Baruch Prepares For Budget Showdown

by Michael Agranoff

A coordinating committee was organized by President Wingfield to give the current problem of funding for The City University of New York (CUNY). This committee is the President's Coordinating Committee on The Budget Crisis whose coordinator is William R. Monat, Dean of Faculties. Also on the committee, which is comprised of both students and faculty, are: Michael Agranoff; Alicia Alvarez; David Epstein; Jim Flanders; Marilyn Furman; Wilber Gilbert; Barry Goldstein; Robert Greenberger; Mitchell Greenstein; Jeffrey Lomasky; Elizabeth Pizzaro; Chris Rodriguez; Carlos Vasquez; Jose Vives; Norris Wilder and Dean Maurice C. Benvenuto; Dean Julius J. Manese; Dean Roy R. Senour; Prof. Theodore H. Lang; Dr. Samuel From-Alma; Prof. Donna E. Shalala; Dr. Donald Smith; Dr. John A. Marlin; Dr. Ronald Gatty; Dr. Abraham J. Briloff; Prof. Edward Premman; Dr. Constance Denne; Dr. Aaron Levenstein.

The meeting started at 4:00 p.m. on Febru­ary 7 at 4:00. Although most the faculty was there only a few student members were there due to lack of time to announce the meeting. The meeting began with Dean Monat welcoming everyone and advising that Baruch's stay at Baruch should be a rewarding one.

Senate Elections
To Be Held in Class
The Student Senate Election that was scheduled for February 8, 9, and 10 was postponed to February 13th. The election will be conducted in all classes—excluding the Student Center. The plans are still tentative for the second election.

The positions are limited to one Vice President, six representatives to each class, and three representatives-at-large.

L.A. Faculty Discusses Courses, Tuition Crisis

Dr. Arthur W. Brown has been appointed Dean of the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences. President Clyde Wingfield, announcing Presiden­t Monat's resignation, said that the appointment will become effective as of July 1st.

New Liberal Arts Dean Named
by Linda Matusa

He has been Dean of Associated Colleges since July 1, through June 30. After spending two years at Fordham University, he became President of the Graduate School, and Vice President for Academic Affairs. On February 7th at the Liberal Arts faculty meeting said that Dr. Brown's appointment will become effective as of July 1st.

Dr. Brown's name was submitted to President Wingfield for consideration by the Liberal Arts Dean Search Committee. The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the effects of the proposed zero increase budget. The committee consisted of five faculty members, President Monat, and four students.

Dr. Brown has expressed concern with student involvement. "You are what the university is all about," he said, "and you should be as active in the university as possible."

The purpose of the meeting was to discuss the effects of the proposed zero increase budget. The committee consisted of five faculty members, President Monat, and four students.

The meeting was attended by Administration, Faculty, student and community representatives.

CUNY Presidents of Manhattan Colleges Meet

The presidents of the five CUNY colleges in the Borough of Manhattan, including those in the Graduate School, and the City University of New York, met last week to discuss the problems facing the schools in the borough. The meeting was called to discuss the problems facing the schools in the borough. The meeting was called by President Cuny for Budget Showdown.

Baruch College opened the discussion with an ex­planation of how the school will be affected by the proposed budget cut. Dr. Clyde J. Wingfield, in talking about the proposed cuts, said that the school was able to absorb the cuts by reducing the number of faculty and staff. He also pointed out that the school was able to save money by reducing the number of courses offered.

CUNY Presidents of Manhattan Colleges Meet

The presidents of the five CUNY colleges in the Borough of Manhattan, including those in the Graduate School, and the City University of New York, met last week to discuss the problems facing the schools in the borough. The meeting was called to discuss the problems facing the schools in the borough. The meeting was called by President Cuny for Budget Showdown.

Baruch College opened the discussion with an ex­planation of how the school will be affected by the proposed budget cut. Dr. Clyde J. Wingfield, in talking about the proposed cuts, said that the school was able to absorb the cuts by reducing the number of faculty and staff. He also pointed out that the school was able to save money by reducing the number of courses offered.

CUNY Presidents of Manhattan Colleges Meet

The presidents of the five CUNY colleges in the Borough of Manhattan, including those in the Graduate School, and the City University of New York, met last week to discuss the problems facing the schools in the borough. The meeting was called to discuss the problems facing the schools in the borough. The meeting was called by President Cuny for Budget Showdown.

Baruch College opened the discussion with an ex­planation of how the school will be affected by the proposed budget cut. Dr. Clyde J. Wingfield, in talking about the proposed cuts, said that the school was able to absorb the cuts by reducing the number of faculty and staff. He also pointed out that the school was able to save money by reducing the number of courses offered.
ANNOUNCEMENTS

212's Creative Workshops

Inner Search Series
Friday - Workshops
7:30 pm in 212
With Morry Mintz

Art Workshop
Mondays and Fridays with Cleve
This week: Calligraphy

Photo Workshop with Ken Wax
Thurs. 9:30 pm in 402

Music Workshop With Mike and Jesus
Tues. 2-5 in the Oak Lounge
Tues. 12-2 Lessons in the Oak Lounge with Jesus.

Faculty Student Debate
Faculty Student Debate Series - Wednesday nights - 8:30 pm - location to be announced.

OPEN TO ALL STUDENTS - Jan. 212

Inner Search Series At 7 P.M.
February 18, 1972

Adventures in Self Series: Yoga - "Stephen Reger"
- Demonstrations & Discussions

- creating different states of consciousness through the body
- which affects gland, nerve, etc. creating emotional states.

- use of sounds and chanting in meditation.

- demonstrating different positions in breathing techniques.

- position of yoga as science, philosophy of the east.

- taking symbols and feeling meaning in them.

With: Bill Russo Certified Teacher of Yoga
Student of Swami, Vishnudasanada
Taught at Richmond Center, St. Vincent's Hospital and South Beach Clinic Y.M.C.A.
For Information: Morry Mintz
Rosen 212 Student Center

OPEN TO ALL STUDENTS Rom. 212
Whose Fight Is It?

Where are the students? Where are the sign makers? Where are the picket lines? Where are the speeches? Where are the people whose academic future is threatened by Racketeers' (name賣期)?

The general feeling of "They'll find money; they always do" can no longer apply to this year's CUNY budget crisis. This year the crisis is too near home. These people are us. These events are happening to us. This battle is our battle, and it is our responsibility to begin to think and act as one.

The extreme concern shown by the administration and faculty—concern that was not shown in the past in such significant issues; such as whether or not they will have to pay tuition, go above their heads. It's about time we showed such concern. And it's about time we did something about it.

The general feeling of "They'll find money; they always do" can no longer apply to this year's CUNY budget crisis. This year the crisis is too near home. These people are us. These events are happening to us. This battle is our battle, and it is our responsibility to begin to think and act as one.

The extreme concern shown by the administration and faculty—concern that was not shown in the past in such significant issues; such as whether or not they will have to pay tuition, go above their heads. It's about time we showed such concern. And it's about time we did something about it.

---

Letters

To The Editor

The extreme concern shown by the administration and faculty—concern that was not shown in the past in such significant issues; such as whether or not they will have to pay tuition, go above their heads. It's about time we showed such concern. And it's about time we did something about it.

The extreme concern shown by the administration and faculty—concern that was not shown in the past in such significant issues; such as whether or not they will have to pay tuition, go above their heads. It's about time we showed such concern. And it's about time we did something about it.

---

The OUTSIDER

---

VOICE

---

Draft Quest

---

A recent article in the New York Times reported on the growing number of college students who are enlisting in the military to avoid being drafted. The article highlighted the efforts of some groups to help students evade the draft by obtaining exemptions on religious grounds or by proving that they are unable to serve. The article also noted that some students are taking their own lives to avoid being drafted.

---

The next issue of Ticker will appear on Wednesday, Feb. 23.
THE BCCC

M. Kwerel, was appointed on January 15, 1973, as the first Assistant Dean at the Baruch College Center. The BCCC is composed of 28 members: 12 for the School of Business Administration, 8 for the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences, 5 for the School of Architecture and Planning, and 3 for the School of Engineering and Natural Sciences.

World Use Before The Mathematical Department is Current At Baruch?

If you are wondering what the BCCC is, here is a short introduction to the Committee on College Curriculum. The BCCC is a faculty advisory group which advises the administration and the faculty on matters pertaining to the development, revision, and maintenance of the curriculum. The BCCC is a voluntary group of faculty members who are elected by the faculty to represent the faculty in matters concerning the curriculum.

The BCCC meets once a month, and its meetings are open to all faculty members. The BCCC is composed of 28 members, 12 for the School of Business Administration, 8 for the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences, 5 for the School of Architecture and Planning, and 3 for the School of Engineering and Natural Sciences.

The BCCC is the only faculty advisory group which has the power to make recommendations to the administration. The BCCC is composed of 28 members, 12 for the School of Business Administration, 8 for the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences, 5 for the School of Architecture and Planning, and 3 for the School of Engineering and Natural Sciences.

LOOKING FOR EXTRA MONEY?

Well here's a perfect opportunity

Agents are wanted

To work in their spare time, for a travel agency.

VERY GOOD COMMISSION

CALL:

871-1126 or 633-2539

THE MATH DEPARTMENT

The Math Department has been a prominent feature of Baruch College for several years. The department has been known for its strong emphasis on theoretical mathematics and has been a leader in the development of mathematical models and techniques.

The Math Department is currently composed of 28 members, 12 for the School of Business Administration, 8 for the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences, 5 for the School of Architecture and Planning, and 3 for the School of Engineering and Natural Sciences.

The Math Department is the only faculty advisory group which has the power to make recommendations to the administration. The Math Department is composed of 28 members, 12 for the School of Business Administration, 8 for the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences, 5 for the School of Architecture and Planning, and 3 for the School of Engineering and Natural Sciences.

TICKETS

Wednesday, February 17th S

North Lounge S. C., 12-2 P.M.
ATTENTION
ALL CLUBS & ORGANIZATIONS

Deadline for submitting budget requests for the spring 1972 term is Wednesday, February 16....

All budgets must be submitted on official forms only.
If you have not received one in your mailbox, they are available in room 411 S.C. If you have any questions regarding the procedures you budget contact me through room 411 S.C. or room 316 S.C.

Barry Goldstein
Treasurer.
I am an immigrant to America who applied for admission because of the low scores on my high school record and the immediate access to...