Charges Against Gibbs Dismissed

By JIM HEDGES
Thursday evening, March 4th, Harry Gibbs, president of DDSG last semester, was brought up on charges before the Student-Faculty Disciplinary Committee. The charges stemmed from actions taken by Mr. Gibbs during the Student Government elections last semester.

Before the hearing began, both Mr. Gibbs and Dean Roy R. Senour Jr., the complainant, were given the chance to settle the matter privately. However, Mr. Gibbs also declined to ask for a postponement so that he could seek legal counseling on the matter.

The charges stated that Mr. Gibbs violated rule no. 14 of Regulations Governing Student Conduct which says a violation occurs with “Failure to comply with directions of duly authorized and identified College officials acting in the performance of their official duties.” (For more information see page 70 of the Student Handbook.) This concerns the fact that Gibbs refused to hand over the keys to the ballot boxes to Dean Senour.

Gibbs stated that he was missing class in order to attend the meeting and that he felt that he was being harassed.

The biggest debate of the meeting concerned whether or not Mr. Gibbs had been officially informed by Dean Senour about counseling prior to the meeting. “I move that the committee dismiss the charges on the grounds that I have been harassed and the failure to follow procedures by Dean Senour concerning contacting me about a counseling session prior to this hearing.”

“Mr. Gibbs did not follow my directions and therefore these charges have been brought”—the reaction given by Dean Senour when asked to explain his reasoning for the hearing. At one point the Dean made reference to the fact that President Wingfield was responsible for pressing the charges but a few seconds later changed his statement for the record to read that he and he alone (Senour) was pressing the charges.

The debate kept going back and forth with Gibbs quoting passages from various memorandums and Senour denying allegations in a raspy and almost unintelligible voice due to the fact that he was the victim of laryngitis.

Finally after almost two hours, the committee adjourned to another room for about ten minutes and upon returning disclosed the unanimous vote to dismiss the charges. Professor Berger, a member of the committee, was quoted as saying, “To be honest I don’t even know why we’re here today.”

Fire Drill Successful

By JIM HEDGES
On Thursday, March 4, a fire drill took place in the 17 Lexington Avenue building. Under the supervision of Mr. Wingfield, formerly State Senator Waldaba, and Mr. Linden, Director of Baruch Security, the entire building was cleared in approximately ten minutes and forty seconds. After issuing the procedures of handling the drill received compliments, including one from a fire marshal representing the New York Fire Department, the overall drill was not as successful as Mr. Linden had wanted it to be.

The movement of students and faculty evacuating the building was very orderly. However some students complained of the inconvenience having a fire drill caused them. The exercise was announced previous to the 11:45 scheduled time, with signs posted around the building.

The scene outside was a little puzzling—everyone who had left the building were standing outside and directly across the street. The puzzling fact was that the students waited as if they had to make a 12 o’clock class inside the building. Everyone knows that between the hours of 12 and 2 on Thursdays, no classes are scheduled. A movie was not planned for the auditorium either, so it was a strange sight indeed to see the mass of students in anticipation. More drills are planned for this semester.

Vanguard Students’ Coalition In Action

By KAREN KIRKLAND
On Friday, March 5, 1976, five members of the Vanguard Students’ Coalition for Equity in Education (VSC) at Baruch College of CUNY went to the Board of Elections offices at 80 Varick Street to turn in the first batch of voter registration drive at the college.

According to VSC president Uriel M. Joseph, “These forms represent politically-conscious CUNY students who realize that we must participate in the political process if we want to be heard in a viable way.”

The voter-registration effort was VSC’s first major project. In addition to fostering the political education of Baruch students, the VSC will also seek to establish a job-information and referral service for students, and ensure that the college maintains some equitable ratio in the ethnic enrollment of the college.

VSC holds its meetings on Thursdays from 12 to 2 p.m. in Room 1520 of the 23rd Street building. All students who want to work for the survival of CUNY are invited to attend.

Fire Mishaps

By Nina Alfano

On Feb. 24th a group of fire alarm mishaps that were reported from 4 North (33rd St.) were prevented due to the quick reaction of the firemen. The alarm was determined to be a false alarm. The cause of the mishap was a broken water line.

To the Editor:

After reading the two issues of the Ticker, I am absolutely shocked and dismayed at the fact that this newspaper may use this term for money. As I am a Baruch student, I am Newton of just how many people may be asking the innocent truth today. I am writing to make the minority have the right to run on their own college campus. We are at the forefront of this issue, and I want to make the vast majority of your readers realize just how serious this is.

Sentry A Rag

By Dennis Williams

The entire Baruch community was saddened to hear of the death of a student. Our thoughts and prayers go out to the student's family and friends. We extend our condolences to all those who knew him.

Reform And Unity

Rae, the members of the Reform A Union consisting of all Baruch students are withdrawing all signatures from the student government and will continue their action. They are protesting against the dismissal of a student who was involved in a demonstration. They are also demanding the reinstatement of all students who have been involved in similar actions.

By BRUCE J. MEYERS

The final game of the C.U.N.Y. tournament was played on May 2, 1976. The game was won by York, 83-73, in the Smith Center. The game was held in the presence of the students and the students who have been elected.

SEX WORKSHOP

On March 24 from 3:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m. in the North Lounge, Dr. Ehrlich will hold a question and answer workshop regarding "Everything You Always Wanted to Know about Sex but Were Afraid to Ask: A sexual experience." When people around the school asked how the team was doing, we told them we were "Let's play ball today!". So people were happy to hear about their favorite team. But there are other teams in our league that would lose if they had to play our team. So go off to your favorite team and cheer them on! Now that the tournament is over, we can start talking about the teams we would like to see in the next tournament. The cheerleading for City is based for Baruch. Boy cut the school's year.
