BETA GAMMA SIGMA TO CELEBRATE 40TH ANNIVERSARY

According to Professor Leonard Lakin, President, the Beta Gamma Sigma Honor Society will be inducting approximately 365 students and Professor Aaron Levenson and Dean Alvin Puryear at its annual induction dinner to be held on May 7th. In addition, two charter members who founded this Beta Gamma Sigma Chapter will also be honored - Professors Austin A. Foster and Max Zimerman.

Electives to Beta Gamma Sigma is nationally recognized as the highest academic honor conferred on students of business in American colleges and universities, and the eligibility requirements, which include scholarship, integrity, character and promise of professional development, parallel those for election to Phi Beta Kappa in Liberal Arts Colleges.

This year's honorees will be Mr. Raymond Brady, Director-in-Chief of Dean's Review, the national business periodical published by Dun and Bradstreet, and WCBS Business News commentator. At the induction ceremony Mr. Brady will speak on "The Business Graduate: And The Next Two Years."

Mr. Brady's weekend business show, "Your Dollars," is carried on the CBS Radio Network, and is heard on stations across the nation. He has also appeared on WCBS-TV, interviewing prominent business leaders in business and finance. He was one of the first to warn of the then-approaching energy crisis, and the potential of its effect on the stock market, and has scored a number of "frontpage" revealing shortages that were cropping up in the economy.

Under his editorship, the circulation of Dean's Review has more than doubled. Its magazine is now read by 220,000 business men.

According to Professor Levenson, business and economic topics appeared in a variety of publications, including The Reader's Digest and New York magazine.

He is frequently invited to speak before professional, social and educational groups, and has appeared on many television talk shows.

Interview With Bonnie Levine

Interview with Ms. Bonnie Levine, the Evening Session Student Government Representative to the Curriculum Committee for the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences (CC-SLA).

By Joseph F. Suarez

CC-SLA

April 17, the Curriculum Committee for the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences met. After ten minutes of previous meetings, I agree with the guidelines for an electorate study which prohibits a student from taking such a course.

A study is a similar course is being offered within two years from the student's request. As a participant in this program, I find it only logical for departments to set such rules so that we do not have one-hundred students requesting a different teacher. Writing Workshop I. I find the college and the system more accommodating when there is a reasonable request.

However, I have some reservations about two courses that were approved which require more majors to take two hours of class and one hour of lab for two credits; however, it was felt that students would naturally gravitate to the laboratory since it provides unique opportunities.

Ombudsman

I hope that the Baruch College Council will give the General Student Body the cooperation needed to make its officers do their job. I understand the difficulties of the job for which his office was intended. For too long, officials have been more interested in maintaining their status within their league. (They) have hidden their mission often through the image of cooperation, behind that image, there is no time, that officials aren't fulfilling. The worst officials would disappear quicker. Instead of being able to hide in the immensity that has protected the student gobierno.

Mr. Dave Anderson (New York Times) has involved in the University's efforts with Abdul-Jabbar of the Milwaukee Bucks threatening to take the imitative gesture. National Basketball Association officials to court, will be inducted into the Civil Liberties Union attorney's club.

Writers is the College Magazine and the staff of the magazine have compiled a guide for primary recommendations on undergraduate programs in Psychology. The guide is an excellent source for primary recommendations on undergraduate programs in Psychology.

Writing Workshop I. I find the college and the system more accommodating when there is a reasonable request. However, I have some reservations about two courses that were approved which require more majors to take two hours of class and one hour of lab for two credits; however, it was felt that students would naturally gravitate to the laboratory since it provides unique opportunities.

Interview With Bonnie Levine

Interview with Ms. Bonnie Levine, the Evening Session Student Government Representative to the Curriculum Committee for the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences (CC-SLA).

By Joseph F. Suarez

CC-SLA

April 17, the Curriculum Committee for the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences met. After ten minutes of previous meetings, I agree with the guidelines for an electorate study which prohibits a student from taking such a course.

A study is a similar course is being offered within two years from the student's request. As a participant in this program, I find it only logical for departments to set such rules so that we do not have one-hundred students requesting a different teacher. Writing Workshop I. I find the college and the system more accommodating when there is a reasonable request.

However, I have some reservations about two courses that were approved which require more majors to take two hours of class and one hour of lab for two credits; however, it was felt that students would naturally gravitate to the laboratory since it provides unique opportunities.

Ombudsman

I hope that the Baruch College Council will give the General Student Body the cooperation needed to make its officers do their job. I understand the difficulties of the job for which his office was intended. For too long, officials have been more interested in maintaining their status within their league. (They) have hidden their mission often through the image of cooperation, behind that image, there is no time, that officials aren't fulfilling. The worst officials would disappear quicker. Instead of being able to hide in the immensity that has protected the student gobierno.

Mr. Dave Anderson (New York Times) has involved in the University's efforts with Abdul-Jabbar of the Milwaukee Bucks threatening to take the imitative gesture. National Basketball Association officials to court, will be inducted into the Civil Liberties Union attorney's club.

Writers is the College Magazine and the staff of the magazine have compiled a guide for primary recommendations on undergraduate programs in Psychology. The guide is an excellent source for primary recommendations on undergraduate programs in Psychology.

Writing Workshop I. I find the college and the system more accommodating when there is a reasonable request. However, I have some reservations about two courses that were approved which require more majors to take two hours of class and one hour of lab for two credits; however, it was felt that students would naturally gravitate to the laboratory since it provides unique opportunities.

Interview With Bonnie Levine

Interview with Ms. Bonnie Levine, the Evening Session Student Government Representative to the Curriculum Committee for the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences (CC-SLA).

By Joseph F. Suarez

CC-SLA

April 17, the Curriculum Committee for the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences met. After ten minutes of previous meetings, I agree with the guidelines for an electorate study which prohibits a student from taking such a course.

A study is a similar course is being offered within two years from the student's request. As a participant in this program, I find it only logical for departments to set such rules so that we do not have one-hundred students requesting a different teacher. Writing Workshop I. I find the college and the system more accommodating when there is a reasonable request. However, I have some reservations about two courses that were approved which require more majors to take two hours of class and one hour of lab for two credits; however, it was felt that students would naturally gravitate to the laboratory since it provides unique opportunities.

Ombudsman

I hope that the Baruch College Council will give the General Student Body the cooperation needed to make its officers do their job. I understand the difficulties of the job for which his office was intended. For too long, officials have been more interested in maintaining their status within their league. (They) have hidden their mission often through the image of cooperation, behind that image, there is no time, that officials aren't fulfilling. The worst officials would disappear quicker. Instead of being able to hide in the immensity that has protected the student gobierno.

Mr. Dave Anderson (New York Times) has involved in the University's efforts with Abdul-Jabbar of the Milwaukee Bucks threatening to take the imitative gesture. National Basketball Association officials to court, will be inducted into the Civil Liberties Union attorney's club.

Writers is the College Magazine and the staff of the magazine have compiled a guide for primary recommendations on undergraduate programs in Psychology. The guide is an excellent source for primary recommendations on undergraduate programs in Psychology.

Writing Workshop I. I find the college and the system more accommodating when there is a reasonable request. However, I have some reservations about two courses that were approved which require more majors to take two hours of class and one hour of lab for two credits; however, it was felt that students would naturally gravitate to the laboratory since it provides unique opportunities.
Out of Uniform

By John Borm

The Freshman Dailyl

Out of Uniform is a brand new musical comedy. It centers around a group of college students and their adventures. The show is directed by Professor Smith, a strict but fair university professor. The plot revolves around the students' attempts to rebel against the strict rules of the university and their various antics to achieve their goals.

The cast includes iconic leads, including David Johnson as the rebellious student leader, and Mary Brown as the lovable tomboy. The music is by the famous composer, John Smith, and the lyrics are written by the renowned lyricist, Jane Brown. The show is directed by Professor Smith and produced by the university's drama department.

The show is performed in the university's main theater, and tickets are available online. The show runs for three weeks, with tickets selling out quickly. It is a must-see for anyone interested in musical comedy or college student life.

Cinematically Speaking

By J.T. Smith

Cinematically Speaking is a column that discusses current events in the world of cinema. This week, we will be focusing on the film "Funny Girl." The film, directed by Edward Lazarus, is a biographical drama about the life of the famous singer and actress, Fanny Brice.

The film stars Maggie Gyllenhaal as Fanny Brice, and it explores her life from childhood to becoming a famous performer. The film is a true story and was produced in cooperation with the New York Film Festival. The reviews are mixed, with some critics praising the performances and others criticizing the direction.

The film is available on streaming platforms, and it is recommended for fans of biographical dramas.

The Knowledge

by J.T. Smith

The Knowledge is a column that explores the world of film and music. This week, we will be discussing the film "Funny Girl." The film is a biographical drama about the life of the famous singer and actress, Fanny Brice.

The film stars Maggie Gyllenhaal as Fanny Brice, and it explores her life from childhood to becoming a famous performer. The film is a true story and was produced in cooperation with the New York Film Festival. The reviews are mixed, with some critics praising the performances and others criticizing the direction.

The film is available on streaming platforms, and it is recommended for fans of biographical dramas.

For Whom the Bell Tolls

The Ticker is an organization that advocates for student rights and fair treatment on campus. This week, we will be discussing the recent events at the university and advocating for change.

The university has faced criticism for its handling of recent events, and the Ticker is calling for transparency and accountability. The organization is working with other student groups to organize events and advocate for change.

For more information, visit the university website or contact the Ticker through email.
The American Marketing Association

Presents

Dr. Leon Schiffman

And His

"Workshop Session for Selecting A Graduate School"

All Students Welcome

Thurs May 1
12:00
Room 804

The Job Market
& How To Prepare For It

When to look for the job outlook
Speakers on specific interests informatics, women, private sector, teaching, and state federal!

Designing your resume,
Getting yourself at the interview

The Knowledge

(Continued from Page 3)

had the Knowledge and that I always would. Since that day I have used the Knowledge to gain access to..."The Towering Inferno."

The Conversation. Chimpers, Bongo, Tommy, The Night That Made: "American Graffiti." Burger King. However, I have come to the realization that the Knowledge cannot be allowed to rest in any one man; it must be distributed to the world.

As you may have noticed, the Light, My friends, I have come to shine the Light.

Once you have decided upon the event you wish to attend, heed this warning: make sure that you arrive one hour before the event is scheduled to start. Provided you obey these words, you are then ready to follow these essential steps which climb towards the Knowledge:

1. If you are alone walk up to the ticket seller and throw your way backwards, always keeping an eye out for an enemy space in the line. People standing in a double line, a place to stand where time has been no specific width, and a couple making no sound. One or all of these are usually present on any line.

2. If you are with another person: a. Each of you can perform step 1, or
b. One of you can perform step 1 while the other performs step 1 on the ticket seller's line.

c. If there are three people two of you perform step 2d, while the third person performs step 1.

As soon as you have made the applicable decision as to who performs what, you must grasp the fruit while it is ripe—there is already someone who is going to help you.

4. Step into the line and glance at the line's history. Say these words to the people now behind you: "What time does the movie start?" When they reply, you must continue the conversation with small talk such as: "Have you heard anything bad about this movie?" or "How are the shows?" If this turns you off they have gained their friendship and are now recipients of a respectable individual. However, there are those who will refuse to respect your Knowledge and may offend them. One of the major disciplines you shall live by when

Using the Knowledge is never to offend another's dignity. Should any objections be raised as to your intentions, graciously extend your apologies and proceed down the line to search of another who believes.

A person can perform step 1 on the ticket seller's line and another is on the ticket buyer's line, do not be greedy. If a brother is closer to the front than you, step out of line, and join him to make a dance. Joy awaits you both. The moment you step through the front doors, you will feel the warmth of the Knowledge. You will reap the benefits of the Knowledge. And if you try using it at a rock concert, you will get your head kicked in because of the Knowledge. It is a dangerous and powerful tool; use it with discretion.

Classified

Dear Whatcha, Happy Birthday and Have a Fat One! Outdoor activities and indoor games. Best of all, thrice as good as usual. Love, Comet.

B.F. It's been real and thank you. N.B.

The New York Lyric Opera is presenting "The Magic Flute" at its own"Merry Widow." You may reach us at the Public interest, May 12, 13, 14 @ 8:00, Central Park. Tix available at the box office. For information call TRA-1995 for information.

Expert Tyler Available. Will do your long papers, resumes, CV's, projects, any position you want. Call: 736-9809.