PLATEFORMS OF THE CANDIDATES

CHAIRMAN

BARBARA DUDEVANI

ALAN ELNICK AKA "DING"

1. Non-Partisan Leadership for the student Body.
2. Will stand up for the student voice. I'm dealing with administration Tom Fooery.
3. A pledge to work!!

ALLAN GOLDBERG

I can fill this space with a lot of big words and meaningless promises. I won't. The only thing I promise is total commitment. I will try and make this willingness to work come all! Have to offer at Baruch. With luck, hard work, and your help and cooperation, I can make this a term as President a successful one.

STEVE BORNENGER

I listen when other people speak and that's the way to minimize and eliminate the polarization that's occurring in the school now. When some people run for council so that their clubs will receive bigger budgets forcing others to run so that their clubs will get a decent budget. I want to explore all the avenues of student affairs, but we can not do it while we are in conflict with each other. Let us make this an institution for students rather than of students, but we need to know what we, as students and parents, want and need to listen to each other to find out.

ROBERTO RODRIGUEZ

To stop all the bull-shit and do some work with people that are interested in working and making student government responsible to students.

BRUCE ROSEN

It's about time that Baruch students utilize some responsibility in their governance affairs. We have the machinery to build a "community" but machines don't go with people. I have been a member of council as V.P. and Rep., an active member of Hillside and the Council of Club Presidents, a writer and reporter for Ticker and Changes, a member of departmental committees (student rep), and have had experience with various NYC government offices. I believe that I can handle the problems of administration—student government—and very well.

VICE CHAIRMAN

JESUS ARZUAGA

I don't talk much when I make a commitment I follow through. Here I am making a commitment to be bombastic this first testing job this school has ever seen.

VERNAL BOSTON

Contrary to opinions people may have about the Representations on Student Council, there are a dedicated few, like myself who constantly strive to do their best. The overwhelming and stifling attitudes of members who profess to know how things should be run and refuse to listen to the ideas of new members on council accomplishes nothing. In fact all that is established is a regular routine from semester to semester which serves only to maintain the status quo. Although I ran for Junior Rep. last fall and won, my victory was a hollow one. It was only a "Yes-No" position. My main feeling in running for Rep. last year was to surround my class, but in doing so I realized that the Student Council was not oriented towards me or the STUDENT BODY!!

GERALD GREENBERG

I further wish to state that I do not represent any one main interest group in the school. I will represent the CONCERNED and SERIOUS students who vote for me. Other students are not forgotten, however, they will be made a part of the student body.

COORDINATOR OF CAMPUS AFFAIRS

BARRY GOLDSTEIN

The world is divided into three types of people.
1. The overwhelming majority that don't know what's happening.
2. That select group that makes things happen.
3. That select group that sits back and watches things happen.

I intend to continue making things happen.

COORDINATOR OF EDUCATIONAL AFFAIRS

JAN W. YABLOW

If you read this, you probably don't even know what the hell is a Coordinator of Educational Affairs. What this position entails includes the placement of all students on those Faculty Committees which require student input. In simple terms, he chooses the students representative, to work with the department (Accounting to Statistics), for the Schools of Business, Liberal Arts and Education; and others as Committees on Curriculum, Academic—Standing, Drugs, etc., by analyzing the new Dean. According to some, it may be one of the most student oriented roles where students come in contact with. The positions are many, as total publication of all faculty decisions is taken into account. New York is the present job market, and investigations into Baruch's educational programs is required. As being the Student Representative to the Liberal Arts School Faculty and other Committees, I feel that in the long run I face the chance of making a real dent. End the buring of decisions that affect yourself.

BARUCH COLLEGE

COORDINATOR OF CAMPUS AFFAIRS

BARRY HOFFMAN

Hi:

Aren't you sick and tired of coming to the same four walls, teachers and desks, without having enjoyable student activities available? Why is it Baruch students always feel left out? The purpose of a college should not only be an educational institution but a community which should satisfy student needs. Many other colleges have yearly concerts and film festivals, but Baruch does not have any type of program which give the students their desires. Why is Baruch always left out in the cold? This must be changed.

I have been in Baruch, I have been on Student Council, I am a FRESHMAN ORIENTATION leader, a training student worker and I have worked in student personnel services. Last summer I designed the Baruch Affairs program for Baruch's student center. I have learned from my experience there is no reason why Baruch students should not have campus affairs and programs without having a physical campus. When I am elected in the positive of coordinator of campus affairs I will work to my fullest capacity and I will do all the following things for the Baruch Community:

1. Weekly folk, folk, Jazz and whatever music you enjoy in concerts.
2. Comedy, horror and drama film festivals.
3. Reorganization of the Council of Club Presidents to allow more representation for student activities.
4. Extended and improved draft counseling service.
5. I will personally go to each and every school organization to discuss their goals, hopes and desires.
6. The establishment of an effective means of communication with students for their needs. Let this year be an effective student year.

ALAN SMILWITZ

Greetings, I am Alan Smilowitz. I am running for the position of Coordinator of Campus Affairs. My qualifications are involvement in many student organizations, some of which are Student Leader Program, the Law Society, Hillel, Your Plan Association, and Freshman Class Treasurer.
The text seems to be a collection of administrative and political documents, possibly related to a college or university. The content includes voting records, candidate statements, and other formal notices. It appears to be from a college or university setting, given the references to student council, voting, and student association. The documents contain various names and signatures, indicating a formal process or meeting.
basis of getting a new school because our school was too crowded. We had to go to Washington, City Hall and Albany to get the land and money. It took time but we finally got it and now our school is going to be built in two years. That is to show you if you really want something you could do it no matter what you are. While I am in office I am going to try to improve registration and get the freshman class involved in some sort of activities like a skiing trip, dude ranch, camping trip and get concerts.

FRESHMAN VICE PRESIDENT
ROSEMARY DE PERISA
Well, I attended high school on Staten Island. "Student/Council," the Library Club, attendance requirements for freshmen and sophomores. A better registration process, and I will also call for the administration to consolidate Baruch.

ROBERT A. ACOSTA
If I'm elected freshman representative, I will try to institute programs to further and develop student interaction within the college community. By interaction I will work diligently in all areas which pertain to the freshman's benefit.

JOSE COLON-MORALES
Was your freshman orientation class a bore and a waste of time? How about an improvement in the orientation class? How about more representation of freshmen in the student council? If elected, I will try my best using my influence to carry out many changes needed in Baruch for the benefit of all students.

JOAN SMITH
STANLEY STEVENSON
As a new freshman in Baruch College, I have been introduced to the Freshman Class by working diligently with fellow representatives in areas such as registration, a freshman social program, working on executive committees, etc.

NEAL CHARLES
CONNIE DE LA CRUZ
If elected I will try to serve the interest of the freshman class by working diligently with fellow representatives in areas such as registration, a freshman social program, working on executive committees, etc.

ROBIN EPLER
Being a lower freshman and very new to the school, I really don't know what is going on socially (clubs) and politically (student government). I feel that a good way to find out what is happening is to join an organization. This is the best way to find out what is happening in the student activities and the workings of the school.

GEORGE GARDOSH
ALLYSON GOLDSTEIN
A lot of changes have to be made in the Baruch community. Among them are:

1) More recognition that Baruch is not just a school for (i.e. clubs and activities).
b) An investigation of the BHE Budget Plan for the next budget cycle.

c) To make myself available to suggestions that will help improve "The Baruch Community".

ROSANNE GUARINO
I like to see people get involved. I really plan to get the freshman class involved. I plan to try my best to work on a different registration system. I belong to a lot of clubs and other activities which I think is a good form of a school. Belonged to a cheerleading squad in school. Involved in activities out of school. When I get involved I really get involved.

GENEVIEVE JACK
I have nothing to sell. I will just do the best that I can in the office in which I hold.

PAUL JOSEPH
Though I have no set platform I still wish to run. Honestly I cannot say that I will do this or that because as of yet, I don't know enough of what's going on to make such claims.

I am running though, because I do believe I can help the school. I am interested in making Baruch, more than a place to come and learn. I think I will have to overcome much of the school apathy, and help bring the freshman class together. So that their college experience will be more than just a year learning position.

BERNARD MATOS
I can serve the students better as a Senate Rep. than as a student leader.

QUALIFICATION: Student leader.

JAMES PELTON

Being new in the school, I found a few things wrong. For one thing there isn't that much of an "aid your fellow freshman" type of response in the school. I think Freshman orientation was meant to bridge the gap. Instead, there should be some sort of buddy system, or a one to one basis. I don't know, but maybe the administration doesn't realize it. A whole lot of us freshmen come to Baruch with poor study habits. If the upperclassmen one to one helped freshmen learn the ropes of studying and applying themselves, there would be a less hostile student body.

MAUREEN NOLAN
My candidacy advocates communication between Student Government and Student Body.

CATHY PISARRO
I want to do anything possible to help change registration. I don't want the freshman class ever have it as bad as they did this term!

HANNAH SHUMAN

JAMES PELTON
I feel that I am qualified for the office of freshman representative because I am very interested in getting to know people and helping them. I believe that I can. I am a member of the Newman Club and plan to get involved in other student activities.
