Proposed Strike Gathers Momentum; Committee Focuses on 'Stop the War'

Approximately seventy-five students attended a meeting called by the steering committee of the April 26 International Student-faculty Strike to End the War in Vietnam. Four faculty members also attended the meeting.

The faculty members were Har­ry Bixler (Math.), Michael Black (Eng.), Professor Edward Sagarin (Soc.) and David Geller (Eng.).

Many students expressed concern with the leaflets distributed by the Student Mobilization Committee. Some felt that the leaflets were ambiguous.

The steering committee decided to withdraw the leaflets from circulation and concentrate on a new theme. After discussion, the committee decided to use the theme “Stop the War in Vietnam.”

The committee elected Bonnie Lindner ’71, Sandy Eagon ’68 and Hy Geller ’68 as chairman, treasurer and secretary, respectively.

Plans were formulated for writing letters to the faculty members urging them to boycott classes on April 26. Members of the steering committee expressed the hope that the strike would be close to one hundred per cent effective.

The steering committee met to formulate strike plans. They agreed that the primary objective of the strike is to defeat America’s determination to continue support United States policy in Vietnam.

The committee is also planning print leaflets urging students to strike. The strike is part of Vietnam Week ’68, which will culminate with a mass demonstration on April 27 along Flushing Avenue. The next meeting of the steering committee will be Thursday at 12:30 in 1221.

A Strike for Peace...

On April 30 students and faculty throughout the United States and the international community called for a strike in protest of the Vietnam War. The strike was planned in response to the sale of buttons in support of the conflict.

The one substitute to emerge far and wide is the strike against the war. Whether the Class of '69 be granted a Club News Editor BYRNE BLUMENSTEIN '69 Advertising by Alpha Delta Sigma

...A War for Life

Too many people believe and argue that war is a necessary evil. However, we believe that war is a dicaster in itself.

The one slogan to emerge for all the battlefields of the second civil war is: Mr. Tigar is the handbook published by the Central American Republic Affairs. In that...

THE only thing that is absurd.

The first meeting of this club was held a few days ago, and the following are the resolutions passed by the members at that session:

1. Whereas child-beating is an immoral act that cannot be condoned, and whereas it is necessary to demonstrate condemnation of child-beating, and whereas a boycott of the Baruch School is the best way to demonstrate this condemnation, it is resolved that a boycott of classes should be called for May 1, 1969.

2. Whereas dog-kicking is an immoral act, and whereas it is necessary to demonstrate condemnation of the aforementioned act, and whereas a boycott of classes is the best way to demonstrate that condemnation, it is resolved that a boycott of classes should be called for May 2, 1968.

3. Whereas motherhood is a good thing, and whereas those who dislike mothers are bad people, and whereas it is necessary to admonish these people, and whereas the most feasible method of admonition is to strike the Baruch School, it is resolved that a strike of the Baruch School should be urged for May 3, 1968.

4. Whereas we are certain that no good can come from the earth’s spinning off its axis and spinning off into space, and whereas action must be taken to prevent the aforementioned spinning off, and whereas the best possible course of action is a boycott, it is resolved that a boycott of the Baruch School should be urged for May 4, 1968.

5. Whereas it is a fundamental truth that if one is not with you one is against you, and whereas those persons who do not participate in the above mentioned boycotts are obviously not with us, and are, therefore, in favor of the policies we are condemning, it is resolved that these people be publicly censured for their extremist positions.

The next meeting of the Jean-Paul Sartre Club will be held shortly at the usual time and place (time: next full moon; place: Paul Bunyon's log cabin, Disneyland). The topic to be discussed at this meeting will possibly call for strikes of the Baruch School in support of love, peace, freedom, mental health, bathing, jelly apples, Charlie Chan, etc., etc.
