Council Meets on Budget Money Circus Rides Again

by TOM SWIFT

As in par in the case of Student Council voting on appropriating club budgets, last Thursday and his was one of bad faith, sudden change, high emotion, humor, insult, profanity and prayer. Just like the big politics do it, but this time, I almost feel like to criticize when I myself have fallen into the same pit.

Added to the excitement of "budget time" this meeting had to deal with the problems of filling vacant seats on Council, due to what some active students like to call (and it is mentioned at every Council meeting) student apathy. Open seats on Council included the executive secretary, the place of the chair of "72 and two reps, three reps for "71, and three more for the seniors.

Now ordinarily this would not be a very "dominating" event, but remember this was the meeting to decide on club and Student Council's budgets. So to make this a matter of controversy, some positions of the budgets were voted down. For example, the Student Council budget was voted down (not the Faculty), any member or members appointed at a meeting and his budget will be "allocated" shall not vote on those budgets. This is to prevent fixing club budgets then resigning. This of course, as in any case when the word constitution is muttered, brought about a cry from some members — "Repeal it," "Suspend it" while the more sincere were said, "Only Student" or course, special orders were called for on this matter. Therein debate followed. A vote a stand (against repeal) as any student can at a meeting. The motion failed.

Steve DePasse Sings Up Storm Receives Standing Ovation

by Robert Barrett

The man has done it again! Steve DePasse has faced the audiences of Baruch and has conquered it. The standing ovation that he received from the students expressed their love for him and his singing. When he expressed his love for Baruch, the audience immediately responded with his first number, in which he sang about such Baruch notables as Mark Frank, Fielder, Weaver, and Harry Paces. Several moments before the show started he was given a warm reception from Baruch and he turned out the lyrics on how he feels for Baruch. As his manager, Jack Weiskopf exclaimed, "He loves it here."

Steve DePasse has been involved in music for years and when he sings, he brings a music into the auditorium and his heart and his soul into the audience.

A long time friend of Baruch, DePasse has performed for Presidents Kennedy and Johnson. He went to New York University where he majored in education. He was in the Boardwalk stage when he was a child, and sang in church choir.

The Baruch students immediately responded with his first number, in which he sang about such Baruch notables as Mark Frank, Fielder, Weaver, and Harry Paces. Several moments before the show started he was given a warm reception from Baruch and he turned out the lyrics on how he feels for Baruch. As his manager, Jack Weiskopf exclaimed, "He loves it here."

Steve DePasse has been involved in music for years and when he sings, he brings a music into the auditorium and his heart and his soul into the audience.

A long time friend of Baruch, DePasse has performed for Presidents Kennedy and Johnson. He went to New York University where he majored in education. He was in the Boardwalk stage when he was a child, and sang in church choir.

The Baruch students immediately responded with his first number, in which he sang about such Curricular Guidance

The Curricular Guidance Office is trying an experiment this term of counseling Day students without advance appointments. It is hoped that this will make counseling a more informal process and that students will find it easier to come to the office instead of having to make an appointment. If the experiment is successful, we may continue with it next term.

The Curricular Guidance Office is open from 9:00 to 4:00 in 15th floor.
The Secret's Out

As of last Tuesday at 6:05 p.m., the secret of the day was out. The Ticker, the student newspaper of The New School for Social Research, had revealed its mystery for the day. The secret was that the Ticker editor, John Yancy, had written a story about his friend Carlos Vasquez, a student at the school. The story was published in the school newspaper, The New Schooler, and it was one of the most popular stories of the year.

The Secret of the Day

John Yancy, Editor-in-Chief

Faculty Nuts

- SIGMA ALPHA TUTORING PROGRAM: Sigma Alpha is a tutoring program for students in need of academic assistance. If you're struggling with a particular subject, Sigma Alpha can provide one-on-one tutoring sessions to help you succeed. To sign up, visit the Student Center and ask for the tutoring coordinator.

- CLUB NEWS: Check out the latest news from our student clubs! This week, we've got updates from the Debate Club, the Photography Club, and the Environmental Science Club. Find out what's happening in your favorite clubs and join in on the fun!

- HEALTH EDUCATION: This week, we're focusing on the benefits of exercise. Physical activity is key to maintaining a healthy lifestyle. Make sure to incorporate movement into your daily routine. Whether it's a quick walk, a yoga session, or a pickup game of basketball, there's something for everyone. Stay active and stay healthy!

- ALL STUDENTS: Don't miss our upcoming events! This week, we have a lecture on climate change, a workshop on resume writing, and a movie night featuring the latest blockbuster. Check our website for more information.

- THE TICKER: This week's edition of The Ticker is now available online! Read the latest news, features, and opinions from our talented student writers. Stay informed and involved in campus life.

The Secret of the Day is a new feature that will be published every Tuesday at 6:05 p.m. If you have a secret to share, send it to secret@newschool.edu. We can't promise it will make it into print, but we'll do our best to keep your secret safe.

On February 24, 1980

The Ticker

The New School for Social Research

17 Lexington Avenue, New York 10010

"Love is multilingual, if you can't read, just say "I love you.""
Bowker Remarks Again He's a Nice Man

We hear much angry talk in the campus community about the order of priorities in our society. We see a great deal of opposition to our campuses increasing our own money, and why we don't pay for the work we do. It seems to me that we must stay within the society's economic reality to keep the campus community alive and well. We can't just wish it away, or do it differently until we have a better understanding of the economic system at the campus level. I think we should work towards a more fair and equitable distribution of wealth. We must strive for a more just and equitable distribution of wealth. We must strive for a more just and equity distribution of wealth.
This smoker has been rated "X"
(No one under 17 admitted)

Epsilon Phi Alpha
Friday Feb. 27, at 8:30 P.M.
1113 Flatbush Ave. (Near Clarendon Rd.)

The Dating Game is Coming!
March 12
4 South 12-2
Get your applications now in the Booster Office or from Mrs. Ross in the Student Center

Friendship Service Boosters Introductory Tea
Thursday
Feb. 26, 1970
Marble Lounge
Free Eats

If your sexy body is getting cold —
Come on in and try some of our hot stuff

Aladin's Coffee Shop
We deliver too
GR 5-3870
P.S.—If your sexy body isn't cold, come in anyway

The Psych Society
Invites all Baruchians to the opening meeting of the term
Thursday February 26 12-2
Room 502 (Main Bldg.)

Dean Austin is having a fireside chat on February 27th.
Anyone interested come to Room 315 S.C. and sign up!

HPA Wants to Meet You!
Welcoming Reception
February 26th + Oak Lounge (S.C.) + 12-2 + Refreshments

Open House At Parker House
February 27th + 10 East 23rd Street + 8 P.M.
Go HPA!