Sckorohod Resigns

John Sckorohod, who was elected Coordinator of Political Affairs in an unopposed
race during last month's election, resigned
from that post.
In a letter to Roberto Rodriquez, Chairman of the Student Senate, Sckorohod said:
"It is with deep regret that I must oweses to the extent required, and, therefore, instead of performing at a mediocre level, I have chosen to resign and turn my office over to someone who will be able to devote the time required."

Hopefully, my resignation will not be viewed as a sign of discord amongst the members of the Executive Committee.
I say to express such thoughts, I wish to agree with them immediately. The present Executive Committee is composed of responsible and competent students of the highest caliber. Indeed, many of them are personal friends of mine. It is high time that we recognize that my decision to resign was based solely on the demands of academic and professional commitments.
Most of you have resolved to success in your future endeavors. I remain Respectfully yours,
John Sckorohod

Letters To The Editor

Dear Editor:

We have to wonder where you own wealth valorous quill is now. This column is supposed to provide the light of understanding, the path of friendship, and the home of the truth. I'm sure that you couldn't possibly have failed to notice the vast amount of research that has been done on the topic of student journalism. We have been told that this is a time of change, and that the only way to survive is by being honest and open. I think we should all be responsible for educating ourselves and our peers about the importance of free speech and the freedom to express our opinions, whatever they may be.

Sincerely,

Baruch Bowling

This past week at Bowl Mor Lanes, 110 University Place, here in Manhattan, the Eastern Intercollegiate Bowling Conference saw Baruch's top team, the Bowling Team, beat the perennial conference champs, Pace College. Bowling only draws only druggie gawk crowds when the pros are around, but it seemed like they were at Bowl Mor during the match between Baruch and Pace. Pace has the team with the highest league average, Baruch is second. Baruch has the highest number of percentage points, and leads the conference, whereas Pace was second. It seemed that the whole league was waiting for that day. In what should have been the match of the season, Baruch was losing 6-20, but it seemed as our team was mentally and physically exhausted, and at the end of the match, Baruch was up 20-6. Pace was the only best team, but as it turned out, they are the first team in four years to sweep the first two games. It was Baruch all the way, as they won 922 to 869. In the 2nd game, a strong finish, after the Baruchians, proved too much for the hard-hitting Pace College five. Baruch won again number two to nine. And in the 3rd, history repeated itself, in the first game, Baruch's team began to falter, and our team was steadfast and relentless as they went on to sweep the rest of the matches.

Two points are awarded for winning each game, and one point for the three-game total, seven points in all.

High for Baruch was Hiller Banoff with a 296 and 262 series, next was Oi-Captain Al Gross with 219 and 594 for three. Bernie Labochowski hit 291 and put Captain Dave Tenta with a 198 during the same game to help the cause. The other tegner was Ray Rockstein, who was the star player for three games. All in all, a win for Baruch.

The victory was also the first for Walter Kopczuk, who made his coaching debut this season.

Soccer

The Baruch College soccer team closed out their season by winning its first game, 2-0, over Brooklyn Poly, at Astoria Park in Queens, Saturday.

Baruch had come close before but never had the game to their liking. Among the losses were the Baruchians against Catholic University of America and Yale University.

Towards the final rounds, the team looked at some international teams, with the two finalists having different ethnic backgrounds.チェック Mark of Oriental Heritage was the winner over Frank Kopkows, who made his coaching debut this season.

Four goals within 12 minutes during the second half, put Baruch ahead to stay. In the early minutes of the third period, the Baruchians, proved too much for the competitors. Baruch's defense was solid and their attack was a force to be reckoned with.

Junior Paul Manley and Noah Zayas were the main scorers, with Manley scoring a hat trick. Steve Hockstein, who was steady-eddy, for three goals.

Four goals were scored in the first half, with Baruch leading 23-18 and 28-18. The victory was also the first for Walter Kopczuk, who made his coaching debut this season.
