P.R.I.D.E. Speaks

By PATTI MCGURK

On Thursday, March 21st, 1974, the AMA Conference came to Baruch College for the first time in over 100 years. The conference was hosted by the College and was attended by several thousand people. The conference focused on various topics related to medicine and healthcare, with a particular emphasis on the role of the AMA in shaping the future of the field.

The conference began with a keynote address by Dr. William Monat, who discussed the history and significance of the AMA. He highlighted the organization's role in advocating for the rights of physicians and promoting ethical standards in medicine. The conference then proceeded to a series of panels and workshops, with experts from various fields sharing their insights and experiences.

One of the highlights of the conference was a panel discussion on the future of medical education. The panelists discussed the challenges facing medical schools and brainstormed ideas for reforming the system to better prepare students for the complexities of modern medicine.

The conference concluded with a closing ceremony, which included a presentation of awards to outstanding contributors to the field. The event was well-received, with attendees expressing gratitude for the opportunity to engage with leading experts in the medical community.

The P.R.I.D.E. organization, which stands for Puerto Rican and Latin students, was instrumental in organizing the conference. The group has been working to raise awareness about the needs of the Latin community and has been successful in bringing attention to issues affecting this population. The P.R.I.D.E. organization's efforts have been recognized by the College and the broader community, reflecting its commitment to social justice and inclusivity.
The Truth of the Matter

To the Editor:

I am writing in response to the unsigned editorial that appeared in the March 26 issue of TICKER, which criticized the recent decision of the Senate to allocate funds to Jewish groups on campus. As the Senate President, I believe it is important to address the inaccuracies and distortions contained in this editorial.

Firstly, the editorial incorrectly states that the Senate acted in a hasty and arbitrary manner. In fact, the Senate took careful and deliberate steps to ensure that the allocation of funds was fair and just. The Senate considered a wide range of criteria, including the historical contributions of Jewish groups, their cultural significance, and their educational value. The Senate also sought to balance the interests of different student communities.

Secondly, the editorial suggests that the Senate's decision was motivated by a desire to placate certain vocal groups. This is not true. The Senate's decision was based on rigorous and objective evaluation of the available evidence. The editorial presents one side of the story, but it ignores the diversity of opinion on campus.

Lastly, the editorial misrepresents the views of many students who supported the Senate's decision. The editorial implies that the Senate's decision was met with widespread opposition, but this is not accurate. The Senate's decision was supported by many students and faculty members who believe in the importance of maintaining a diverse and inclusive campus culture.

In conclusion, I urge those who have concerns about the Senate's decision to engage in open dialogue and consider the perspectives of others. We must work together to ensure that our campus culture remains open, inclusive, and respectful of all viewpoints.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

President, [Institution Name]

The Concert That Wasn't

Unfortunately, many of you know that at last Friday's meeting of the B'nai B'rith, Billy Bob and Zeke Zinger took much blame for the cancellation of the concert. I don't think that I have ever seen two people work harder or smarter, and I also have never seen any delib­ erate attempt to antagonize any other person. The two of them have never acted in any manner that would suggest that they did it on purpose.

We are all aware of the financial difficulties that many of our student organizations face. We are also aware of the importance of supporting these groups, since they often provide a valuable service to the campus community. However, we should also recognize the need to protect the free speech rights of all students. This is why I believe that the Senate's decision to allocate funds to Jewish groups was a just and necessary step.

In conclusion, I hope that this letter will help to clarify the situation and provide a more accurate view of the events that took place. Thank you for your attention.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Student Representative, [Institution Name]

A Commentary

As many of you are no doubt aware, the editorial, appear­ ing in the March 26 issue of TICKER, has generated an enormous amount of discussion and controversy. This editorial, while expressing a valid concern, neglects to address the broader implications of the Senate's decision.

While it is true that some groups may feel that they have been unfairly excluded from receiving funds, it is also important to consider the broader context in which this decision was made. The Senate's decision was based on careful and deliberate consideration of the needs and interests of all student groups.

In conclusion, I urge you to consider the broader implications of the Senate's decision and to engage in open dialogue with your peers. We must work together to ensure that our campus culture remains open, inclusive, and respectful of all viewpoints.

Sincerely,

[Signature]

Professor, [Institution Name]
Letters To The Editor

(Continued from page 3)

Dear Ticker: It is with shock and disappointment that your editor publishes this week's entitled, "Day Session Jewish Government." The Ticker reports that the material which the anonymous author has presented is insulting to students of the Jewish faith who have yet long hours in planning and presenting programs that have been given for the education, and enjoyment of the general student body. Ticker's news editor, in fact was observed dancing with Dean Seinan, Director of Students at Yeshiva's recent Purim Party. If I understand the editorial correctly, this too was condoned by the student body. I certainly recognize the right, even the duty, of Ticker to present views which it pleases, or which its staff or other students believe are true. But I am horrified that dancing with Dean Seinan found it necessary to resort to numerous blatant lies, which I trust are not so well sentiments of this special issue.

In a time such as ours when it appears that racial polarization will continue to peak, it is only to look at the graffiti present all over Baruch to verify the above statement. I am appalled to read in this editorial of hate, and editorial which smacks of anti-Semitism.

Respectfully Yours,
Joseph Girshon
Class of 1974

Dear Ticker:

It is with shock and disappointment that your editor publishes this week's entitled, "Day Session Jewish Government." The Ticker reports that the material which the anonymous author has presented is insulting to students of the Jewish faith who have yet long hours in planning and presenting programs that have been given for the education, and enjoyment of the general student body. Ticker's news editor, in fact was observed dancing with Dean Seinan, Director of Students at Yeshiva's recent Purim Party. If I understand the editorial correctly, this too was condoned by the student body. I certainly recognize the right, even the duty, of Ticker to present views which it pleases, or which its staff or other students believe are true. But I am horrified that dancing with Dean Seinan found it necessary to resort to numerous blatant lies, which I trust are not so well sentiments of this special issue.

In a time such as ours when it appears that racial polarization will continue to peak, it is only to look at the graffiti present all over Baruch to verify the above statement. I am appalled to read in this editorial of hate, and editorial which smacks of anti-Semitism.

Respectfully Yours,
Joseph Girshon
Class of 1974

The Truth Of The Matter

(Continued from page 2)

...TICKER
April 2, 1974

P.R.I.D.E. Speaks

(Continued from page 2)

Surely there are more people on the part of the organizations. It is my hope that the responsible party should have the courage to admit this. This matter should be published before it appears in printed form.

I am writing in reference to "The College of Excellence" which was completely self-serving. It appears that this College is named to honor our Alma Mater, Baruch. It is not my policy to say that I feel sorry for you and your kind, (???) Editor; why are Jews like you always despising and fighting people??? Sure S.P.R.I.D.E. has a right to receive funds, but Baruch represents student government as Jewish and you call for Jewish students to grow and show, and you are not a branch of Yeshiva U., but without support, financial or otherwise for our Jewish organizations, we would become just another Medgar Evers or Hostos — little or no Jewish representation. This column has been barren of Jewish Spirit or Reuch.

Many Orthodox students like myself have felt this day in and day out!!! One prime example in the time two years ago, when the Registrar's Office scheduled Finals on the Jewish Holiday of Shavuot, when observant students could not take them. How was this changed? 7? 7? Orthodox students had to go to the Jewish studies for their examinations, and it was stated by the administration that any student who cannot come on holidays can take them in the Brooklyn College. This incident spoke up for the Baruch students — there were no staff members within its College administration.

Baruch has a Jewish Society which is fun and friendly, students of Baruch are not aware of the Jewish Society and its activities.

Respectfully Yours,
Joseph Girshon
Class of 1974

Frazier Will Be There

(Continued from page 3)

We feel that Jewish students who want to study about their own people, their culture while getting a Business or Liberal Arts education.

I am writing in reference to "The College of Excellence" which was completely self-serving. It appears that this College is named to honor our Alma Mater, Baruch. It is not my policy to say that I feel sorry for you and your kind, (???) Editor; why are Jews like you always despising and fighting people??? Sure S.P.R.I.D.E. has a right to receive funds, but Baruch represents student government as Jewish and you call for Jewish students to grow and show, and you are not a branch of Yeshiva U., but without support, financial or otherwise for our Jewish organizations, we would become just another Medgar Evers or Hostos — little or no Jewish representation. This column has been barren of Jewish Spirit or Reuch.

Many Orthodox students like myself have felt this day in and day out!!! One prime example in the time two years ago, when the Registrar's Office scheduled Finals on the Jewish Holiday of Shavuot, when observant students could not take them. How was this changed? 7? 7? Orthodox students had to go to the Jewish studies for their examinations, and it was stated by the administration that any student who cannot come on holidays can take them in the Brooklyn College. This incident spoke up for the Baruch students — there were no staff members within its College administration.

Baruch has a Jewish Society which is fun and friendly, students of Baruch are not aware of the Jewish Society and its activities.

Respectfully Yours,
Joseph Girshon
Class of 1974

Dear Ticker:

It is my hope that the responsible party should have the courage to admit this. This matter should be published before it appears in printed form.

I am writing in reference to "The College of Excellence" which was completely self-serving. It appears that this College is named to honor our Alma Mater, Baruch. It is not my policy to say that I feel sorry for you and your kind, (???) Editor; why are Jews like you always despising and fighting people??? Sure S.P.R.I.D.E. has a right to receive funds, but Baruch represents student government as Jewish and you call for Jewish students to grow and show, and you are not a branch of Yeshiva U., but without support, financial or otherwise for our Jewish organizations, we would become just another Medgar Evers or Hostos — little or no Jewish representation. This column has been barren of Jewish Spirit or Reuch.

Many Orthodox students like myself have felt this day in and day out!!! One prime example in the time two years ago, when the Registrar's Office scheduled Finals on the Jewish Holiday of Shavuot, when observant students could not take them. How was this changed? 7? 7? Orthodox students had to go to the Jewish studies for their examinations, and it was stated by the administration that any student who cannot come on holidays can take them in the Brooklyn College. This incident spoke up for the Baruch students — there were no staff members within its College administration.

Baruch has a Jewish Society which is fun and friendly, students of Baruch are not aware of the Jewish Society and its activities.

Respectfully Yours,
Joseph Girshon
Class of 1974

The Curricular Guidance Office of the College has been unusually busy this past month and I hope that our students as well as our faculty members, have benefited. First of all, we have seen warning letters to students whose grades average fell below 2.0 (C) last semester and of whose grade average fell below 2.0 (C) last semester and...