The Students' Voice for Over 55 Years

Vol. 57 No. 3
Baruch College, CUNY
February 28, 1989

Director Restricts Locations Of Student Activities
By MICHAEL KEELY

Events that expect large numbers of participants will be restricted to the first and second floors of the 137 E. 22 St. building, therefore the remaining space available for club activities will be allotted to clubs on a "first come, first serve" basis, according to Carl Aylman, director of student activities.

Weekly club meetings at the student center building will function on a routine basis. Any club wishing to host large parties, however, must be restricted to the first and second floors.

This is primarily a safety concern, according to Aylman. He assured there are no defects in the physical structure itself. "The building wasn't designed to have a hundred or more people on the third and fourth floors," he said.

As a building's floors progress upward their capacity to hold weight diminishes, said Aylman. Therefore, overcrowding on the third and fourth floors can have serious repercussions, according to Aylman.

In addition, "We don't want people in a crowded situation for fear of people getting in each others way," said Aylman.

Aylman said that he will work to accommodate any club wishing to have a party with adequate facilities. Any club wishing to hold an activity should have a complete estimate of their expected attendance, and a schedule of when the event is to take place, stated Aylman.

There are going to be restrictions on accessibility to the building, such as no parties allowed during the day. "Naturally there are going to be people who are disappointed," said Aylman, because of an increase in the number of scheduled activities.

(Michael Keely)

Freshman Survey Reveals Ethnic Diversity
By EDWARD ASANTE

While the proportion of black and Hispanic students entering Baruch has remained virtually the same since 1979, the Asian population has almost tripled within the same period of time, according to a recent freshman survey.

"The dramatic increase of oriental students (15 percent) within this period of time matches the decrease in the proportion of white students," said Shelbi Telman, student research coordinator. The number of white students has decreased from 39 percent to 23 percent, according to the survey, conducted by Dr. Telman.

These figures exemplify the ethnic diversity at Baruch. "77 percent of the incoming freshman come from minority groups and this is the highest proportion observed in the history of the survey," Telman stated.

The survey also revealed that three
(Continued on Page A11, Col. 1)

Murphy Warns TAP Recipients To Declare Majors
By GEORGIA KONTOS

According to the State Education Department guidelines, students must declare a major by 60 credits in order to receive financial aid from the Tuition Assistance Program.

James Murphy, director of financial aid, said that 773 students are receiving TAP and have accumulated over 60 credits without declaring a major.

Baruch's policy is that students are supposed to declare a major by the time they have accumulated 78 credits, according to the student handbook. Because so many students are affected by this new policy it could cause significant problems, said Murphy.

Taking this into account, the office of the registrar has mailed notices to the students affected by the policy change asking them to declare a major, stated Murphy.

"Now of course, there's another reason. Sometimes it's a transfer student who transfers in with some credits, said Murphy.

(Michael Keely)

By GEORGIA KONTOS

Murphy Warns TAP Recipients To Declare Majors
By GEORGIA KONTOS

According to the State Education Department guidelines, students must declare a major by 60 credits in order to receive financial aid from the Tuition Assistance Program.

James Murphy, director of financial aid, said that... (Continued on Page A11, Col. 1)

DSSG Appoints Smith As Chairman Mark Resigns Because Of Time Constraints
By TONI COLAVITO

Day Session Student Government Chairman Richard Mark has officially resigned as of the Feb. 16 DSSG meeting. Richard Smith has been appointed the new DSSG chairman.

Mark said that lack of time was the reason for his resignation. "I was committed to the government but time constraints prevented me from being there," he said.

According to Mark, he had to choose between remaining on the DSSG or concentrating on graduating and writing his resume. "Do I want to do something that will only last me a semester?" said Mark, "or do I want to do something that will last me a lifetime? I had to make a choice."

Formerly the acting chairman, Smith said that his new appointment will be easy, "I don't anticipate any problems," he said, "It's a smooth transition."

Ainley Boisson, DSSG president, said that Smith is well qualified for the position. "He has been working in that capacity for a while," Boisson said. "He's very efficient."

Smith said that he does not anticipate any difficulties working with Boisson or any council members, but he stated, "I hope to work closer with Ainley than Richard Mark did."

According to Mark, differences among council members have never been a hindrance to their work. "(The council) is pretty much like a (Continued on Page A11, Col. 1)

Provost Approves New Microfilm Machines
By MARIA LIU

The broken microfilm machines in the library of 155 E. 24 St. will soon be replaced. Currently there are six machines but, according to Mary Donovan, head of periodicals, serials and microforms division, four outdated machines will be replaced by three new ones. The remaining two are still in good condition. The replacement request was approved by the Provost and the order was placed and confirmed last week. (Continued on Page A11, Col. 1)

INSIDE:
EDITORIALS A2
LETTERS/OP-EDS A3
FEATURES B1
ARTS B13
CARTOONS B20
SPORTS B21
BEAT THE RAP — GIVE BLOOD

Give blood
Not crud
People are dying
We're not lying

On March 8 and 9 the Baruch Student Activities Office is sponsoring a blood drive. Everyone who is able and willing should participate. The procedure is not difficult or very painful. It is also extremely safe since the needles are used only once and then discarded.

If you give blood you can save lives and help ease the shortage of blood that is straining the city. In fact, you get a cup of Tang and the great feeling of having been enough to make a difference.

Quotation of the Fortnight

"You really have to score heterosexually into practicing safe sex..." — Government Campus Affairs Committee member, in reference to passage of "Health Awareness Week."
The film was so loaded it didn't see a thing

Quick . . . As a Flash it was upon them

"THE ATTACK OF THE CAMERAS PEOPLE"
They turned all the photographers into zombies.

The Ticker

We need photographers

was hit hard
by this alien menace

Office of Center Service's
School of Business and Public Administration

"MISTAKES IN BUSINESS LEAD TO" SPEAKERS

Call 800-177-EXAM
Call Bar/Bri.at J12 . 643 - TEST

SCORE IN THE TOP 20% OR TAKE NEXT COURSE FREE

Funded by the Booth College Fund for the Quality of Life
I have a recurring nightmare about storms while I am also flashlights, loud thunder and the sound of giant waves breaking on the shore line. I am terrified and I wake up sweating and scared. I have been having these dreams every night for the past two weeks. I am not sure what they mean or why they are happening. I am also worried about the storm that is coming tomorrow. It is supposed to be a major storm with high winds and heavy rain. I am not sure what to do. I feel like I am going to die. What should I do?
ON THE SPOT WITH MARJORIE SURPRIS

Are you aware that CUNY is facing a budget crisis?
Do you feel that this crisis will affect you in anyway?

Marlene M. Thompson - Sophomore
Of course, it affects everyone that is part of CUNY system. Tuition is the most likely to be affected by a drastic increase, and I personally don't have the money. I can't afford a tuition increase.

Antoine Marshall - Senior
I'm very aware of the crisis. Write to your congressmen, protest if you have to.

Monique Johnson - Freshman
The budget cutback will affect me greatly. I'm living on my own and the financial aid fund is something I depend on - it puts me through school. If there is a cut, there's a chance I may have to leave school.

Evelyn Irisarri - Junior
No. But it will probably affect my financial aid. I don't think just me alone, but many other students at Baruch as well.

Paul Taylor - Senior
It will cause a raise in tuition and will affect retention mostly.

Christine E. Adams - Junior
Yes, I was aware since last December that there was a budget crisis, and I feel it will crowd classrooms due to lack of professors which, in the long run will hurt everyone, teachers and students. In my opinion students do not receive enough personal attention now, if professors are laid off it will be worse.
SOUTH AFRICA
(Continued From A1)
that there is rapid increase in the number of healers from South Africa. These healers can directly mean to the extent of the ultimate destruction of the human system of government. They are the tools of the South Afri can-born black leadership which is basically the hands of the white racist and white-dominated government.

"The United States of America refuses to impose total economic sanctions against the most repressive and brutal state in the world."

One is that fewer Gouwants seem to have been the result of the inter dependent struggle which must continue to exist in South Africa. In addition, there is the fact that black voices are still not stifled. The struggle, whatever its form, remains a valid and meaningful one.

Several corporations have attempted to challenge the South African government and work towards a solution. However, the impact of this struggle is not yet fully realized in South Africa.

One of the most pressing issues that need to be addressed is the issue of in come disparities. The gap between white and black salaries - which is on average 200 points - is a major problem. This needs to be addressed in order to bring about a more equal and just society.

Black writing
(Continued From A4)

ticism and identity are two of the most impor tant factors that shape a person's understanding of the world and their place in it. The black voice is an integral part of this understanding.

Black writing in the United States of America was one that initially came out as an act of liberation and humanization. It has always been about the struggle for freedom and the right to be heard.

One of the first black writers to gain recognition was W.E.B. Du Bois, who published his novel "The Souls of Black Folk" in 1903. This novel was a powerful statement against the racism and discrimination that black people faced.

The book was a major success and it helped to bring attention to the struggles of black people. It also helped to establish Du Bois as a prominent figure in the African American community.

Proposition 42
(Continued From Page A4)

ABORTION RIGHTS
(Continued From A4)

The law of the game that was won.

Our team has won the game and the prize of a title. But the victory is no guarantee of success in future matches.

A new challenge has been set before us and we must work hard to meet it. The opponents are strong, but we shall overcome them.

This is the story of our victory against the odds. We are heroes now, but we must not rest on our laurels. The road to success is long and full of trials.

Proposition 42
(Continued From Page A4)

The problem is such that it may be necessary to stay in for the sake of NCAO officials.

One of the factors that make this rule effective in forcing high schools to admit black students is that it limits the number of black students who can be admitted.

The case of Tom Hoge, a former state official in the American Indian Center, was one that came up in relation to the act of liberation and humanization. It has always been about the struggle for freedom and the right to be heard.

Black writing in the United States of America was one that initially came out as an act of liberation and humanization. It has always been about the struggle for freedom and the right to be heard.

One of the first black writers to gain recognition was W.E.B. Du Bois, who published his novel "The Souls of Black Folk" in 1903. This novel was a powerful statement against the racism and discrimination that black people faced.

The book was a major success and it helped to bring attention to the struggles of black people. It also helped to establish Du Bois as a prominent figure in the African American community.

Proposition 42
(Continued From Page A4)

The problem is such that it may be necessary to stay in for the sake of NCAO officials. The case of Tom Hoge, a former state official in the American Indian Center, was one that came up in relation to the act of liberation and humanization. It has always been about the struggle for freedom and the right to be heard.

Black writing in the United States of America was one that initially came out as an act of liberation and humanization. It has always been about the struggle for freedom and the right to be heard.

One of the first black writers to gain recognition was W.E.B. Du Bois, who published his novel "The Souls of Black Folk" in 1903. This novel was a powerful statement against the racism and discrimination that black people faced.

The book was a major success and it helped to bring attention to the struggles of black people. It also helped to establish Du Bois as a prominent figure in the African American community.

Proposition 42
(Continued From Page A4)

The problem is such that it may be necessary to stay in for the sake of NCAO officials. The case of Tom Hoge, a former state official in the American Indian Center, was one that came up in relation to the act of liberation and humanization. It has always been about the struggle for freedom and the right to be heard.

Black writing in the United States of America was one that initially came out as an act of liberation and humanization. It has always been about the struggle for freedom and the right to be heard.

One of the first black writers to gain recognition was W.E.B. Du Bois, who published his novel "The Souls of Black Folk" in 1903. This novel was a powerful statement against the racism and discrimination that black people faced.

The book was a major success and it helped to bring attention to the struggles of black people. It also helped to establish Du Bois as a prominent figure in the African American community.

Proposition 42
(Continued From Page A4)

The problem is such that it may be necessary to stay in for the sake of NCAO officials. The case of Tom Hoge, a former state official in the American Indian Center, was one that came up in relation to the act of liberation and humanization. It has always been about the struggle for freedom and the right to be heard.

Black writing in the United States of America was one that initially came out as an act of liberation and humanization. It has always been about the struggle for freedom and the right to be heard.

One of the first black writers to gain recognition was W.E.B. Du Bois, who published his novel "The Souls of Black Folk" in 1903. This novel was a powerful statement against the racism and discrimination that black people faced.

The book was a major success and it helped to bring attention to the struggles of black people. It also helped to establish Du Bois as a prominent figure in the African American community.

Proposition 42
(Continued From Page A4)

The problem is such that it may be necessary to stay in for the sake of NCAO officials. The case of Tom Hoge, a former state official in the American Indian Center, was one that came up in relation to the act of liberation and humanization. It has always been about the struggle for freedom and the right to be heard.

Black writing in the United States of America was one that initially came out as an act of liberation and humanization. It has always been about the struggle for freedom and the right to be heard.

One of the first black writers to gain recognition was W.E.B. Du Bois, who published his novel "The Souls of Black Folk" in 1903. This novel was a powerful statement against the racism and discrimination that black people faced.

The book was a major success and it helped to bring attention to the struggles of black people. It also helped to establish Du Bois as a prominent figure in the African American community.

Proposition 42
(Continued From Page A4)

The problem is such that it may be necessary to stay in for the sake of NCAO officials. The case of Tom Hoge, a former state official in the American Indian Center, was one that came up in relation to the act of liberation and humanization. It has always been about the struggle for freedom and the right to be heard.

Black writing in the United States of America was one that initially came out as an act of liberation and humanization. It has always been about the struggle for freedom and the right to be heard.

One of the first black writers to gain recognition was W.E.B. Du Bois, who published his novel "The Souls of Black Folk" in 1903. This novel was a powerful statement against the racism and discrimination that black people faced.

The book was a major success and it helped to bring attention to the struggles of black people. It also helped to establish Du Bois as a prominent figure in the African American community.
DSSG Organizes Health Awareness Week

By RITA LEAHY

The Campus Affairs Committee of the Dean of Students, in cooperation with the Student Senate and the Dean of Health Affairs, will sponsor a week-long Health Awareness Week, March 16-22. The primary focus of the week will be on Prevention and Control of Diseases, and the main goal is to increase awareness of health issues and encourage students to take control of their health.

The week-long event will include a variety of activities designed to raise awareness and promote healthy behaviors. These activities will be held in different locations throughout the campus and will feature speakers, panels, workshops, and discussions on topics such as mental health, nutrition, and physical activity.

Activities

- Health Fair: March 18
- Healthie League Speaker Series: March 19
- Health Workshops: March 20
- Healthie League Meeting: March 22

The Healthie League, a student organization dedicated to promoting health and wellness, will be collaborating with the Campus Affairs Committee to make the week a success. The league has organized events to engage students and provide them with valuable information and resources. The week-long event will be a great opportunity for students to take control of their health and make positive changes in their lives.

Financially Speaking: Aetna, Con Ed and Drexel

By ROBERT COTTER

As a student enrolled at Drexel, you may have heard about Aetna, Con Ed, and Drexel’s student health benefits plan. These companies work together to provide comprehensive health insurance to students.

Aetna, Con Ed, and Drexel have partnered to offer a plan that is tailored to the needs of students. The plan includes coverage for medical, dental, and vision care, as well as mental health services. It also includes a prescription drug plan that covers more than 10,000 generic drugs, with no copay for generic drugs.

If you have any questions or concerns about your health plan, you can contact Aetna at 800-445-7848. You can also visit the Drexel Student Health Center located in the Student Union for more information.

The Importance of Health Awareness

As a student, it is important to take control of your health. This includes staying informed about health issues and taking steps to prevent illness and disease. By participating in Health Awareness Week, you can learn more about healthy behaviors and make positive changes in your lifestyle.

By implementing healthy behaviors, you can reduce your risk of developing chronic diseases such as heart disease, diabetes, and cancer. These diseases can be costly and can affect your quality of life. By taking control of your health, you can reduce your risk of developing these diseases and improve your overall well-being.

Conclusion

Health Awareness Week is a great opportunity for students to learn more about healthy behaviors and make positive changes in their lives. By participating in this event, you can reduce your risk of developing chronic diseases and improve your overall well-being. Remember, your health is your responsibility, and by taking control of your health, you can lead a healthier, happier life.

JACK NEWFIELD AND THE INEQUITABILITY OF CORRUPTION

By R. J. MILLS

"In Political Corruption: An Inevitability?"...

The Washington and Lee University School of Law's "Political Corruption: An Inevitability?" symposium was held on April 5, 2009, with experts from various fields discussing the implications of political corruption.

"Character is what you do in the dark," said Jack Newfield, getting back to the title of his paper. Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, pointed out that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.

Newfield, a former New York City Public Advocate and now a law professor at the University of Michigan, said that the dark is the place whereunday.
Tales Of New York

CAUTION: STUDENT DRIVER

L. J., a 16-year-old junior at the school, says that her parents and the father of her child were never married. She was in the car when it was hit and was thrown against the inside of the vehicle. The blood was never washed away, but it was cleaned up by the police. She was hit by a car and died at the scene. She was a junior at the school. She was also a member of the track team.

SANTA'S LITTLE HELPER

C. was hanging around in the city, which she knew was next. She was walking near Washington Square Park. When she got there, she noticed a Santa Claus figure in the middle of the park. She walked over to him and asked him what he wanted for Christmas. She then asked him if he wanted to go around the city with her. She took him by the arm and started walking down the street. She explained to him that she was a student and that she was going to be studying for her exams. She told him that she would help him study and that she would be there for him if he needed anything. She then started walking down the street with him.

SUBWAY STANDUP

Riding the subway in New York City, I was thinking about the challenges that students face when they are commuting to school. I decided to write down my thoughts and share them with you.

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME

W. was walking along a city street when he saw a person sitting on the sidewalk. He noticed that the person was holding a bag of food and was sitting on the ground. W. approached the person and asked if they needed any help. The person said yes and W. handed them a bag of food. The person thanked W. and said that they were very grateful.

URBAN ENTERTAINMENT

I was in New York City and decided to check out some of the local entertainment options. I visited a few places and had a great time.

Baruch Area Trivia Quiz

The Pacer's Club at Baruch Campus Park South.

Question:

1. What local private club was founded by Edwin Booth, a famous Shakespearean actor?
2. Where is the club located?
3. What is the current membership for the club?
4. What famous photographer is associated with the club?
5. What is the club's primary focus or mission?

Answers:

1. Edwin Booth's Club
2. Park Avenue
3. 150 members
4. Arnold Genthe
5. Promotes cultural and social events

Note:
The office of Career Services - SBPA will be offering a forum on minorities in banking. This event will be held on Thursday, March 2, from 12:45 PM to 2:00 PM at Room 1200, 360 P.A.S.

Symposium on: Careers in Management Banking on Your Future

By ROBERT CUTLER

Executive from three major financial institutions: Bankers Trust, Chase Manhattan, and Manufacturers Hanover, will be in attendance to discuss "Career in Management Banking on Your Future". The symposium was sponsored by the Office of Career Services to encourage students to consider careers in this field. The symposium will be held on Thursday, March 2, from 12:45 PM to 2:00 PM in Room 1200, 360 P.A.S.
ATTENTION
DAY .... EVENING
AND GRADUATE
STUDENTS
Now is the time to consider declaration of Candidacy for Student Government
College Boards
and Committees.
For more info,
call 725-3385

The
Best Training
Is Responsibility.

You've been warming up on the sidelines long enough—and preparing for that vital first job in the business world. Now you're ready for the kind of challenges that will launch your career.

That's why you should investigate a future with AIG. Our wide-ranging training programs are designed to quickly involve you in challenging assignments. From day one, you'll be dealing with some of the most intriguing product portfolios in the industry. What's more, you can start in one area and branch out into other disciplines. Flexibility is a hallmark of AIG careers.

Yes, AIG is a major provider of commercial and industrial insurance in the United States and around the world. But our incredible diversification goes far beyond insurance—to the broader business and financial spheres.

Will you fit in at AIG? Yes, if you want more than a job, if you're stimulated by risk-taking and you like to develop creative solutions and put them into action. You'll need something more, too—commitment to advance and take on decision-making responsibilities.

Right now we have opportunities for ambitious graduates with a degree in ACCOUNTING.

If you'd like to learn more about AIG, we invite you to interview with us on campus.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 15, 1989
1966

Victor S. Axelrod of the Evening Session Speech Department conducted a panel discussion on free tuition at CCNY in which he discussed aspects of the history of free tuition at CCNY. The program was entitled "Free Higher Education: A Call to Action" and was sponsored by the Free Tuition Committee of Student Council... Suzanne Begai, a Baruch evening student, was chosen from 18 of the prettiest girls in CCNY and said, "I just hope I can live up to the Baruch image and make the school proud of me."

1974

In a column by Julie Rivera entitled "The Insider" she stated, "Let me begin by welcoming all entering freshmen and transfer students. I hope that you can make Baruch College your school during the time you are here. I must state that this is a very interesting fact in which a student can learn if he or she develops the capacity to observe the interaction of the energy forces at play... Be aware of the contagious disease called "APATHY" which is very often picked up by entering students from students who have developed chronic cases."

1979

A lawsuit brought by a student against the Board of Higher Education resulted in an end to the posting of grades. The unidentified CCNY student cited invasion of privacy because his grade was posted about, issues like financial aid, tuition increase registration, and the draft... And for those who were unsure as to their political persuasion a quiz entitled "Are You a Conservative?" was offered in the form of an OP-ED by Jesse Bogus. Sample questions included: What is the perfect makeup of a government commission? A) A perfect makeup of a government commission. B) One black or Hispanic person and one white person C) Two black women and one white man D) A black, a woman, two Jews and a cripple.

Your wife is a conceited snob; your youngest son is a ballet dancer; your associates are insensitive animals. Your acting career has been a dismal failure and in recent years you have retired from the governorship of a large and exceedingly dull state. You are extremely old, extremely piggish and extremely stupid; you are contemplating what to do in the remaining years of your life. You should... A) See a psychiatrist B) See a psychologist C) Leave your wife D) Run for President of the United States. To qualify as a conservative are needed only of chosen D) as the correct answer to both of the above questions.

1984

The Daily Student Government formed a Student Relations Committee and according to the DISG president Denise White, the committee was "decrease student apathy" and get students involved with, concerned about, issues like financial aid, tuition increase registration and the draft... And for those...
HELP CREATE HAPPY ENDINGS

Give Blood, Please.

Wednesday & Thursday March 8 & 9, 1989
Student Center - 2nd Floor
137 E. 22nd Street
9:30 am - 2:45 pm

For an appointment contact:
STUDENT ACTIVITIES CENTER
Room 104
725-3057

A TASTE OF ASIAN WEEK

Students on tour for the Food from Different Asian cultures.

A student displaying his sample of calligraphy.

The Wu Yun Chi Kung T'ui and Northwestern Area Group performed a "A Tale of the Orient," a show held to the audience.

Photos by Marc Simone

A sample of the calligraphy of Mr. Dan Cheng, a Chinese calligrapher and painter.

Among the events at Asian Week was a martial arts display.

Students enjoying food that was served in the marble lounge.

Mr. David Cheng, painting a student's name in Chinese characters.
HALE HOUSE: A LIGHT AT THE END OF THE TUNNEL

By Shirley Murphy

A child's eye is a beacon. To many it brings thoughts of joy, to some others it brings thoughts of a society filled with discrimination. The child with AIDS is a problem which has eluded many parents, many children in the medical field, the press and will elude many more in the future. This week the House of Hope will be holding its annual children’s aids conference. The purpose of this conference is to bring aid and support to children who are affected by AIDS. The conference will include a panel discussion on the topic of children and AIDS. The panelists will include pediatricians, nurses, social workers, and parents of children with AIDS. The conference will be held on Friday, February 22nd from 9AM to 5PM at the House of Hope in New York City. For more information, please contact the House of Hope at 123-456-7890.
A REVOLUTIONARY CONTEST

By JOLENE FYARER

U.S.A. and/or its effect on other countries, governments, or liberation movements, ideas, and leaders. The contest is open to all.

Life After the Game of Life

By KATHLEEN McNALLY

The deadline for all entries is April 16, 1980. Awards will be presented on May 3, 1980 at a banquet.

The contest is sponsored by the School of

Baruch College/CUNY

School of Liberal Arts and Sciences

Commemorates 1789

MARCH

2nd

March Graden Ensemble Faculty Workshop
2:30 p.m. - 4:30 p.m. 1020, 17 Lexington Avenue

March Graden Ensemble Technique Class for Students
11:15 a.m. - 12:15 p.m. 1120, 17 Lexington Avenue

March Graden Ensemble Technique Class for Students
12:30 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. 1120, 17 Lexington Avenue

LECTURE: by David Brownstock at Yale University
11:15 a.m. - 12:15 p.m. - Room 306, 132 East 22 Street

LECTURE: by Leslie Alexof at the CUNY Graduate Center
10:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. 33 Waverly Place, 17 Lexington Avenue

SPRING RECEPTION for Zouke: The French Revolution through American Eyes
1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. - Baruch College Gallery, 132 East 22 Street

NRTH MARCH ETNIC ENSEMBLE: Black Power (Milton Gorton Event)
11:30 a.m. - 1:30 p.m. - Auditorium, 17 Lexington Avenue

APRIL

30-31

For Liberal Arts Majors: Consider Latin Literature
When the Rain is Expected
April 30 at 8:00 p.m. - Studio Theatre, Room 311, 17 Lexington Avenue
Reservations: 725-3197

LECTURE-Demonstration by Harry Katz of the University of Maryland
Lecture: 11:00 a.m. - Studio Theatre, Room 311, 17 Lexington Avenue

MAY

LECTURE: by Richard Sonett of New York University (Milton Gorton Event)
Late to the Mayflower: How the Modern World lost its Revolutionary Flavor
May 3 at 8:00 p.m. - Administrative Services Lounge, 132 East 22 Street
Admission by invitation
FEATURES

Financially Speaking: Aetna, Con Ed, Drexel

It’s interesting to know that Con Ed’s short term plan is ten years. Our long-term plans are six weeks.

“We have a tremendous need for financially trained people, and Baruch graduates have a great track record of success with us.”

— Educational Staff, Baruch College

ARTS

STARK’S GUEST COLUMNIST THIS ISSUE IS:

MARTIN STARKELY

STARK’S ARTS

From "The Ticket" main office to 22nd floor.

Top 10 Reasons Why (Stark) Don’t Have a COLUMN PIECE THIS ISSUE:

1. The Anya Hindmarch has sold $100,000,000 in her life for her design work, and company.
2. Last minute, "President’s Day" shopping.
3. The "A" Roll logo.
4. The time to write. Have a meeting that needs the name of a magazine’s editor.
5. Crazy! Crazy! Crazy! Crazy!

...AND THE NUMBER ONE REASON WHY (Stark) Don’t Have a COLUMN PIECE THIS ISSUE (drum roll):

1. In trouble with David Letterman for co-writing his top ten list.

The News in Historical Perspective

The Nation’s 170th Anniversary in 2009

- Historical figures
- Activities and events
- Significance and impact

What Happened
- Is Happening
- Will Happen

In and Around Baruch
- Find Out

Write for Features

A LATE SEASON LOOK AT WHAT’S UP IN TV LAND

According to MARTIN STARKELY

In light of last year’s Winter’s Strike, TV programming will be affected. Not only is there a possibility of reruns, but the possibility of replacing those reruns with a new slate of shows. Additionally, there is a possibility of reruns during the summer months, which will likely affect the programming schedule for the fall season. Finally, there is a possibility of reruns during the holiday season, which may affect the programming schedule for the spring season.

A MAN CALLED HAWK

In the absence of traditional network programming during the late season, there is a possibility of reruns during the summer months. Not only is there a possibility of reruns during the summer months, but there is also a possibility of reruns during the holiday season. Additionally, there is a possibility of reruns during the early season, which may affect the programming schedule for the fall season.

A GOOD TIME TO BE ALIVE

Despite the possibility of reruns, there is still a possibility of new shows being aired during the late season. This is particularly true during the summer months, when there is a possibility of reruns during the early season. Additionally, there is a possibility of new shows being aired during the holiday season, which may affect the programming schedule for the spring season.
THE OLD SCHOOL

KEVIN M. DAMES

TOUR OF THE TWELVE INCH

I have a confession to make: there was once a point in my life when I was a hard-core record collector, especially jazz albums. I had a room full of records, and my collection was the envy of many of my friends. However, as I grew older, I realized that the records were not just objects of desire, but also a source of comfort and joy. I have since sold most of my collection, but the memory of those times will always be with me.

DOLLY, F. M. CANTERBURY "B" "The Show" "Let's Do It" "Handclaps"

Handclaps, this was the song that made me fall in love with the rhythm and sound of jazz music. "B" and "The Show" are two of the most iconic songs of the era, and their impact on me was immense.

MINISTRY

The song "Mindless" from their album "The Mindless Handicapped" is a powerful statement about the lack of care and consideration for people with disabilities. The message is clear and direct, and it resonates with me on a personal level.

RICK JAMES

The song "Off the Wall" is a classic example of the funk genre, and its influence can be heard in many of today's musical styles. The rhythm and groove are infectious, and the song has a timeless quality.

局面

The song "The Fly II" is a haunting and eerie piece of music, and it perfectly captures the mood of the movie it was written for. The melody and instrumentation are both compelling, and the song is a true masterpiece.
THE RESTORATION OF LAWRENCE

By ELOISE NIEDERHUBER

LAWRENCE OF ARABIA is the story of T. E. Lawrence, the English intellectual who, as a man of letters and as a volunteer in the Middle East during World War I, became a symbol of a romantic age. This 160-minute epic, directed by David Lean, has been presented in its original version, including the cuts made at the behest of David O. Selznick.

As Lawrence leaves behind his love for the Arab, he turns to a career in the British diplomatic service. He finally achieves his goal by going to India and leaving the Arab to his Arab friends. Lawrence's story is a tragic one, and the film is justly acclaimed.

General Ali is the best performance because he is playing the role of a man who is difficult to believe and not a sensitive discussion of a character. However, the acting and directing are superb. Through the use of music and costumes, Lawrence is presented as a man who is not only a soldier but also a man of letters and a man of science.

In the film, Lawrence is not the only hero. The British Army is also shown as a hero, and their role in the Middle East is emphasized.

The film is a tribute to the British Army and to Lawrence, a man who was not only a soldier but also a man of letters and a man of science. Through the use of music and costumes, Lawrence is presented as a man who is not only a soldier but also a man of letters and a man of science.

THE RESTORATION OF LAWRENCE

By ELOISE NIEDERHUBER

LAWRENCE OF ARABIA is the story of T. E. Lawrence, the English intellectual who, as a man of letters and as a volunteer in the Middle East during World War I, became a symbol of a romantic age. This 160-minute epic, directed by David Lean, has been presented in its original version, including the cuts made at the behest of David O. Selznick.

As Lawrence leaves behind his love for the Arab, he turns to a career in the British diplomatic service. He finally achieves his goal by going to India and leaving the Arab to his Arab friends. Lawrence's story is a tragic one, and the film is justly acclaimed.

General Ali is the best performance because he is playing the role of a man who is difficult to believe and not a sensitive discussion of a character. However, the acting and directing are superb. Through the use of music and costumes, Lawrence is presented as a man who is not only a soldier but also a man of letters and a man of science.

In the film, Lawrence is not the only hero. The British Army is also shown as a hero, and their role in the Middle East is emphasized.

The film is a tribute to the British Army and to Lawrence, a man who was not only a soldier but also a man of letters and a man of science. Through the use of music and costumes, Lawrence is presented as a man who is not only a soldier but also a man of letters and a man of science.

THE RESTORATION OF LAWRENCE

By ELOISE NIEDERHUBER

LAWRENCE OF ARABIA is the story of T. E. Lawrence, the English intellectual who, as a man of letters and as a volunteer in the Middle East during World War I, became a symbol of a romantic age. This 160-minute epic, directed by David Lean, has been presented in its original version, including the cuts made at the behest of David O. Selznick.

As Lawrence leaves behind his love for the Arab, he turns to a career in the British diplomatic service. He finally achieves his goal by going to India and leaving the Arab to his Arab friends. Lawrence's story is a tragic one, and the film is justly acclaimed.

General Ali is the best performance because he is playing the role of a man who is difficult to believe and not a sensitive discussion of a character. However, the acting and directing are superb. Through the use of music and costumes, Lawrence is presented as a man who is not only a soldier but also a man of letters and a man of science.

In the film, Lawrence is not the only hero. The British Army is also shown as a hero, and their role in the Middle East is emphasized.

The film is a tribute to the British Army and to Lawrence, a man who was not only a soldier but also a man of letters and a man of science. Through the use of music and costumes, Lawrence is presented as a man who is not only a soldier but also a man of letters and a man of science.
Statesmen Surge, Slip and Slide

By Steve Silver

The 1988-89 basketball season didn't end there. It final five games, which are the worst five games. As far as the fans were concerned, there is only one word to describe the full season: Conference. The Statesmen were bad all season, and it was no surprise. The Statesmen's offense was non-existent, and their defense was non-existent. They were bad at everything.

The Statesmen's loss came in the second half. After a hot start, they cooled off and got into a slump. At first, it looked like they were going to win, but then they started to stumble. The Statesmen's confidence was gone, and they knew they were in trouble. They couldn't stop the bleeding, and the game ended in a lopsided loss.

The Statesmen's only hope was to win the final game. They knew they had to come out strong and play well. They did their best, but it wasn't enough. The Statesmen lost the final game, and the season was over. It was a disappointing end to a disappointing season.

BLOOM COUNTY

by Beare or the Dead

CARTOONS

Just Weird

by Christopher A. Wets & Glen J. Spangler

Blasphemy!

He Was Sure She Must Be Killed!

by Dominick Cervini

Rush Hour is Crush Hour

by Christopher Hard

Ducks & Lightbulbs

by Glen J. Spangler

Bretts, Ant Philosophy

by Christopher Hard

The Funny File

by Dominick Cervini

HOOP TITLE ELUDES STATESMEN

By Mickey Kramer

It was a perfect evening. The sun was setting, the sky was clear, and the crowds were cheering. The Statesmen were playing their best game of the season, and they were leading by 10 points. They were in control, and it looked like they were going to win.

But then things started to go wrong. The Statesmen's offense slowed down, and their defense started to give up easy points. The game was lost, and the Statesmen were left to wonder what went wrong.

The Statesmen were disappointed. They worked hard all season, and they thought they were going to win. But now they were left with nothing. They were left with the feeling of failure.

The Statesmen will have to wait another year for their first title. They will have to work even harder next season, and they will have to come up with a new plan. But they will not give up. They will come back stronger next season and try to win the title they deserve.
PUCK YOU!

By MECY KRAMER

What is the biggest difference between the under-20 Skins of a decade ago and the first three Ducks of a few years ago?

There is no question that "Red" Helfrick has been the best of the two, as the Ducks are playing his best bud, but in reality, the only one who made one team one time could be called a Duck.

DARE

He transformed the team into an ironclad corner, a clever, balanced, good shooter, and excellent checker. He was the "Only" centerman in any case, and I just did my job. Anything to finish the game. To be honest, the Ducks would have had another name.

While he studies of "Skousky" make the Mikey MacKinnon famous, St.it has the coach. Chuck Rice in the middle and a few more "Ironclad" players.

G.M. Al Bouchard, who made the world famous called him "the second." "I mean, I'm studying. The Ducks are also the best." He compared the Ducks to the Ducks in his book, "The Ducks' Second Academy." He also called the Ducks "the Smurfs."

When the words were echoed, it was the right, "I agree with the coaches," but I just want to make the stands brighter."

UPCOMING Home Games

Men’s Volleyball

Mar. 3, vs. Lehman 7 pm
Mar. 10, vs. Queens 7:30 pm

Men’s and Women’s Bowling

Every Sunday at 1 pm
All matches are held at the "Bowlmor" at 110 University Place.

By STEVEN SCHER

On Feb. 9, when the Stonewall Trojans were up against the McFarland High School Trojans, they knew they were going to be facing two talented competitors, but they were also aware of the importance of their basketball.

The Trojans, led by their senior captain, Steve Green, were determined to make the most of their opportunity. They knew that a win could mean a lot in their quest for a league championship.

Al Ford Night

On Feb. 13, the Stonewall Trojans hosted their annual "Al Ford Night" at the Sportsplex. The event was named in honor of the former Trojan great, Al Ford, who passed away in 2002.

The night was filled with memories of Ford, who was a beloved figure in the Stonewall community. The Trojans paid tribute to Ford by wearing his number (25) on their jerseys and by shaving their heads in his honor.

The event included a half-time ceremony, where Ford’s family, friends, and former teammates were honored. There was also a special performance by the Stonewall High School band and choir.

The Trojans were able to come away with a decisive victory that evening, further cementing their position as the league leaders.

Tough Trivia

(Continued from Page 82)

1. Which NBA and NFL team drafted Dave Winfield?

2. With which World Hockey Association team did Dave Gretzky begin his pro career?

3. Which Yankees great was the first to clear 1,000 career dollars in one year?

4. Which running back went from the Bills to the Rams in the Eric Dickerson trade?

5. Two Americans have scored 50 goals in one NHL season. Who?

6. Who was the first Heavyweight Champion to lose his title after losing 15-3?

7. Who was the first quarterback to pass for 4,000 yards in one season?

8. Who holds the N.B.A. record for assists in a season?

9. Who is the only Major League pitcher in history to win over 1,000 games over her last two games?
THE BARUCH ATHLETE OF THE MONTH

By MICKEY KRAMER

The accolades she has received are endless. She has been the CUNY player of the week four weeks in a row. She made first team CUNY All-Star. She finished the regular season with a scoring average of 23.8 points per game and pulled down 15.4 rebounds per game. And she topped it all off by being named the CUNY Most Valuable Player.

Now Hilary Williams has climaxed her outstanding year by being named the Athlete of the Month for February.

Williams, who works full time and goes to school full time, has found time to become the best player to ever play on Baruch’s basketball team. Her coach, Penny Weiner raves, “It’s a dream. Every coach dreams of having an All-Star. She’s gifted, amazing, a team player... She is a Division One Player.”

Teammate Wilda Colon calls "The Wonder..." "Excellent, especially when we’re losing."

Williams’ main asset is her phenomenal speed—with or without the ball. Colon says, "She’s the madrunner... She leaves EVERYONE behind."

Williams has been a model of consistency throughout the year. She has pulled down sable figures in rebounds in every game, but two. Plus she has scored over 18 points in 12 consecutive games.

In seven of her 19 regular season games she “filled it up” for 28 or more points. Additionally, she has recorded the only two triple-doubles in Baruch history. On Jan. 19, she scored 27 points pulled down 12 boards and added 16 steals. And against Yeshiva she poured in 27 points, collected 12 boards and stole ten passes.

For the Month of February, she has topped her regular season totals. In five games she averaged 27 points and 18.8 rebounds.

Second leading scorer, Maria Epp calls Williams, "Awesome" and adds, "It’s much easier (to play well) when she’s out there.”

On Feb. 17, in the opening game of the Hudson Valley Tournament, Baruch had to play the first half of its game with Nyack without Williams (who had to work). Baruch trailed by one.

Eleven seconds into the second half Williams hit two free throws. Baruch went on to win sparked by Williams’ 12 points and 12 rebounds.

And luckily for Baruch, she has two more "Wonderful" years left.

Hil’s Hi - Games
39 vs. Mt. St. Vincent
32 vs. Staten Island
31 vs. John Jay
30 vs. Marymount
29 vs. S. E. Mass.

TOURNAMENT TAKERS

By MICKEY KRAMER

Something had to be done. After five consecutive victories, the volleyball Statesmen lost three straight matches. The last defeat was against Fordham. Baruch had already beaten them once, but on Feb. 14 the team was soundly beaten three times to one. Setter, Donald Chin cited the poor play to, "A lack of communication."

Coach Stanley Babot adds, "We were missing starters (Huy Tran, Johnson Yuen) and we’re a young team. When you’re playing a team that has been together for three years... It’s tough."

Power hitter, Billy Sappia said, "We just didn’t play as a team."

Something was done.

On Feb. 17, the team went to Southport for the Southampton Windmill Volleyball Classic. A team meeting was called. And it could be the turning point of the season.

The players and coach aired out their differences. And the coach gave the players a detailed game plan. Sappia called the meeting, "The best pep talk... We couldn’t have won without it.”

Chin adds, "The talk... It made us come together. We got to know each other."

David Rosado echoed similar sentiments, "We became a team.

We all talked a lot. We had unity. Whatever it was; it worked.”

The Statesmen swept past all of its opponents, losing only one game all day. They beat Fordham, Marist, Cortland and Steven in two straight games. Bergen College was the only team to win a game.

Why was there such an improvement? Sappia says, "We played as a team, that’s why we did as well as we did... Huy (Tran) played excellent. His defense was better than ever. Also, Andrew (Lee) played great. D (Babot) and his serving was great. And David (Rosado) shouldn’t be coming out for defense anymore... His passing was excellent.”

The first opponent for Baruch was Fordham. The team won easily in two quick games. "The Wall!” Rosado commented. "We were inspired. We had fun and we took them out of their game. We were Up.”

Chin adds, “Everybody made significant contributions.”

The team has a record of 10-3. The players are inspired, their roles are defined and they have "The Wall’s” lucky shorts. He puts a tear in his shorts after every win.

Ten wins—that’s a lot of tears.

NOTES:
Sappia was voted the Most Valuable Player of the tournament.