Mr. Edward James, who was suspended following the incident at the last Student Government meeting, where he hit Ms. Linda Williams, Chairman of Student Government, has been reinstated following his suspension. Mr. James also has been placed on social probation and is not allowed to hold a job in the Student Center. In addition, he has been banned from all student government meetings.

The following letter was sent to Mr. James by Dean of Students, Roy Simon, on September 27, 1973:

I. Mr. James shall be permitted to return to classes October 1, 1973.
2. He shall not be employed at the Student Center at any time.
3. He cannot participate in any Student Government meetings or serve on student government committees while an undergraduate.
4. He shall be on social probation until he graduates, subject to immediate suspension for any violations of college regulations.

In broad terms, these points mean that you are not to be present at Baruch College before October, except for one Math course on Wednesday, September 25, 1973; and that social probation implies that any infringement of regulations governing student conduct means automatic suspension from Baruch College.

Sincerely yours,
Roy Simon
Dean of Students

The History Society started its Fall series of lectures this past Thursday by hosting Fordham University Professor Bernice Rosenthal's discourse on "The Sexual Revolution in Russia." The lightly attended lecture ran for almost ninety minutes, dealt with the Soviet woman's struggle for liberation.

Professor Rosenthal divided her lecture into three periods. The periods ranging from the Bolsheviki Revolution to 1928, from 1928 to 1963, and from 1963 to the present. She also gave a pre-history overview of Soviet society, which depicted them as slaves, having the same economic and psychological ramifications.

The Society announced that this Thursday, October 11th, Professor

Workshops

by Bob Lipson

October 11 and 25, the School of Education will sponsor workshops for education majors to plan their programs. To be held between 12 P.M. and 2 P.M., the workshops will take place in the following locations: Room 114, 24th Street Building for elementary education majors, and Room 4 South in the Main Building for secondary education majors. Prior to the workshops, all students should fill out worksheets, available from your teachers, or from the Secretary on the tenth floor of the 315 Park Avenue South Building. These must be made out in DULICATE. All information must be filled in or asterisked program cannot be approved. It is requested that these be turned in to my office so that I might personally review the conditions of your attendance at Baruch College. Before returning to class on Monday, October 1, 1973, you are to report to my office so that I might personally review the conditions of your attendance at Baruch College.

Letters To The Editor

THE ELECTIONS

As TICKEr goes to press, we find ourselves waiting for the President who will run next year. The elections are not the only reason we have to wait. There are many who wish to see the election validated. Concluding: democracy is not just a right; it is a responsibility. All day long we strive to see that the student government is changed. But, if we take the outgoing Student Government Guidelines and the guidelines for the incoming government, the difference is striking. It is not the same. It is not the same. It is not the same.

SO, NOW WHAT?

It would seem that the last chapter of the 3000字 TICKEr has been written. The Dean of Students has handed the job over to the outgoing group, including the president. The new president, in turn, will hand the job over to the next president. This is the way it has been and will continue to be. It is the way we have always known it to be.

Can TICKEr go to press every week now, certain that no more than 3000 characters is enough? How about the rest of the week? How about the rest of the week? How about the rest of the week? How about the rest of the week? How about the rest of the week?

We have one final question to ask whenever it may and we doubt it to concern what you do intend to do about this.

The Seek, you haven't done enough.

I think that at least 50% of the student body voted. There is no point in having a student government if only one student is being punished.

The Varsity Tennis Team will hold practice & tryouts the Armony (Lex. Ave. & 25th St.), Thursday, Oct. 11 & 18 at 12 P.M. See Coach R. Givone beforehand in Rm. 708 or 725.

PART TIMERS
Spend your spare time more profitably at ALEXANDER'S. Advertisements are any way to make spare bread. Advertising any way makes a better person. No one has ever gotten a free lift or a free ride from someone who's got personality, hopped down and interview for either full time or part time. Take an ad in the city. Go out and get money. Ready to make. Skills, prospects, and get Crescenta de.

Hone, money can't buy you, but it can buy you a lot of things. If you're sticking to the idea of a few extra dollars, Alexander's can do it. A few extra dollars, a few extra hours. If you're looking to make money, we're looking for you. If you're looking to make extra dollars, we're looking for you. We're looking for people who want to work. We're looking for people who want to work. We're looking for people who want to work.

Throw on your white sportswear, do up your pink sneakers and get ready to move and groove. But the deal at Alexander's, you can do it to.

Music Comedy Workshop To Stage CABARET
by Paula Neuwirth

The idea of this musical workshop is to provide the opportunity for students to work in a musical setting, to learn what it's like to be a professional musician, and to have fun in the process.

The workshop is open to all students in the musical theater program. It is directed by Dr. Robert S. Lieberman, Associate Professor of Music, and is supported by the Musical Theatre Program of the College of Liberal Arts.

The workshop will meet on Tuesdays and Thursdays from 4:00-6:00 PM in room 1203. Those interested in joining should contact the faculty advisor, Dr. Lieberman, at 212-534-7777.

BIO-MED FACTS
So You Can Be a Doctor in 6 Years, Eh?
by Richard Rodrigues

The program is designed for students who are interested in pursuing a career in the health sciences.

The program involves the completion of a minimum of 80 hours of medical school study, 20 hours of clinical training, and 20 hours of research.

The program is open to students who have completed the first two years of college and are interested in pursuing a career in medicine.

For more information, please contact the Office of Undergraduate Admissions at 212-534-7777.

The best way to attract more students to the school is to provide a more enjoyable and stimulating environment. The current academic year has been marred by a number of negative events, including strikes, budget cuts, and faculty layoffs. These events have made it difficult for students to concentrate on their studies, and have contributed to a decline in the quality of education.

We need to take action to address these problems and to improve the overall quality of education at the school. This is the only way we can ensure that our students receive a quality education.

Yours truly,

The Insider

For many years now, NYU and VCU, as well as other schools, have offered 3+3 programs, where students have completed their first three years of undergraduate study and have then been accepted into medical school. This has been a popular option for students who are interested in pursuing a career in medicine.

A new trend has been the 2+2 programs, which allow students to complete their first two years of college and then transfer to a medical school. This option is appealing to students who are not sure if they want to pursue a career in medicine, as it allows them to explore other options before committing to medical school.

In the future, we can expect to see more schools offering these programs, as they provide a more flexible and cost-effective way for students to pursue a career in medicine.

Cross-Country

The Baruch Cross-Country team, receiving little in the way of a challenge, overwhelmed the runners of York College on Sept. 29th in a meet at Van Cortlandt Park. Baruch's runners dominated the standings with seven of the top eight finishers.

Coming in first was Galon of York College with a combined time of 29:08. Places 2 through 8 were captured by Baruch runners. Here are the finishing times: Steve Tepper-second (30:26), Gerry Mortensen-third (31:48), Saulo Zayas-fourth (31:50), Hal Ramsay-fifth (32:26), Tony Chmura-sixth (33:02), Al Bolton-seventh (33:47), and Jeff Romahtz-eighth (36:17).

Track Coach Roy Cbernok believes that the team could improve on their times. He suspects that the runners were not at their best because of the lack of a challenge from the York runners. Coach Cbernok hopes to see more from the team as the competition picks up.

This Week in Sports

Cross-Country — Tomorrow afternoon (Oct. 10) Baruch opposes Adelphi.

Basketball — The Baruch basketball team will play LIU at 1 P.M. today in their home opener at the Student Center.

Baseball — The Baruch ball-club will travel to Queens College to play an away doubleheader this Sunday, Oct. 14. The first game starts at 11 A.M.

Bowling — Baruch's bowlers compete against Queens College today at 3 P.M.
