Announcements

Student Draft Counseling

The Student Draft Counseling is available on Tuesdays and Wednesdays from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. in Room 212 of the Admin Building. The counseling is free and confidential, and is provided by trained volunteers who are experienced in military and civil service options. In addition, the counseling offers guidance on academic and career planning, and helps students explore their options for service in the military. Students who are interested in learning more about the counseling or who would like to schedule an appointment can contact Mr. Kopczuk in the Draft Counseling office at 307 A. Student Services.

Spring Festival of Concerts

The Spring Festival of Concerts will feature a wide variety of performing arts events, including music, dance, and theater performances. The festival will be held from April 25th to May 3rd, with events taking place in various locations on campus. The festival includes a concert by the American Federation of University Teachers (AFU), which will be held on Tuesday, April 25th at 8:00 p.m. in the Student Center. Attendees are encouraged to purchase tickets in advance to ensure their seats.

What Freshman Seminar is Not

What Freshman Seminar is Not

This is the third in a five-part series on the effectiveness of Freshman Seminars. In this installment, the author discusses the limitations of Freshman Seminars and the need for alternative approaches to improve student retention and academic success. The seminar provides strategies for faculty and administrators to enhance the Freshman Seminar experience and foster a more inclusive learning environment. The seminar is open to all faculty and administrators interested in Freshman Seminar programming.

Freshman Orientation: Strike One

Dr. Vincent Bryan will discuss the challenges and opportunities that arise during Freshman Orientation. The seminar will explore the importance of orientation for student retention and success, and provide strategies for preparing students for academic, social, and personal challenges. The seminar is open to all faculty and administrators interested in Freshman Orientation programming.

Help - Do You Need It?

Help - Do You Need It?
