's" was 14. This is a significant decrease compared to the previous semester. The administration is proud of the students' hard work and dedication.

School Club Protests Acquittal of Colonel Collins

The United States Justice Department was picketed Friday by demonstrators outside the courthouse. The picketers were protesting the acquittal of Colonel Collins, who was charged with misconduct during the Vietnam War.

The demonstrators were demanding that he be held accountable for his actions.

Jewish Law Is Discussed

Jewish law and tradition were discussed at a recent meeting. The members of the Jewish Club were impressed by the depth of knowledge and understanding of the law.

The meeting was well attended and was a success. The club will continue to host similar events in the future.

Casting Held, This Week For Theatron Production

The cast for the upcoming production of "The Hitchhiker's Guide to the Galaxy" will be announced this week. Auditions will be held on Monday and Tuesday evenings.

For more information, contact the Theatre Department.

---

Committee To Be Formed To Discuss Cafeteria Issue

A student-faculty committee will be formed to discuss the issue of the cafeteria. The committee will be responsible for addressing concerns and making recommendations to the administration.

A meeting will be scheduled soon to discuss the formation of the committee and the next steps.

For more information, contact the Student Senate or the faculty member in charge of the cafeteria.
Letters to the Editor

To the Editor of THE TICKER,

The error of academic freedom took a giant step backward Friday when Dean of Faculty James W. Cole announced that four students were to be withdrawn from the doctoral program because of "inability to show evidence of pursuit of a course of study." All constitutional violations of academic freedom sought to remedy the case of these students by tying the hands of the administration to prevent any interference with the rights of the students in their studies.

The case of academic freedom took a giant step backward Friday when Dean of Faculty James W. Cole announced that four students were to be withdrawn from the doctoral program because of "inability to show evidence of pursuit of a course of study." All constitutional violations of academic freedom sought to remedy the case of these students by tying the hands of the administration to prevent any interference with the rights of the students in their studies.

Dr. Gail Garfinkel

Academic Freedom

On the subject of the "TICKER." It is in letters of October 12th that the students of Baruch College were unknowingly subjected to a most deplorable attempt at subversion. In a sense, it is not a new phenomenon; but it is one that should not receive the slightest support if we are to maintain our position as a nation of free-thinking and free-speaking citizens.

All constitutional violations of academic freedom sought to remedy the case of these students by tying the hands of the administration to prevent any interference with the rights of the students in their studies.

The case of academic freedom took a giant step backward Friday when Dean of Faculty James W. Cole announced that four students were to be withdrawn from the doctoral program because of "inability to show evidence of pursuit of a course of study." All constitutional violations of academic freedom sought to remedy the case of these students by tying the hands of the administration to prevent any interference with the rights of the students in their studies.

Dr. Gail Garfinkel

Academic Freedom

To the Editor of the "TICKER:

As a student of the student body, it is with regret that I express my opinion on the recent decision of the administration to withdraw the four students from the doctoral program.

The defense of academic freedom is a fundamental right of every citizen, and it is the responsibility of the administration to uphold these rights. The withdrawal of these students from the doctoral program is a violation of this right and should not be tolerated.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

The Editor of THE TICKER

Yesterday's activities with several students, the Baruch College Faculty Council Ad Hoc Committee, one of the three groups charged with the responsibility of recommending candidates for the presidency of the college, were completed. As a result of the activities, the students felt the committee was not representative of their views and desires. However, it is important to note that the committee was not intended to be representative, but rather to consider the views of the students.

Yesterday's activities with several students, the Baruch College Faculty Council Ad Hoc Committee, one of the three groups charged with the responsibility of recommending candidates for the presidency of the college, were completed. As a result of the activities, the students felt the committee was not representative of their views and desires. However, it is important to note that the committee was not intended to be representative, but rather to consider the views of the students.

Yesterday's activities with several students, the Baruch College Faculty Council Ad Hoc Committee, one of the three groups charged with the responsibility of recommending candidates for the presidency of the college, were completed. As a result of the activities, the students felt the committee was not representative of their views and desires. However, it is important to note that the committee was not intended to be representative, but rather to consider the views of the students.

Yesterday's activities with several students, the Baruch College Faculty Council Ad Hoc Committee, one of the three groups charged with the responsibility of recommending candidates for the presidency of the college, were completed. As a result of the activities, the students felt the committee was not representative of their views and desires. However, it is important to note that the committee was not intended to be representative, but rather to consider the views of the students.

Yesterday's activities with several students, the Baruch College Faculty Council Ad Hoc Committee, one of the three groups charged with the responsibility of recommending candidates for the presidency of the college, were completed. As a result of the activities, the students felt the committee was not representative of their views and desires. However, it is important to note that the committee was not intended to be representative, but rather to consider the views of the students.

"Talk Out"

"Talk Out" is a new political organization which has been established at the outset, namely, that students be involved in the making of public policy. The purpose of the organization is to provide a forum for students to express their views on a wide range of issues and problems that concern the Baruch School. The organization has been established in response to the fact that it had no preconceived ideas about what issues should face the School and which students feel this committee was not representative of their views and desires. However, it is important to note that the committee was not intended to be representative, but rather to consider the views of the students.

"Talk Out" is a new political organization which has been established at the outset, namely, that students be involved in the making of public policy. The purpose of the organization is to provide a forum for students to express their views on a wide range of issues and problems that concern the Baruch School. The organization has been established in response to the fact that it had no preconceived ideas about what issues should face the School and which students feel this committee was not representative of their views and desires. However, it is important to note that the committee was not intended to be representative, but rather to consider the views of the students.

"Talk Out" is a new political organization which has been established at the outset, namely, that students be involved in the making of public policy. The purpose of the organization is to provide a forum for students to express their views on a wide range of issues and problems that concern the Baruch School. The organization has been established in response to the fact that it had no preconceived ideas about what issues should face the School and which students feel this committee was not representative of their views and desires. However, it is important to note that the committee was not intended to be representative, but rather to consider the views of the students.

"Talk Out" is a new political organization which has been established at the outset, namely, that students be involved in the making of public policy. The purpose of the organization is to provide a forum for students to express their views on a wide range of issues and problems that concern the Baruch School. The organization has been established in response to the fact that it had no preconceived ideas about what issues should face the School and which students feel this committee was not representative of their views and desires. However, it is important to note that the committee was not intended to be representative, but rather to consider the views of the students.

"Talk Out" is a new political organization which has been established at the outset, namely, that students be involved in the making of public policy. The purpose of the organization is to provide a forum for students to express their views on a wide range of issues and problems that concern the Baruch School. The organization has been established in response to the fact that it had no preconceived ideas about what issues should face the School and which students feel this committee was not representative of their views and desires. However, it is important to note that the committee was not intended to be representative, but rather to consider the views of the students.

"Talk Out" is a new political organization which has been established at the outset, namely, that students be involved in the making of public policy. The purpose of the organization is to provide a forum for students to express their views on a wide range of issues and problems that concern the Baruch School. The organization has been established in response to the fact that it had no preconceived ideas about what issues should face the School and which students feel this committee was not representative of their views and desires. However, it is important to note that the committee was not intended to be representative, but rather to consider the views of the students.

"Talk Out" is a new political organization which has been established at the outset, namely, that students be involved in the making of public policy. The purpose of the organization is to provide a forum for students to express their views on a wide range of issues and problems that concern the Baruch School. The organization has been established in response to the fact that it had no preconceived ideas about what issues should face the School and which students feel this committee was not representative of their views and desires. However, it is important to note that the committee was not intended to be representative, but rather to consider the views of the students.
OCT. 22
160 E. 23rd St.
8:30 P.M.

PHI SIGMA DELTA SMOKER

OCT. 22

SO WHAT

FOOD
PHI

COMING AND FIND OUT

BEER
SIG
Baruchians to Start A New Football Club

Some people say, “You can't keep a good man down,” but they did in Baruch. Mr. Comer notes. Consequently, he's starting a drive in that direction.

Last year, 1,000 signatures were collected on a petition calling for an increase of fifty-cents in the Bursar Fee for all College students. The additional money was to be used to support a school football team.

The uptown student body passed a similar referendum in February. The motion went on to the student-faculty committee which set it before the general faculty committee, on intercollegiate athletics. Their reasons were lack of finances and lack of interest.

Alan Wiener, who is working in conjunction with Mr. Comer, believes there would be great student support behind a football club. He is now readying the constitution for the organization. He says, “It seems simple, all you need is a constitution and twelve members, but there is a lot more to it. We need a lot of student support before we can play our first game.

Dr. Gregor of the Baruch School advised them to form a club, and to check on such matters as insurance for the athletes, and a field on which to play and practice.

The club idea was taken from other metropolitan colleges which have formed similar organizations. N.Y.U., Fordham University, Iona College, and recently St. John's University have formed football clubs independent of the athletic departments on their camera.

A meeting has been planned for this Saturday at 12:00 o'clock in room 401-403 in the Main Building.

Baruch begins Varsity Club

By BOB STERN

At a meeting of the City College Athletic Association, Thursday at Lewishom Stadium, it was disclosed that a varsity club has been formed.

Doctor Des Grey, faculty adviser on athletics says, “The club will attempt to foster relations between the players on the different teams and provide a comprehensive insurance program for athletes.”

The organizers hope to have all 500 varsity athletes as members by next semester. Formation of the club had been discussed for some time, but there was always obstacles to get it from getting off the ground.

The Varsity Club is now getting a charter from the Borough council government, and has an able faculty advisor in the person of Harry (Bobby) Rand. Mr. Rand was the only person willing to take on this job. The lack of candidates was a result of the de-emphasis on varsity sports by the administration.

The Athletic Association also discussed the possibility of obtaining increased medical insurance for athletes. The N.C.A.A. has an insurance plan which may be adopted by City College. At the present time, the only insurance plan the school offers is from the Stein Fund.

Beavers Overcome F DU To Break Losing Streak

By WARREN HALM

The Beaver baseballers ended a five-game losing streak Saturday, winning the second game of a doubleheader with Fairleigh-Dickinson University, 5-4.

Coach Mishkin’s men had lost the opener, 10-0.

It was the final game of the season.

For the first time this year, Mr. Mishkin was forced to face pitchers in one game; it paid off in victory.

Ron Rissi started in the nightcap. He was relieved by Ron Terraz, who was in turn replaced by Ron Hanlon. The team’s first game of the season, the opener, was a loss for the win.

In the second game, F.D.U. had built up a 4-1 lead going into the seventh. In that inning the Beavers rallied to tie the game. With the bases loaded and two out, Bill Miller walked on a three-two pitch, sending across the winning tally. Sophomore hurler Barry Leifer suffered his usual heartbreakng loss in the first game. He has been

Continued on Page 7

O'Connell Runs First; CCNY Still Unbeaten

The City College cross country team raised its season record to 5-0 Saturday, with a 24:31 victory over the United States Merchant Marine Academy at Van Cortlandt Park.

In the meet, O’Connell’s best previous performance was against Queen College and Fairleigh-Dickinson October 9, in which he had a 26:53 time. His triumph against the Mariners brought his personal unbeaten streak to five.

Alfa Asea placed second for City with a 26:20 time, Gus Marinos, a sophomore who is steadily improving, ran a surprising 29:12 race to take fourth. City’s number two man, was not able to finish the race. He has been hampered by a pulled muscle since the Adelphi meet.

A disappointed Coach William Killen did not put the blame directly on the officials. "The officials should have been better, there would have won if we played better. There's no use blaming the referees," commented the coach.

Booters To Meet Brooklyn In Annual Soccer Day Tilt

By JOHN FAMILARI

Soccer day, one of the highlights of the booters season, takes place this Saturday, at Island Park.

C.C.N.Y. will face Brooklyn College in the first game of a doubleheader which will be open to all New York City high school students.

The score was much closer than the 5-0 victory which is necessary in order for the Beaver squad to go above 1-2-1 Metropolitan league record.

Beaver batter Jim O’Connell scored the only run in the first game on a passed ball and that of the winning tally.

The Beavers are 3-5 in Conference play and tied for fifth place. Brooklyn is 2-5-1 in Conference play and tied for sixth place.

In Annual Soccer Day Tilt

The City College women’s soccer team will meet Brooklyn College in the first of a doubleheader at Island Park on Saturday, the second game of the annual event.

F DU Defeats Lavender '11

The Beaver Booters scored four goals against the Fairleigh-Dickinson Knights, Tuesday at Lewishom Stadium.

Although three of these markers were disallowed by the officials, the result was a 2-1 loss to the New Jersey team.

The Booters now have a 5-2-1 record in the Metropolitan League. City opened the scoring when Willy Franz killed on a pass from Ted Jocke at 7:00 of the second period. The Knights tied the game at 18:07 of the same stanza when all-American Donny Galdein bloomed one over the outstretched arms of City goalie Walt Kozcuk from fifty feet out.

With just twenty seconds remaining in the game, Beaver forward Richard Gatti scored. The officials had penalized the Knights a second penalty.

A disappointed Coach Williams Killen did not put the blame directly on the officials. "The officials should have been better, there would have won if we played better. There's no use blaming the referees," commented the coach.

For us, it was a struggle. "I'm satisfied with his play," says Coach Bauta. "He doesn't have tremendous reflexes, but he makes up for this with his determination and quick thinking ability."

Coach William Killen's squad will depend on their strong defensive line to overcome the Brooklyn offense.

Good performances will have to come from forwards Cliff Jeschke and Marcel Courix, in addition to goalie Kozcuk.

Soaso, a 61.185 pound half-back was outstanding in the L.I.U. game. Gouriet was also quite instrumental in stopping the Blackbird attacks.

Cont'd on Page 7