City Hall March Is Due On Friday
As State Provides Added Funds

Varied Black Week Program
Is Planned by Koromantee

Black experience, broadly relectected, will be brought to Baruch this week by the Society of Koromantee. Black Week, which began yesterday, will feature a fashion show, daily films, lecture, a forum, dance performance, an art exhibition, and a poetry recital.

Today's activities include a 2 a.m. screening of the "Dutchman," originally a play by Leroi Jones which was then photograhed, and the "Weapons of Gordon Parks," an interview with the famous black photographer which reveals how his life experiences have affected his art. There will also be a 2 p.m. panel. All activities on Thursday evening's entertainment, will be held in 4 South.

On Wednesday beginning at 2 p.m., there will be speakers from the Black Panther Party and the Afro-American Teachers Association. Two films concerning black heritage in ancient african civilization will be shown starting at 4 p.m. They are, "Heritage of the Negro," and "Onawale." During club-hours on Thursday, Muhammed Toure will deliver a discourse on the subject on Islam's effect on black people. Films will follow the lecture.

Start time is 1 p.m., Friday's, movies are: "The Blues," "Negro Kingdom," and "African Village Life." There will be a forum held. Black Week will be highlighted by a Fashion show and a day can be spent in the auditorium at 7.

The President's Special Committee on Campus Rights and responsibilities for the second time last night. The Committee, which consists of five stu-

A Mardi Gras Queen?

The Queen of this year's Mardi Gras will also reign as the first Baruch College Queen. Her majesty will be selected on Saturday, April 26 at Mardi Gras. In addition to the Queen's coronation, the spring carnival will feature games booths run by school organizations, a folk concert, and continuous performances by La Porte's Light Show and Band.

The festivities will be held in the Student Center; every meeting room and lounge will be utilized. According to the organizers of the Mardi Gras, Boosey and House Plan Association, the carnival will resemble the spirit of the Gay Nineties, with the dance of a cabaret and a carousel.

Aid is still available for booths, please apply at the Booser office; room 315 S.C. Finalists for the Queen contest will be selected this Friday; applications and pictures must be submitted by 2 p.m. Thursday.

Baruch Literary Magazine
To Be Reborn in Few Weeks

A new bird is about to take wing in Baruch. Born of the ashes of student disinterest the name will be Phoenix and the purpose to establish a second literary media on the campus (the first is Ticker's Literary Magazine). Phoenix will be composed of poetry, fiction, non-fiction, critical social-political comment, etc.

The editorial board is staffed by Joseph Dunne, Marty Einhorn, Jon Kraus and Alan Shemberg with Bill Wallin as Editor in Chief. The faculty advisors are Prof. Rudolf and Lawless of the English Department.

The planned physical format is similar to past issues of Phoenix. It will be approximately twenty-five pages of printed material. It will be available to the school community at a suggested cost.

Student Claims 'Education Works' At State Hearing On SEEK Budget

Out of seventeen fellows who joined the Army, one of whom was killed in action, none returned or the way, four are in the Viet Nam. I am the only one at the University of Wisconsin, will be going to work in the most significant of all college programs.

Could this be you?

Selection of finalists will be made by a special student-faculty committee. To guarantee that no undue influence is brought to bear their names will not be released until next week.

Tickets are now on sale at the information desk in the Lobby of the Student Center. Price: $1.50.

opening of new occupational programs in such fields as nursing and health services where a critical personnel shortage exists in municipal hospitals, Mrs. Blanch, Lewis, chair-

many of which we planned in our Master Plan commitments.

To accept the number of Freshmen, has been charged with the task of setting school policy on such issues as campus disorders and on-campus use of drugs.

Ticker is unable to report the progress of the committee; the meeting was CLOSED. We are sorry that the reader, be he student or faculty member, is being denied an opportunity to either keep abreast of or help formulate perhaps the most significant of all college programs.

The Bernard M. Baruch College
The Tickier

Varied Black Week Program
Is Planned by Koromantee

Black experience, broadly reflected, will be brought to Baruch this week by the Society of Koromantee. Black Week, which began yesterday, will feature a fashion show, daily films, lecture, a forum, dance performance, an art exhibition, and a poetry recital.

Today's activities include a 2 a.m. screening of the "Dutchman," originally a play by Leroi Jones which was then photograhed, and the "Weapons of Gordon Parks," an interview with the famous black photographer which reveals how his life experiences have affected his art. There will also be a 2 p.m. panel. All activities on Thursday evening's entertainment, will be held in 4 South.

On Wednesday beginning at 2 p.m., there will be speakers from the Black Panther Party and the Afro-American Teachers Association. Two films concerning black heritage in ancient african civilization will be shown starting at 4 p.m. They are, "Heritage of the Negro," and "Onawale." During club-hours on Thursday, Muhammed Toure will deliver a discourse on the subject on Islam's effect on black people. Films will follow the lecture.

Start time is 1 p.m., Friday's, movies are: "The Blues," "Negro Kingdom," and "African Village Life." There will be a forum held. Black Week will be highlighted by a Fashion show and a day can be spent in the auditorium at 7.

The President's Special Committee on Campus Rights and responsibilities for the second time last night. The Committee, which consists of five stu-

A Mardi Gras Queen?

The Queen of this year's Mardi Gras will also reign as the first Baruch College Queen. Her majesty will be selected on Saturday, April 26 at Mardi Gras. In addition to the Queen's coronation, the spring carnival will feature games booths run by school organizations, a folk concert, and continuous performances by La Porte's Light Show and Band.

The festivities will be held in the Student Center; every meeting room and lounge will be utilized. According to the organizers of the Mardi Gras, Boosey and House Plan Association, the carnival will resemble the spirit of the Gay Nineties, with the dance of a cabaret and a carousel.

Aid is still available for booths, please apply at the Booser office; room 315 S.C. Finalists for the Queen contest will be selected this Friday; applications and pictures must be submitted by 2 p.m. Thursday.

Baruch Literary Magazine
To Be Reborn in Few Weeks

A new bird is about to take wing in Baruch. Born of the ashes of student disinterest the name will be Phoenix and the purpose to establish a second literary media on the campus (the first is Ticker's Literary Magazine). Phoenix will be composed of poetry, fiction, non-fiction, critical social-political comment, etc.

The editorial board is staffed by Joseph Dunne, Marty Einhorn, Jon Kraus and Alan Shemberg with Bill Wallin as Editor in Chief. The faculty advisors are Prof. Rudolf and Lawless of the English Department.

The planned physical format is similar to past issues of Phoenix. It will be approximately twenty-five pages of printed material. It will be available to the school community at a suggested cost.

Student Claims 'Education Works' At State Hearing On SEEK Budget

Out of seventeen fellows who joined the Army, one of whom was killed in action, none returned or the way, four are in the Viet Nam. I am the only one at the University of Wisconsin, will be going to work in the most significant of all college programs.

Could this be you?

Selection of finalists will be made by a special student-faculty committee. To guarantee that no undue influence is brought to bear their names will not be released until next week.

Tickets are now on sale at the information desk in the Lobby of the Student Center. Price: $1.50.

opening of new occupational programs in such fields as nursing and health services where a critical personnel shortage exists in municipal hospitals, Mrs. Blanch, Lewis, chair-

many of which we planned in our Master Plan commitments.

To accept the number of Freshmen, has been charged with the task of setting school policy on such issues as campus disorders and on-campus use of drugs.

Ticker is unable to report the progress of the committee; the meeting was CLOSED. We are sorry that the reader, be he student or faculty member, is being denied an opportunity to either keep abreast of or help formulate perhaps the most significant of all college programs.

The President's Special Committee on Campus Rights and responsibilities for the second time last night. The Committee, which consists of five stu-

A Mardi Gras Queen?

The Queen of this year's Mardi Gras will also reign as the first Baruch College Queen. Her majesty will be selected on Saturday, April 26 at Mardi Gras. In addition to the Queen's coronation, the spring carnival will feature games booths run by school organizations, a folk concert, and continuous performances by La Porte's Light Show and Band.

The festivities will be held in the Student Center; every meeting room and lounge will be utilized. According to the organizers of the Mardi Gras, Boosey and House Plan Association, the carnival will resemble the spirit of the Gay Nineties, with the dance of a cabaret and a carousel.

Aid is still available for booths, please apply at the Booser office; room 315 S.C. Finalists for the Queen contest will be selected this Friday; applications and pictures must be submitted by 2 p.m. Thursday.

Baruch Literary Magazine
To Be Reborn in Few Weeks

A new bird is about to take wing in Baruch. Born of the ashes of student disinterest the name will be Phoenix and the purpose to establish a second literary media on the campus (the first is Ticker's Literary Magazine). Phoenix will be composed of poetry, fiction, non-fiction, critical social-political comment, etc.

The editorial board is staffed by Joseph Dunne, Marty Einhorn, Jon Kraus and Alan Shemberg with Bill Wallin as Editor in Chief. The faculty advisors are Prof. Rudolf and Lawless of the English Department.

The planned physical format is similar to past issues of Phoenix. It will be approximately twenty-five pages of printed material. It will be available to the school community at a suggested cost.

Student Claims 'Education Works' At State Hearing On SEEK Budget

Out of seventeen fellows who joined the Army, one of whom was killed in action, none returned or the way, four are in the Viet Nam. I am the only one at the University of Wisconsin, will be going to work in the most significant of all college programs.

Could this be you?

Selection of finalists will be made by a special student-faculty committee. To guarantee that no undue influence is brought to bear their names will not be released until next week.

Tickets are now on sale at the information desk in the Lobby of the Student Center. Price: $1.50.
Lolita through Experiences: Parable of Justification

By ROBERT GOLDMAN

They tell me that I am a parasite, that I am being pushed by a...
NEW YORK, April 2—High officials in three Washington administrations and a pioneer in automation have been elected to the Board of Trustees of Freedom House, its chairman, former Senator Paul H. Douglas, announced today. All four men, he said, are committed to reducing the inequalities and threats to freedom which confront the nation.

The new board members include: Robert C. Weaver, president of the Baruch College of the City University of New York, following service for three years as Secretary of the Department of Housing and Urban Development. He had been a New York State rent and housing commissioner and vice-chairman of the New York City Housing Redevelopment Board. For 36 years he has served in voluntary and governmental agencies to improve race relations and cope with pressing urban problems.

Freedom House, in its 28th year, is a nonpartisan organization dedicated to the strengthening of free societies. Its research arm is the Public Affairs Institute. It also operates Freedom House/Books USA, distributing book packets to young leaders of developing nations in Asia, Africa and Latin America.

The other new directors are: Karl R. Bendetson, chairman and chief executive officer of U.S. Plywood-Champion Papers, Inc., former Assistant and Under Secretary of the Army from 1950-63. He was director-general of the nation’s principal railroads for two years and later served as chairman of the Defense Secretary’s advisory committee on nonmilitary instruction.

Nichols deB. Katzenbach, vice-president and general counsel of International Business Machines Corp., former Under Secretary of State and Attorney-General in the Johnson Administration. As Deputy Attorney-General in the Kenney era he directed enforcement of civil rights legislation. Prior to his public service, Mr. Katzenbach was professor of law at the University of Chicago.

RABBI ALAN W. MILLER
OF SAJ

SPEAKING ON
AMERICA JUDAISM: WHERE IS IT GOING?
APRIL 17 — 12:30 P.M.
AT HILLEL
144 E. 24 ST.

Petitions For Exec. Elections

Now Available
In Student Center
Lobby

Due Monday
April 21