humanitarian values went so far as to aid the entrapped third army of Egypt. As of now, the Egyptians continue to violate the Geneva Convention policy of releasing all the names of Israeli prisoners of war, and refused to allow the International Red Cross to care for the wounded.

Meanwhile, Israel will never neglect the chances of peace in the Middle East. Peri concluded by saying that Israel would possibly give up the area around the Barley Line, demilitarise the Sinai area with U.N. troops, and go as far as giving up Sharon-Eilbeik, only if both sides agree to a realistic and long-lasting peace.

Most importantly, Israel needs continued support from their true only allies, the United States, and the Jewish people.

The treacherous attack of the Arab nations upon Israel brought the most holy Jewish day to a screaming halt— calling for her sons to drop their

"sifdus" and attack themselves to such peaceful objects as artillery, bomber, and bridgets on the soil of their homeland.

What can we do? — How can

We can rally: we can protest the

To the surprise of many, Bar-ruch slightly overcame its apathy with the help of Hillel, Lahav,

IN THE STUDIES

The department is interested in students who come from a variety of backgrounds, including those who have never attended college before. Students from these backgrounds often find that they can adjust to the college environment by being open to new ideas and by taking the time to learn from their mistakes. These students are encouraged to register for a broad range of courses, including those in the humanities, social sciences, and natural sciences. Students who have already attended college are also encouraged to register for courses that will help them excel in their careers.

ATTENDANCE COMMITTEE

The purpose of this committee is to ensure that students attend class regularly. Students who do not attend class regularly are asked to explain why they were absent and to provide documentation of their absence. Students who are consistently absent are asked to discuss their attendance with their instructors and to develop a plan to improve their attendance.

INSIDE SPORTS

by STU APTOFF

You bet! Exactly what I want! How did you feel, after you saw the game last night? What?

"Well, I agree, it was a good game, but I was disappointed with the Phila-"...

"...Flyers. They really let the loose shots get by them. I really prefer the black and white, but I guess that's just me."

Getting back to you, which is the football game I really enjoyed watching last night? The New York Giants versus the Buffalo Bills.

And when things started to really get down, you could always turn to the New York Giants and see them action up. And when things started to really get you down you could always turn to the New York Giants and see them action up.

That's my boys. Frank, DeJohn, Bradley, Sosa, Reed, and the rest. New York Giants! That's my boys."

Now I see the final standings:

NBA—Eastern Conference
New York
Boston
Atlanta
Philadelphia
Cleveland

Flyers—Eastern Conference
New York over Boston in the Eastern Finals.

Chicago
Los Angeles
Milwaukee
Golden State
Dallas
San Antonio
Phoenix

Look for Los Angeles in the Western Finals. I pick the Lakers to repeat in six over the Bulls.

NHL—Eastern Div.
Western Div.

N.Y. Rangers
Detroit
Boston
Pittsburgh
Philadelphia
Toronto
Los Angeles
Buffalo
Minnesota
St. Louis
Chicago

Look for the Rangers to finally win the cup in a tough seven game battle with the Philadelphia Flyers.
