C.O.U.P. Formed
To Fight Cuts

By RICHARD WARREN
Saturday, March 1, 1976 — The Council of University Publications (C.O.U.P.) was formed to coordinate a CUNY-wide media campaign against the threatened budget cuts. They met shortly after 1 p.m. in Room 104 of Baruch College’s 24th Street Building.

The meeting was attended by editors from several city universities. It was decided that there should be a CUNY-wide newsletter. This newsletter, which will be an update on the CUNY situation, will be prepared and distributed to CUNY newspapers and CO.U.P.

C.O.U.P. strongly supports the March 16th rally in Albany. The University Student Senate and the Professional Staff Congress, along with C.O.U.P., urge all students and staff to come to Albany. Attendance will not be taken. We also urge attendance by CUNY media and student leaders, of the March 8th hearing at the City Council. It is necessary for all students, staff, and faculty feel is worth fighting for.

ATTENTION
INCOMPLETE GRADES will convert to FAILURES on March 15. Students who don’t know their grades yet should find out to make sure they didn’t receive an incomplete.

Grades will be mailed out March 9 by the Registrar’s office.

Baruch Crime

By RICHARD WARREN

Monday, March 1 — There was a purse snatching in the 360 Building. Security believes it was an outsider who committed the crime. They have a description of the offender and are confident they will catch him.

There was also trouble in the 22nd Street Student Center, when guards asked a few students to stop smoking marihuana, and asked for their ID cards. A guard was allegedly threatened and police were called in. The student was let go with a warning that next time charges would be pressed.

This Friday another arrest was set, the fourth in five days. It was in the basement, again in the 360 Building, and was quickly extinguished. As of this writing, a fire has not been set on Monday.

For Women Only - A Special Kudos

Award winner Linda Friedman speaks to her mother and husband during ceremony.

The awards were presented to five outstanding women at Baruch. Dr. Gerald Etra of the Department of Biology, presented the award to an outstanding scholastic achievement to Mrs. Linda Friedman, a student in the pre-med program. Dr. Etra made note of the fact that although the pre-med program at Baruch is considered by many to be the college’s most difficult program, Mrs. Friedman had managed to maintain a 3.92 average. In addition to her schoolwork, she has served as an officer of both the Health Sciences Society, she has served on the staff of both THE TICKER and THE REPORTER, and was a member of the Committee of Academic Standing of the school of Liberal Arts and Science.

Professor Martin Metllman, Chairman of the Accounting Department presented Ms. Joan A. Tompkins the award for being Executive Assistant and Higher Education at Baruch.

Ms. Barbara G. Herling, Alumna and Senior Counsel of NBC received her award from Mr. Martin Barnet*, President of the Baruch Alumni Association.

Mr. Martin Barnet*, President of the Department of Economics and Finance, presented Prof. Hedwig Reinhardt with the fifth award. TICKER would like to extend its congratulations to the women, who are a credit to their sex and to this college.

Students To Rally In Albany March 16th

By Bob Guilliano

On Tuesday, March 16, the students from C. U. N. Y. and S.U.N.Y. will rally in Albany in a lobbying effort to pressure state legislators to increase state funding to C. U. N. Y.

Steve Gaylor, Baruch’s representative to the University Student Senate, spoke to President Wingfield about the significance of the rally. Wingfield agreed to send out a letter to instructors to refrain from taking attendance that day. The demonstration, endorsed by CUNY’s and SUNY’s university senators, is in favor of the only plan that students, staff and faculty feel is worth fighting for.

They propose that the full return to CUNY the windfall funds that CUNY lost on a legal technicality. They want full equity for CUNY in state support, unlimited free access to the university, and the maintenance of the quality of the institution.

By the day session students of Baruch College, sponsored the Inter-, Department of Biology, presented the award for an outstanding scholastic achievement to Mrs. Linda Friedman, a student in the pre-med program. Dr. Etra made note of the fact that although the pre-med program at Baruch is considered by many to be the college’s most difficult program, Mrs. Friedman had managed to maintain a 3.92 average. Pinball Wizard

By Louis Corradi

Recently, the pinball machines were removed from the Student Center and questions arose as to why. In an effort to find out why this happened, TIKKER members Jim Hedges and myself approached Mr. Peter Wronsky, director of the Student Center, who was in charge of the removal of the machines.

Mr. Wronsky was very cooperative and supplied us with both answers and a copy of his memorandum released on January 16: the first explanation as to why the machines were removed. Mr. Wronsky regretted the removal of the machines due to their profitable income which was being used to finance new programs for the Student Center, but said that he had no alternative because the machines are in violation of a City Code. A proposal is currently in front of the City Council to legalize the machines but until passed they can not be used.

Based on the City Council’s speed of passing amendments, I suggest that we start practicing our "Pong".

We have determined that pinball machines are in violation of § 436-6.07 of the Administrative Code of the City of New York. There is presently a proposal to amend the Code to allow such machines (Int. No. 877, November 14, 1975), which has been referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs.

Until this amendment has been acted upon favorably by City Council, it is necessary for the pinball machines to be removed.

If you have any questions about this action, please come to my offices, Room 302 and I shall try to explain further.

The Professional Staff Congress, University Student Senate and along with CO.U.P., urge all students not to go to class that day, and to come to Albany. Attendance will not be taken. Caution: Shaky Grounds Ahead

By Bob Gottfried

It is estimated that 75,000 dollars a year has been spent on the campaign for the election of a new president. This has been done in order to attract more students to the university. The campaign is run by the Ticker Association, which is the newspaper of Baruch College. The Ticker is published weekly and is available in the student center and at the newsstand.

The Ticker is a student-run newspaper that has been in existence for over 30 years. It is published on a weekly basis and covers a wide range of topics, including campus news, local events, and national and international news.

The Ticker is run by a team of volunteers, including students and faculty members. The editorial board is responsible for the content of the newspaper, and the staff is responsible for the production and distribution of the paper.

The Ticker is a valuable resource for students, faculty, and the surrounding community. It provides a forum for discussion and debate on important issues, and it offers a way to stay informed about what is happening on campus and in the world.

The Ticker is an integral part of the Baruch College community, and it plays a vital role in shaping public opinion and promoting free expression.
CUNY Tournament

By BRUCE J. MEYERS

Baruch met Brooklyn College in the quarter-finals of the annual City University Basketball Tournament at City College's Morgeney Gym, Wednesday Feb. 25, at 3 p.m. The game was won by Baruch due to the efforts of several players. Baruch scored 55 points at half time and by the final. Although Queens played good basketball in defeating Evers 78-66, they were no match for Baruch's assist record for a freshman. At 6 p.m., Lehman lost a 12-point lead giving them a 72-60 win over Queens. It was the 11th time in a row that pit was broken by Baruch.

Bernard Baruch College is pleased to announce the opening of a one-man art show of recent works by Michael Anderson. The exhibition is sponsored by the Fine Arts Committee of the Student-Faculty Program Board and will open on Wednesday, March 3, and continue through Wednesday, March 31.

Update

The score of the game between CCNY and Baruch was 96-66 with CCNY picking up the win. They will now have a chance to become the number one team in the city if they beat York on Monday March 1. York beat Lehman in the semi-finals to get into the final game. In the game against CCNY, John Steuer was Baruch's high scorer with 18 and Frank Matos with 10. Queens had to defeat Hunter. Hunter came out strong and in the opinion of this report was at one point with a 20-point lead after the Statesmen had led for most of the game. Baruch completed its regular season with a 9-12 record beating John Jay, 50-49, and Medgar Evers, 90-83, while losing to York, 67-65, last week. Coach Rosenberg plans no changes in his starting lineup when Baruch faces City College in the semi-finals on Friday. Up front will be Scott Chaney, a 6-6 senior, John Steuer, a 6-4, junior, and Frank Matos, a 6-3 sophomore. In the backcourt will be Sandy Lanham, 5-4, and Maurice Vega, 5-11; a pair of freshmen. For reserve duty are forwards Jim Barrett, Greg Morden, and Steve Postler with Dom Marranaro and Sue Eisenberg filling in at the guard positions.

Military Recruiting Fraud

Among young non-veterans, these statistics support soldiers' complaints about the lack of career training in the Army. A large number of soldiers were interviewed for a 1972 report prepared for the office of the Special Assistant for the Modern Volunteer Army. The investigators disclosed that "The overriding complaint at the end of their tour is the lack of career training," and "Relatively few end their first term with a belief that they have improved their civilian career potential via skills training."

It is obvious that nowhere in the volunteer military recruitment system is there an opportunity for potential recruits like Jack Reed to learn the realities of military life, including the civilian value of their military job training and the true significance of the "written guarantee."
