Regents To Hold 'Inquiry'

Joseph Kottler, chairman of the New York State Joint Legislative Committee on Higher Education, announced today that the City University was no longer interested in purchasing Long Island University's Brooklyn center.

The legislative committee also proposed that R. Gordon Hoxie, L.I.U. chancellor, open up enrollment for the upcoming fall semester.

A meeting of all the administrative and faculty members in Brooklyn is scheduled for Friday to determine the needs of higher education, continued Mr. Bulger.

Mr. Kottler stressed that once a student gives blood, which costs about fifty dollars a pint, he must be able to receive blood as well.

He also said that the faculty contribution in the past has been small, "I expect to greet personally, those members of the Board..."

Hoberman Defeated; Rights Bid Is Passed

Concert Approved

Others Successful In Their Races

While passing motions on the rights of students and the establishment of a group to run a concert, Student Council, at their Thursday meeting, took no stand on the Uptown demonstrations.

A mandate that the Student Council president go before the Faculty Council and urge them to accept the Joint Statement on the Rights and Freedoms of Students passed unanimously.

The statement was drawn up under the joint sponsorship of the American Association of University Professors, the Association of American Colleges and the United States National Student Association.

The board's role, he continued, chairman of the Board of Regents, said the board "has decided to hold an inquiry..."

He also stressed that the role of the committee is to coordinate the joint efforts of the students and faculty.

While this act is reprehensible and off the fire alarm of our School (Barockport, New York 14420), I decided to celebrate Halloween, in his own unique way, by setting of studying.

To the Editor of The Ticker:

Please to correct the situation. If the administration does not act, any brutality which is normal procedure and as pipes as a symbol of their concern.

I hope that I too will be able to say, 'I'm proud to be called — when the ethnic designation was not made by me.

—First, as to which I'll open do I designate as "the Blacks." — he destroyed last week's issue by Mrs. Louise Rafael Singleton.

The late Malcolm X in his autobiography: "So what?" as a race of -... Negro and Puerto Rican &... The voice of Black America's entry into W.W.II..."

Evidencing a paternal attitude, a 'Black nationalist' wrote, "... Negro and Puerto Rican..."

I only hope that one day you will be able to say, 'I'm proud to be called — when the ethnic designation was not made by me.'

Of the few instructors who led go to the nearest stairway and these sent, them oat their merry I way.

The instructors of the classes in suspended, the acts which followed.

Any students were cramming; however, no excuses were accepted. By that time the air around the building; The main building is on.

The chaos was compounded by the fire alarm, now in every part of America. The fact is, we are in this citadel.

A student was sitting at the in-president, "... Frau!..."

We all know how to market other pharmaceticals, as to which grasp.

One day be able to say, 'I'm proud to be called — when the ethnic designation was not made by me.'

We are fine examples of what the world needs.

The seminar, at Hill's book store, the first twenty-four hours, is open to all professors.

Is the Repeal of the Blaine Amendment that Bad?

By Richard Bachofen

One of the main issues of the proposed State Constitution is the repeal of the Blaine Amendment. There are many in the State who feel that it could be detrimental to the system of government that we have. A recent poll revealed that the majority of the people favor the repeal of the Blaine Amendment. The poll was conducted by the State Department of Education and showed that over 70% of the respondents favored the repeal. The poll also showed that the repeal would have a positive effect on the state's economy.

I am offering a solution to the dirt problem at Baruch. Although last Tuesday's unregulated fire started in the main and the loss of the Library, the fire was quickly extinguished by the Fire Department. The students who were in the Library at the time were able to escape safely. In addition, the firefighters did an excellent job of putting out the flames. The fire was contained to the library and there were no injuries.

The Student-Faculty Committee has been called in to investigate the cause of the fire. The committee consists of members from the faculty and students. Any information that can help in the investigation should be brought to the committee.

Mini-athletes Lift Their Legs

I was one of shock and surprise; Mini-athletes Lift Their Legs and impress both their figures and athletic skills. There is speculation that an all-sports team from the Inter-fraternity Council will challenge the coeds, seen here in a rugged volleyball game, to a tackle football game with the winner to eventually play the victory of the Ticker-Mad Dog game. The early line rates the girls 6 points over L.F.C., if the fraternities men don't decline. The experts rate the Ticker Tigers as 1-9 favorites to take all the marbles. C'mon girls!

A Letter:

Players Take a Stand

To the Sports Editor:

The Clip-L.I.U. battle in last week’s Ticker, our first reaction was one of shock and surprise; our second reaction was to write this letter and set the record straight.

In the first place, the picture you used (“To Score—or Not To Score . . .”) was said to have shown L.I.U. vs. City. This is not so. The picture that appeared in the paper is of last week’s F.D.U.-C.C. game.

Second, we sincerely believe that the assigned reporter did not attend the game and wrote the story after obtaining second hand information. Had he attended, he would not have written the story as he did. He stated that L.I.U. “completely dominated play.” According to the many who did attend—the coaches, players, scouts and Observation Post (an uptown newspaper), it was C.C.N.Y. which outplayed L.I.U.

It is a fact that City dominated play throughout the first half. The Ticker Tigers then stretched its home winning streak to 104 with a triumph over Cooper Union and New York University in a triangular meet Friday at Lewishohn Stadium.

Lavender, which has won both triangular meets held thus far, was paced by captain Paul Kantruk with 250 markers. The winning Beaver array included Jim Maynard (269), Frank Yone (206) and Alan Feit (326).

Intramurals: Football, Swimming Highlight Action

Wilde House Rips Dolphin Eleven

By PETE CORSENTINO

Charlie Tenenbaum’s three interceptions and three touchdown receptions propelled Wilde House to a four-touchdown-to-none whippings of the Dolphins Thursday in the Intramural football tournament off the East River Drive.

The victory invaded Wilde of a place in the playoffs. Other playoff contest include the Panthers and the Deans.

All of Wilde’s scores were toss by Dave Kornberg who also included Mike Siegel in his attack.

Tannenbaum’s interceptions and a generally strong defensive effort by his teammates, deterred any offensive threat by the Dolphins.

Five Swim Races Won by Arnold

By IRWIN SELTZER

Howard Arnold won five events (including one tie) and took one second to score 39 points and run away with all honors in Thursday's Intramural swim meet. There were only six swimmers.

Arnold captured the 40-yard breaststroke, 40-yard butterfly, 40-yard kickoff and 220-yard swim (11 laps). He tied Steve Lenthal in the 40-yard backstroke as both were clocked at 23.6.

The Junior’s only setback came at the hands—of Larry Weikoff in the 110-yard event. Weikoff stopped the watches at 21.8 while Arnold was caught at 22.0.

Martin Klause provided Arnold with some semblance of competition, taking three close seconds.
