Like Father, Like Son

By Dick Lapin

"Like Father, Like Son" is the title of the new movie starring Frank and Michael. The story is about a father who is trying to teach his son how to be a good, hardworking citizen. However, the son is more interested in the latest fashion trends and is not interested in following his father's advice. The movie is a heartwarming tale of the father-son relationship and the importance of understanding and respecting each other's differences.
