Soviet Jewry Conference

By RICHARD WARREN and RICHARD RODRIGUEZ

On March 28th, the Greater New York Conference on Soviet Jewry met at The New York Hilton Hotel. It began shortly after 9 a.m. and included several speakers (mostly politicians). In addition, Plans for the "Soviet Sunday" were announced. The ballroom held over a hundred members and various press services.

Senator Henry (Scoop) Jackson called for the solidarity of Jews and non-Jews in the fight against Soviet oppression. He stated, "We must show the Russians we have a will. When we do this, then there will be progress." He also commented that the "Soviet Union is going to recognize the force of public opinion. This public opinion has already been effective in dividing the communist parties in Italy and France."

Senator Jackson was followed by Mr. Markman, a Soviet Jew. Mr. Markman was a senior engineer and director of a computer team before being forced out of the Leningrad Trials defendants. On March 21, 1971, an extensive search of his apartment was conducted by the local KGB and on the same day his friend Valeri Kukui was arrested.

Shortly after, Kukui was brought to trial and convicted. Markman initiated legal proceedings against members of the Court Board, charging them with falsifying and distorting the testimony he gave on behalf of the defense. Markman was arrested on April 29, 1972 for "anti-Soviet propaganda," "malicious hooliganism," "stirring up hatred against nations" (by making a phone call to Israel). After worldwide pressure, all charges except "anti-Soviet propaganda" were dropped. He was tried four months later in a court, and sentenced to ten years in Sverdlovsk.

Markman's wife, Kissina was dismissed from her job a few days prior to the trial and was threatened, with arrest, for "patriotism." After a long struggle, which included Markman being given several months in jail, he was released.

As of 12 noon today, the following student organizations have registered with the Office of Student Activities for the 1975-76 academic year. As you know, to be eligible to spend its Student Government Fee Allocation, it must register with our office and charter with the Student Government. Therefore any organization listed here may not spend any funds which might be allocated to it. If you have any questions at this time, I will let you know.

Question: I have chosen Topic Two: A Study Past or Present, of Student Involvement and Participation in all Forms of Student Self-Government and Academic Governance at Baruch. What can I use for sources?

Answer: For both present and past information on Baruch student government are Student Council Curriculum Committee Report (1939) and Its Predecessors by President Gallagher (1960). For past information on student government, may be your most important sources are the Student Government, may be your most important sources are the Student Government. Socialist Takeover Of DSSG

By BOB GUILIANO

In an interview, McCarthy advocated an early and orderly withdrawal of American forces from Vietnam and said that the war is a "scam." He also accused the government of trying to "manipulate" the public into supporting the war by making deals with the "Right" and by presenting a "false" picture of the war.

In addition, Baruch's student government, the DSSG, has been accused of being a "front" organization for the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA), a group that is said to be a "front" for the Communist Party. Baruch's administration has refused to give the YSA access to Baruch's facilities.

So, a group of concerned students, including Levy and Johnson, have organized a "point counterpoint" discussion on the issue of the YSA. They will be trying to present different points of view on the issue and to encourage students to participate in the discussion. The students hope that this will help to bring the issue to the attention of the administration.

Point Counterpoint:

Get the Facts Straight

By RICHARD RODRIGUEZ

Mr. Guiliano is the last in a series of Baruch administrations that have tried to make the DSSG into an "organization" rather than a forum for student expression. This attempt to turn the DSSG into a "front" organization is not new. In fact, it seems that the big issues that the DSSG has been discussing for the past three years have been the same. But the administration has refused to acknowledge this.

For example, Mr. Guiliano has refused to allow the DSSG to present an opposing viewpoint on the issue of the YSA. He has also refused to allow the DSSG to advocate its beliefs as a forum for student activity. The administration has even attempted to block the DSSG from conducting its regular meetings.

In addition, Mr. Guiliano has refused to allow the DSSG to conduct a survey of student opinion on the issue of the YSA. The administration has even denied the DSSG access to its facilities.

This is not to say that the DSSG is not a forum for student activity. The DSSG has been a forum for student activity, but it has been a forum for student activity that has been controlled by the administration.

The DSSG has been a forum for student activity that has been controlled by the administration, and it has been a forum for student activity that has been controlled by the administration.

But the administration has refused to acknowledge this. In fact, the administration has refused to acknowledge that the DSSG has been a forum for student activity at all.

This is why the DSSG has been a forum for student activity, and why it has been a forum for student activity that has been controlled by the administration. The administration has refused to acknowledge that the DSSG has been a forum for student activity, and it has refused to acknowledge that the DSSG has been a forum for student activity that has been controlled by the administration.

This is why the DSSG has been a forum for student activity, and why it has been a forum for student activity that has been controlled by the administration.

But the administration has refused to acknowledge this. In fact, the administration has refused to acknowledge that the DSSG has been a forum for student activity at all.

Lehman Students Take-over Hall

By RICHARD WARREN

I (S.R. Warren, 1925) wrote to the editor of the Brooklyn Student on March 22, 1974.

The report concludes by emphasizing the importance of open admissions and the need for meaningful involvement in the lives of all college students, as well as the need for continued support of the SWP candidates.

Students Moon on Stage

By MOININ and WALLACE

The report makes recommendations for the future and concludes with a call to action, encouraging individuals to engage in meaningful and supportive community activities.

Rebuttal

Dear Mr. Greenberg:

In an attempt to manage your affairs more efficiently, I am writing this letter.

As I have already mentioned, I am a member of the Jewish Defense League, and I have been involved in the struggle for justice for all people, including Soviet Jews.

I am enclosing a copy of an article that I wrote for your consideration.

I hope that you will find this letter and the enclosed article useful.

Sincerely,

Helpline

I need to talk
I need to cry.
Can you understand?

Determination hasn't been
But that's okay
Because it's not the same

What's going on?

Unassured I look in
To see your face.
But I can't walk.
Because it's none 5711 fear.

Yet you smile and
Magically you seem to understand
I enter and my tabs begin.

Wings Over America

April 8, 1976 will mark the 160th anniversary of the United States.

The United States is a nation of immigrants.

The first immigrants to come to America were the Pilgrims.

They were a group of religious dissenters.

The Pilgrims were seeking a place to practice their religion freely.

They were tired of being persecuted in their home country.

They were determined to start a new life.

They were determined to build a new nation.

The Pilgrims were led by a man named William Bradford.

He was the leader of the Pilgrims.

He was the one who chose the site for Plymouth.

He was the one who chose the name for the new nation.

The Pilgrims were a group of courageous people.

They were a group of people who were willing to risk everything.

They were a group of people who were willing to do whatever it took.

They were a group of people who were willing to sacrifice everything.

They were a group of people who were willing to give their lives.

The Pilgrims were a group of people who were willing to do whatever it took.

The Pilgrims were a group of people who were willing to sacrifice everything.

The Pilgrims were a group of people who were willing to give their lives.

Lahav Hebrew Society Discusses Zionism

By ZEV BRENNER

Much controversy about the true nature of Zionism has been generated in the Baruch college community—both by the UN resolution linking Arab racism and anti-Zionist article written by Art Fishman last term. Well, the HEBREW SOCIETY decided to do something about this situation. On Tuesday March 2nd, Professor Robert Brown held a discussion group on what Zionism is really about.

Zionism in its purest form, declared Brown, "is going on Aliyah—to Israel, not remaining in the exile where another Holocaust may be pending." Zionism—the return to Zion—has been and still is a basic tenet of Judaism. In fact, religious Jews the world over, pray daily, to return to Zion. Israel means more to Jews than just being a homeland. It is part of our religious heritage that can only take root in the Holy Land.

In the 1920's, there were roughly the same amount of Jews as Arabs in what was known as "Palestine". A partitioning resolution to divide land was made under the pressure of the British. The British gave Jews in more and more to Arab demands. By World War II, Jewish emigration to Palestine had come to an end.

It would be interesting to note that the so-called "Palestinians" who were forcibly forced out of "their" homeland, were actually instructed by their leaders to leave temporarily and to return when Israel was destroyed. 600,000 Arabs left out of their own free will never to return as Israel was not crushed. At about the same time, 800,000 Jews living in Arab countries were forced to leave penniless from their lands of origin. That small piece of land called Israel was able to absorb all these refugees (in the true sense of the word) whereas all the Arab countries were unable to do likewise! How naive do the Arabs think we are?

The Arabs, and especially the Palestinians, do not really want peace. They are trying to gain as much as possible in the political arena before reverting back to the battle field. Israel is left with only one alternative—to declare to the world "that Israel is ours, and not one inch of re-treat from our land." Those of us in America have an additional task. We must fulfill the simplest precept of Zionism. It is a time for us to return home—home to Israel. This is what Zionism is really all about.

Nyro: "Smile"

review, because I have remained a loyal fan even through her most self-indulgent excesses. It is one thing to accept overdue hysteria and another to accept boring drivel. Not that the album is that bad, mind you, it is inoffensively mediocre. It is Nyro imitating Nyro, lyrically and vocally.

The only song on the album which comes close to holding together is "Money." Its chorus sings "bleed a little, bleed a little till you find your freedom." I happen to enjoy this song. But the rest of the lyric attempts to be "stream of consciousness" when it really has just been thrown together placematel.

When Laura Nyro remembers that she is an intelligent over-emotional prima donna, then she will come running. Meanwhile I’ll keep listening to "Hissing of Summer Lawns."

Women's Softball

By CARMEN PEREZ

The Women's softball team was formed five weeks ago. It consists of five girls—Mary Lou Baltazar, Susana Ching, Debra Drakeford, Anna Fauzua, Linda Fisher. Felicia Hicks, Ileana Jardines, Kitty Kieling, Carmen Perez, Donna Rinnke, Dee Shimose and Juliet Staples.

The girls are being coached by Ms. Debbie Peretti, who has also coached the basketball team and Volleyball team. She hopes along with the girls that they do well this season. They pray daily to return home—home to Israel. This is what Zionism is really all about.
