We believe with perfect faith in our total allegiance to the cause of the Arts in all its aspects, including the Theatre and the Cinema, and in the defence of the Jewish Defense League, which was established to fight for the survival of the Jewish people.

The Jewish Defense League (J.D.L.) was formed because of the need for a new weapon against the enemies of the Jewish people. It was formed because of the need for a new weapon against the enemies of the Jewish people.

The J.D.L. is a national organization with chapters in all parts of the country. It is financed by voluntary contributions from Jewish men and women who are determined to fight for the survival of the Jewish people.

The J.D.L. is not a political party or a trade union. It is an organization of men and women who are determined to protect the Jewish people from the forces of communism and anti-Semitism.
